

Afternoon Ceremony Unites

Wincoff-Honeycutt Couple

Charm and beauty marked the wedding of Miss Karen Ann Honeycutt and Rodney Dale Wincoff, at the McGill Avenue Baptist Church in Concord on August 12, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The Reverend Tom Hogan performed the impressive ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Honeycutt of 437 McGill Avenue, Concord and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wincoff of Davidson, Route 1.

The sanctuary of the church was decorated with a background of palms and other greenery interspersed with candelabra holding lighted tapers. The kneeling bench enhanced the center of the altar and the groom and bride were marked with hurricane lamps adorned with white ribbons and foliage. The large wedding cake, which the couple lit at the close of the ceremony to signify oneness, completed the setting.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Betty Talbert, organist and Mrs. Clyde Klutz, Sr., soloist. A prelude of traditional wedding music and marches were played. Vocal selections included "One Hand, One Heart," "Wedding Prayer," and "Whither Thou Goest."

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. As she processed to the altar, she paused at her mother's pew and gave her a kiss and a long stemmed yellow rose. Upon departing from the altar, she paused at the pew of the groom's mother and gave her a kiss and a long stemmed yellow rose.

The bride's gown of white tulle de sole and polyester chiffon was fashioned with an empire waist, round neck and long tapered sleeves. Lace appliques adorned the bodice, sleeves and front of the gown. A cathedral length train was attached to the back of the gown.

Her white mantilla featured lace appliques centered with seed pearls.

The bride carried a white lace covered Bible with a cascade of white roses, egyptian and phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Ronald Honeycutt was matron of honor and Miss Pam Sloop, both of Concord, were maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Ted Klutz of Clemmons; Miss Marilyn Kincaid of Kannapolis and Miss Michele Whitley of Concord.

All of the attendants were dressed identical in floral gowns depicting the colors of yellow and green and styled with empire waists, scooped neckline and short sleeves. The waistline was enhanced with yellow ribbon and a bow in back with streamers. Their picture hats were yellow and each carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Little Miss Tammy Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Little of Davidson, was a flower girl. She was dressed like the adult attendants and carried a basket filled with flower petals.

Master Kevin Crisco, of Concord, was ring bearer. The bridegroom chose his father as best man. Billy Wincoff, of Davidson, cousin of the groom, ushered with Alan Goodman of Davidson, Billy Christie and Steve Scarborough, both of Kannapolis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Honeycutt chose a yellow crepe dress with overblouse and white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Wincoff wore a green polyester dress fashioned with a front and back yoke accented with bead trim. She complemented her attire with matching accessories. Both of the mothers carried lace handkerchiefs and each had corsage of Georgianna orchids with yellow ribbons.

Grandmothers of the bride couple were remembered with corsages of white orchids and the groom's grandmother, Mrs.

Johnson Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on August 5, at a reception given by their children from three until five o'clock in the afternoon, at their home in the Mount Mourne Community.

Children of the couple who hosted the celebration were Henry Cecil Johnson of Mt. Mourne; Harvey D. Johnson of Troutman; Mrs. L. John Albrecht of Kissimmee, Fla. and Harold S. Johnson of Barium Springs.

The honored couple were married on August 5, 1923, in Benham. Mrs. Johnson is the former Hattie Bedella Carter.

In addition to the children mentioned above they have 12 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

A gold theme was used in appointments throughout the home and the dining table was arranged with an antique white candelabra with lighted tapers and gold, bronze, and yellow daisies and yellow snapdragons. The three-tiered anniversary cake, decorated in gold and orange flowers with gold numerals "50th" on either side was topped with a bride and groom and gold wedding bands. The punch service was surrounded with greenery and bronze and gold daisies and baby's breath.

Guests were greeted by the couple's daughter, Mrs. John Albrecht and directed to the guest register where Mrs. Cecil Johnson presided.

Special guest at the celebration was Mrs. Russell Transou of Elkin, who attended the wedding fifty years ago. Mrs. Transou is a sister of Mrs. Johnson.

After the couple cut the first slice of anniversary cake, Mrs. Peggy Edwards completed the serving of the cake, Mrs. George Carter presided at the punch service.

Approximately 100 guest called during the appointed hours. Out of town guests were from Florida, Elkin and West Virginia.

For the celebration, Mrs. Johnson was lovely in a floor length gown of pink crepe with a lace yoke and sleeves. Her corsage was a white orchid with a gold throat. Mr. Johnson added a gold carnation boutonniere to his coat lapel.

Bride-Elect Honored At Kitchen Shower

Miss Julia Ann VanVynck, September 16 bride-elect of Steve Sloop, was honored at a surprise kitchen shower, given by Misses Bonnie Smith and Beth Lyon, at the Smith home last Thursday evening.

During the evening, guests were served coconut cake, minis, nuts and punch.

The honoree was the recipient of many useful and thoughtful gifts including a canister set, a chip and dip bowl, bun warmer, assorted utensils, cake pans, pyrex dishes, ice cube container, rolling pin, loaf pans and Mrs. Smith's gift to the honoree was an original centerpiece consisting of useful kitchen products accented by a large decorative bowl.

