

Miss Cavin And Mr. Fisher United In Lovely Ceremony

Miss Judith Elizabeth Cavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cavin, Sr. of Huntersville, was united in marriage to Robert Fisher on Saturday, July 28, in a 4 p.m. ceremony held at the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Cornelius.

Mr. Fisher is the son Mrs. Opal Fisher of Cornelius and John Fisher of Concord. The couples' vows were spoken in a double ring ceremony before the Rev. John J. Miller.

Altar vases of white snapdragons, white shasta daisies, and white fuji mums were used. Two fifteen branched candelabra decorated with lemon leaf foliage were used on either side of the altar. Large brass urns of white gladioli, white snapdragons, white fuji mums and white shasta daisies were used on the chair rail of the church. At each end of the choir rail, nine branched candelabra decorated with lemon leaf foliage were used. A white kneeling bench was used at the altar.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Larry Phillips of Huntersville, played "Handel's Water Music" by Handel. "O Love, O Love" by Joseph Rheinberger, "The Last Spring" by Edward Grieg, "O Lord, Most Holy" by Cesar Franck, "Romeo and Juliet" by Nino Rota, "Sheep May Safely Graze" by J. S. Bach, "Romance" by C. Debussy, and "To A Wild Rose" by Edward MacDowell. The traditional wedding marches were played for the processional and recessional.

Larry Phillips, soloist, sang "Walk Hand in Hand" by Johnny Cowell, "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap. The bride, given in marriage by her father, W. A. Cavin, Sr., was radiant in a formal length gown of Georgette over satin. The fitted bodice of the gown made along Victorian lines featured a sheer square yolk trimmed with alençon lace, and a high neckline of matching lace. Full sheer sleeves ended in deep self buttoned cuff trimmed with matching lace. The fluid-line skirt of the gown flowed into a deep chapel train.

Her headpiece was a mantle of silk illusion with deep borders of matching alençon lace. Her bouquet was a cascade of white miniature roses and baby's breath, centered with a Little Angel orchid corsage. Miss Mary Nell Cavin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow sheer nylon with embroidered flowers of the same color. Her empire waisted gown featured a scooped neckline and long full sleeves, trimmed with matching lace. Her train was a full skirt, a self belt and tiny covered buttons of matching material. She carried a nosegay of asters, baby's breath, carnations, daisy mums, statice and sweetheart roses in colors matching those of all the attendants' gowns.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kathy Breeding, sister of the groom, Miss Linda Sue Cavin, sister of the bride, Miss Rhonda Burgess, and Miss Joyce Fisher, sister of the groom. Their gowns were identical to those of the maid of honor, and the bride chose for them rainbow colors of lavender, blue, pink and mint green. They also carried nosegays similar to that of the maid of honor. Each attendant wore a picture hat in a color matching her gown, trimmed with satin ribbon.

Little Miss Polly Raymer, flower girl, wore a gown of white trimmed with yellow covered buttons and bell fashioned after the bride's gown. She carried a flat white basket filled with colored flower petals and tied with rainbow colored ribbons. John C. Fisher, of Concord, served his son as best man. Ushers were W. A. Cavin, Jr. of Stanley and Bobby Cavin, brother of the bride, John Potts, Dale Irvin and Tim Irvin of Route 2, Huntersville. They wore shirts in the same colors as the bride's attendants' gowns.

W. A. Cavin, III, nephew of the bride, was a ring bearer. He wore a white tux suit and carried the rings on a pillow of white satin. Mrs. Cavin chose a long gown of pink silk shantung trimmed with pink pearls and crystal beads, and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her outfit was complemented by a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Fisher wore a gown of aqua chiffon with floral trim, long full sleeves, high waistline and full skirt. She wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs. J. P. Cavin, of Mooresville, grandmother of the bride, wore a blue lace gown and a corsage of carnations. Mrs. C. R. Fisher, of Rockwell, grandmother of the groom, wore a formal length gown of blue and a carnation corsage. The bride is a recent graduate of North Mecklenburg High School and is employed by Piedmont Bank and Trust Co. in Mooresville.

The groom attended North Mecklenburg High School and is employed by McCall's Well Drilling Co. After a wedding trip to Asheville, the couple is at home in Huntersville.

MRS. MICHAEL MCCURDY

Miss Clontz, Mr. McCurdy Pledge Vows

Miss Rae Lynn Clontz became the bride of Michael Dale McCurdy on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents on Mooresville, Route 4. The ceremony took place on the patio of the home and the Rev. Paul Conrad, of Statesville, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie T. Clontz of Mooresville, Route 4. She is a 1972 graduate of South Iredell High School and attends the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. She is employed at Flenix in Statesville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale McCurdy of Glen Echo in Statesville. He is a 1972 graduate of South Iredell High School and attends Mitchell College in Statesville. He is also employed at Flenix in Statesville.

Only members of the two immediate families attended the wedding. The bride wore a street length dress of white and navy and a corsage of white pompons. After the wedding, a reception was held in the dining area of the home. Lovely arrangements of white pompons and snapdragons were used in the decor of the home. Mrs. Dwight Clontz, sister-in-law of the bride, completed the serving of the beautifully decorated wedding cake after the couple had cut the first. The cake was decorated by a sister of the groom, presided at the punch service.

After a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, the couple will reside at the Clontz summer home on Lake Norman, Route 4, Mooresville. Members of the Chatter Club and their husbands will have a picnic this Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Marlow, Isle of Pines, Lake Norman. Members are to bring covered dishes and the picnic will be served at 6:30 p.m. Card games will be enjoyed later in the evening.

