MRS. BRUCE MACK WALKER

Walker-Johnson Wedding Vows Spoken In Ceremony At Liberty

Miss Janet Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allan Johnson, Jr., of Liberty, and Bruce Mack Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wiley Walker of Franklinville, were married Saturday, August 4, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the First United Methodist Church in Liberty. The pastor, the Rev. Paul A. Bruton, officiated.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. W. C. Johnson of Mooreville.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Ann Carter, organist, and Mrs. Pike Johnson sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown, which was her mother's, was of candlelight point de Leon lace over satin, fashioned with long tapering sleeves and neckline scalloped in the pattern of the lace. The fitted bodice accented the full skirt of tulle with a lace overskirt which extended into an aisle-wide train. Her full length veil was bordered with matching lace. She carried a cressent of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jean Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Johnson of Mooreville, cousin of the bride, Miss Barbara Johnson of Forest Oaks, Miss Janet Henderson of Fayetteville, and Miss Deborah Wood of Newport News, Virginia. They wore identical gowns of mint green linen and carried cascades of full chrysanthemums with accents of yellow.

Robert Johnson, youngest brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Prior to the ceremony, candles were lighted by another brother, Bill Johnson.

Carter Walker of Franklinville was his brother's best man. Ushers were Allan Johnson of Liberty, brother of the bride; Thomas Strickland of Ransom, Don Herndon of Reidsville, and Jerry Daniel of Burlington.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length ensemble of strawberry pink and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a long chiffon dress of peacock blue and an orchid shoulder corsage.

The bride attended Wake Forest University and is currently a rising senior, majoring in special education, at Greensboro College.

Mr. Walker attended North Carolina State University, Raleigh, and is at present studying commercial art at Guilford Technical Institute and is employed by Allied Systems of Greensboro.

After August, the couple will be at home at 6015 L. Nora Drive in Greensboro.

Bridal Couple Entertained At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cavin, Sr., entertained their daughter, Judith Elizabeth and her groom-to-be, Robert Fisher, with a rehearsal dinner at the Dogwood Restaurant immediately following their rehearsal at 8:00 p.m. on July 27, at the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church.

For the dinner party, tables were arranged in the shape of a horseshoe and were laid with cloths of yellow and mint green. An arrangement of daisy mums, baby carnations, statice, fern and snapdragons in shades of the bridesmaids' gowns, yellow, pink, lavender, blue and green was used on the bride's table. A miniature bride and groom marked the places of Elizabeth and Robert.

Silver candle holders with yellow and green tapers were used on the ends of the tables.

The bride-elect wore a formal gown of royal blue poly-creepe and was presented a corsage of white gardenias.

The menu for the evening consisted of tomato juice, turkey and dressing, broccoli, corn, rice and gravy, lime congealed salad, tea, coffee, and slices for dessert.

Guests other than the honored couple were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Phillips, soloist and organist for the wedding, the Rev. and Mrs. John J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Clayton of Huntersville, and Mrs. Alex Kerns of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher of Concord, Mrs. C. R. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John Raymon and daughter, Polly, Mrs. Phi Alexander who directed the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cavin, Jr. and Billy III of Stanley, Mr. Opal Fisher, Miss Mary Nell Cavin of Albemarle, Miss Rhonda Burgess of Huntersville, Mrs. Johnny Brewer of Cornelius, Miss Joyce Fisher of Concord, Miss Linda Sue Cavin of Huntersville, Mr. Philip Culp of Concord, Mr. Johnny Potts of Statesville, Bobby Cavin of Huntersville, Dale Irvin and Terry Irvin, both of Huntersville, Gary Fast of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cavin, Sr. of Huntersville.

Favors of net filled bags of rice tied with ribbons were given each guest.

Local Couple's Grandson

Weds Miss Ann Caldwell

Back Creek Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church at New Hope, S. C., was the site of a beautiful wedding ceremony Saturday, August 4, when Miss Elizabeth Ann Caldwell became the bride of Malcolm Shields Rhyne, III.

A. C. Bridges and R. W. Rayburn officiated at the 4 p. m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel A. Caldwell of Charlotte, route 10, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. Rhyne, Jr., of 2827 Ashley Road, Charlotte.

The bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander of the Shearers Chapel Road, Mooreville.

The nuptial music was presented by James Busby, organist. Miss Sara Boyce sang "Treat Me Not To Leave Thee," and Dwight Russell sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Two large arrangements of white mums and gladioli and five brass candelabra, holding white tapers, were used to decorate the church sanctuary.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of candlelight sateen, featuring an empire waist. Bishop sleeves with deep cuffs. The bodice and cuffs were trimmed with Chantilly lace and seed pearls and there were panels of lace down the skirt front. The gown had a scoop neck with China silk pleating around the neck, hemline and cuffs.

The bride wore a lace and pearl-covered headpiece with a lace-bordered cathedral-length veil.

She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Phil Melt of Dallas, college roommate of the bride, attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a Nile green crepe dress with ivory lace yoke and carried a nosegay of yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids were: Mrs. James Busby of Bessemer City; Mrs. Tim Dubois of Chester, S. C.; Mrs. Joe Fanning of Columbia, S. C., cousin of the bride; Miss Meg Rhyne of Charlotte, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Milton Williams of Raleigh, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Robert Wolf of Charlotte.

The bridegroom had his father as best man. Ushers included Harry Rhyne, brother of the bridegroom; Mike Griffin, Mike Scruggs and Jerry Todd, all of Charlotte; James Harris of Pineville and Warren Thompson of Chapel Hill.

The junior usher was Tommy Rhyne of Charlotte, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a long blue chiffon dress, while the bridegroom's mother wore a long pink dress with a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of Appalachian State University at Boone, received her masters of education degree from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. She teaches second grade work at the Winterfield School.

Mr. Rhyne, who is a graduate of East Carolina University at Greenville, works for Conference Concepts in Charlotte.

Following a bridal trip to the mountains, the couple will be at home in Charlotte. For travel, the bride chose a two-piece brown and white dress.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church's fellowship hall.

The table had a green cloth with white lace overcloth and was centered with an arrangement of daisies, snowdrift and baby's breath. Arrangements of daisies also were used elsewhere throughout the home.

Upon arrival, the honoree was presented with a corsage of white carnations.

Stork, bing was played, and afterwards refreshments, consisting of lime sherbert punch, finger sandwiches, cake squares, mints and nuts, were served.

The hostesses' gifts to the honoree were a baby carry seat and a seven-year baby book.

In addition to the honoree, those attending were: Mrs. Beane's mother, Mrs. Virginia Lockman of Lincoln; Mrs. James Gregory of Charlotte, and Mesdames Brenda Frye, June Causby, Nancy Drum, Jane Jackson, Pat Culbertson, Nanette Smith, Betsy Barnhardt, Marsha Cornelius, Susan Poore, and Janet Woy, all of Mooreville.

The bride-elect received two lovely sets of towels and a rolling pin which had been autographed by the guests.

Miss Archie and Whit Strunk will be married on August 12.