Attending the shower were: Mrs. Carl VanVynck and Mrs. Ralph Sloop, mothers of the engaged couple; Mrs. Robert Thompson, sister of the honoree; Mrs. Alexander Smith, Miss Sharon Brotherton, the honoree and her hostesses.

Bridal Couple Honored At Cake-Cutting

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wincoff and Mrs. Peggy Kony were hosts for a cake cutting Friday, August 10, in honor of Jan Wincoff and her fiancé, Layton Holsinger.

The pre-nuptial ceremony was held in the fellowship hall of Hopewell Baptist Church, Davidson.

The couple was married Saturday, August 11, in a 4-p.m. ceremony at Hopewell Baptist Church.

For the cake-cutting, Miss Wincoff was lovely in a formal orange polyester gown with white trim accenting the high neckline and short puffed sleeves.

Upon arrival, guests were greeted by Mr. Bobby Honeycutt. The register was kept by Mrs. Gary Barnett.

The refreshment table covered with a yellow cloth overlaid with white net and yellow ribbon streamers was centered with a floral arrangement of yellow and white mums. The bride couple of yellow and white were used to accent the triple tiered wedding cake. The cake was topped with an ornament of tiny bride figures with a miniature light shining from within a filigree bell. The light added a crystalline shimmer and highlighted the fine detail of the cake. Small sandwiches, minis cheese straws and mixed nuts were served along with the cake and punch.

After the honored couple cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. Jowett Cashion, assisted by Mrs. Tom Martin, completed serving the cake. Presiding over the punch bowl was Mrs. Billy Atwell, assisted by Mrs. Paul Howard.

The engaged couple chose this time to present gifts to their attendants.

MRS. LAYTON PIERCE HOLSINGER, III

Miss Wincoff Becomes Bride Of Mr. Holsinger On Saturday

Miss Janet Austin Wincoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wincoff of route one, Davidson became the bride of Layton Pierce Holsinger, III, on Saturday, August 11, at 4 p.m. at Hopewell Baptist Church, Davidson. The Rev. Randall Dockins, of Charlotte, officiated in the double ring ceremony and heard the couple pledge their vows.

The bridegroom is the son of Layton Pierce Holsinger, Jr. of Charlotte and Mrs. H. G. Linker of Huntersville.

Mrs. Debbie Hegler, organist, rendered a prelude of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Selections included: "Theme from Romeo and Juliet," "Theme from Brian's Song," "Theme from Love Story," "Because," "Oh Promise Me," "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin," "The Lord's Prayer," and "The Wedding March."

Miss Gail Shinn, soloist, rendered "Oh Promise Me" after the bride's mother was seated. Mr. Ronny McGinnis, soloist, presented "The Wedding March," which he played on the guitar. Both Miss Shinn and Mr. McGinnis sang as a duet "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction.

The lovely ceremony was performed before an altar arranged with a fifteen branched candelabra with lighted tapers and greenery and lily of the valley and lilies on either side by seven clustered tapers and centered by a matching kneeling bench. Floral basket arrangements of yellow glads and mums were used. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Ernest B. Austin. She wore a bridal gown of white tulle, satin, fashioned with full puffed sleeves, high neck line and long train. Chantilly lace covered the bodice front and back and down the front of the gown centered with small covered buttons.

To complete the wedding attire, the bride wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion applied with roses and leaves from the Chantilly lace topped with seed pearls and a bow for the head piece.

The bride's dress and veil were made by her mother. She carried a prayer book adorned with a yellow rose corsage.

Miss Mary Ellen Atwell was maid of honor. She was dressed in a pale yellow polyester crepe gown with empire waistline and short puffed sleeves made with yellow lace. She carried two long stemmed yellow roses made into a bouquet with yellow streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pat Caldwell of Huntersville, Miss Diane Fish of Cornelius, Miss Carla Holsinger of Huntersville, and Miss Teresa Martin of Mooresville. The flower girl was little Miss Amy Dellinger of Denver.

All of the attendants were dressed identical to the honor attendant. Each carried a single yellow rose made into a bouquet with yellow streamers.

The bridegroom chose Bill Tadlock as best man. Ushers were Rick Overcash, Chip Brinkley, Tom Ashley, all of Charlotte, and John Detton of Huntersville. Master Timothy Cashion of Cornelius, was the ring bearer. They wore white dinner jackets with yellow ruffled shirts and black trousers along with yellow carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a dress of mint green polyester crepe with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a yellow dress with matching accessories.

White orchid corsages were worn by both mothers.

Family pews were marked by large yellow bows with lily of the valley.

For travel to Tennessee, the bride changed into a baby blue pants outfit with matching accessories. After the wedding trip, the couple will reside at route one, Davidson.

The bride attended North Mecklenburg High School and is employed by Mayer, Patterson, and Martin, Inc. The bridegroom is a 1973 graduate of North Mecklenburg High School and is employed by Duke Power Co.