Reception Follows Wedding Of Miss Cavin, Mr. Fisher

Following the Saturday afternoon, July 28, wedding of Miss Judith Elizabeth Cavin and Robert Fisher at the Mount Zion United Methodist Church in Cornelius, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. (Bill) Cavin, entertained at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bridal table, covered with an embroidered cutwork cloth from the Canal Zone, was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake, surrounded by small wedding bell cakes.

The bride cake was decorated with miniature bouquets of mixed flowers, the color of the bridesmaids' dresses. It had a nosegay on the top tier made of miniature flowers with a yellow bow and two large hearts with the love birds holding wedding bands. A bride and bridegroom stood on a shelf extending from the second tier. All of the cakes were surrounded with ferns and sugar bells and swans.

A five-branched candelabra, decorated with flowers, added to the table setting. Silver trays held fondant minis, decorated with mixed flowers. A silver compote centered the minis. Silver compotes also held the minis. The punch bowl was covered with a beautiful embroidered cloth. The punch bowl held yellow punch with frozen ice cake. A large bouquet of mixed flowers graced the other end of the punch table, and there were silver trays, holding dainty sandwiches.

The service table featured crystal plates and silver trays holding forks and napkins. The receiving line was composed of the bride couple, the bride's parents, the bridegroom's parents, the maid of honor and the bridesmaids. Friends of the families assisted with the serving.

Chirstenbury Couple Honored
At 50th Anniversary Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Christenbury, of Mount Mourne, were honored at a lovely golden wedding anniversary reception on August 6 from two until five o'clock in the afternoon, at the fellowship hall of the Mooresville Church of God.

The reception was given by the honor couple's three children, Mrs. James Wyatt of Mt. Holly; Thomas L. Christenbury and William Christenbury, both of Wilmington, Delaware.

The fellowship hall was beautifully decorated for the celebration with a gold color scheme being used in numerous appointments.

As guests arrived, they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt and presented to the receiving line composed of the honor couple and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Christenbury, and Mrs. William B. Christenbury and three of their wedding attendants fifty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Nantz, Mr. Nantz being best man and Mrs. Nantz, matron of honor and Mrs. Naomi King, a bridesmaid.

At the entrance of the hall, the register table was covered with yellow and overlaid with gold lace. A picture of Mr. and Mrs. Christenbury and a framed newspaper clipping of their wedding fifty years ago graced the register table. Miss Carol Christenbury and Miss Lanie Lankford, both granddaughters of the honor couple presided at the guest register.

The gift table was covered in yellow satin and overlaid with matching gold lace and was attended by two grandsons of the couple, Danny and William Christenbury, Jr.

The anniversary table was covered identical to the other tables in yellow satin with gold lace and a beautifully decorated fountain anniversary cake, flanked on either side with decorated heart-shaped cakes enhanced the center of the table. The cake was decorated in yellow with shasta daisies and the gold numerals "50th". Two three-branched candelabra arrangements of yellow snapdragons, bronze daisies and baby's breath graced each side of the cake.

The punch service was placed on a separate table with gold lace and a beautifully decorated candelabra arrangement identical to the ones on the cake table. Trays held minis, nuts and cheese roses.

After Mr. and Mrs. Christenbury cut the first slice of anniversary cake, Mrs. Jonathan Lankford and Mark Lankford, a grandson of the couple, completed the serving of the cake. Miss Cathy Christenbury and Jonathan Lankford, granddaughter and grandson of the honor couple, presided at the punch table.

Approximately 125 guests called during the afternoon hours.

In the reception, Mrs. Christenbury wore a full length dress of blue polyester styled with a lace bodice. She complemented her attire with a corsage of yellow roses and Mr. Christenbury added a yellow rose boutonniere to his coat lapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Christenbury were married on August 8, 1923, at the Broad Street United Methodist Church with the Rev. G. W. Fink officiating. The Christenbury family was the first couple to be married at the Broad Street Church. Mrs. Christenbury is the former Lena Nantz.

MRS. JOE STEPHENS ESTES

South Iredell Graduates United In Lutheran Ceremony

In a lovely ceremony of simplicity on July 28, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Miss Debra Lee Graham became the bride of Joe Stephens Estes, at seven o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Robert Edsell performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie V. Graham of Mooresville, Route 2 and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Estes of 1239 Second Street, Statesville.

The sanctuary of the church was all-white mixed flowers. Steve Stuts, of Mooresville, church organist, rendered a program of musical pieces which included the traditional wedding marches.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length dress of white eyelot cotton fashioned with a fitted waistline and gathered skirt. The bodice featured a scooped neckline and short puffed sleeves. A pink peot ribbon accented the waistline and formed a bow with streamers in the back.

She wore a white picture hat adorned with pink ribbon and flowers of roses and baby's breath. The bride carried a bouquet of pink daisies, carnations, roses and baby's breath.

The bride and groom are both graduates of South Iredell High School and prior to her marriage, the bride was employed at Uniglass Industries in Statesville. The groom is employed with Bob McIntyre Associates in Memphis.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride table was covered in white linen and appointed with an arrangement of pink carnations, white baby's breath, and pink daisies flanked by two pale pink candles. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in white and trimmed in pale pink and green was served with nuts, minis and punch.

Only members of the two immediate families attended the reception.
