MR. AND MRS. VAN BUREN MAYHEW

Mayhew Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Van Buren Mayhew, of Cornelius, were honored on Sunday afternoon, August 5, with a golden wedding anniversary reception, given by their children, at the American Legion Building in Cornelius.

The honor couple were married on August 2, 1923 and they have seven children, seventeen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Children of the couple are Jack V. Mayhew of Lexington; Mrs. Quincy V. Foster of Mooresville; Mrs. Jimmy Kiser of Charlotte; Franklin Mayhew, Mrs. Gene Ervin and Bobby Mayhew, all of Cornelius. A daughter, Mrs. Dorothey Evelyn Ramey, of Utah, was unable to attend.

For the celebration, Mrs. Mayhew chose a formal length gown of gold and white polyester with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow daisy mums. Mr. Mayhew had a boutonniere of gold mums.

The anniversary table was covered with a white and gold cloth and decorated with gold candles, tuberoses and greenery.

The tiered anniversary cake, ornamented with the gold numerals "50th" and a bride and groom, was served by the couple's three daughters, Granddaughters, Miss Barbara Mayhew and Mrs. Dwain Albea presided at the punch service.

Miss Teresa Ervin, also a granddaughter, presided at the guest register.

Gifts were displayed on a table covered with a gold cloth.

Many friends and relatives of the couple called during the afternoon hours to join in the celebration and to wish the couple many more happy anniversaries.

Drop-In Shower Compliments Miss Brown

A pretty color scheme of yellow and green was used in appointments throughout the home of Mrs. James Winecoff at 955 East Iredell Avenue, when Miss Cheryl Brown was guest of honor at a drop-in shower. The courtesy was held on Thursday evening from 7:30 until 9:00 and assisting Mrs. Winecoff were Mrs. Robert Sherrill and Miss Sherry Couch.

Mrs. Winecoff and Mrs. Sherrill are aunts of Miss Brown, who will be married to Donald R. Beard on September 22.

Miss Brown was dressed in pink dotted Swiss and her hostesses presented her with a corsage of white carnations.

The dining table was covered in white lace over yellow and centered with a lovely permanent arrangement of gold and yellow flowers. Refreshments consisted of decorated cake squares, mints, nuts, homemade pickles and green fruit punch.

Twenty-five guests called during the appointed hours and special guests were Mrs. Thelma Brown and Mrs. Carl Beard, mothers of the engaged couple; Mrs. W. H. Winecoff and Mrs. Ronnie Garwood of Troy, Ill.

Miss Brown received many lovely gifts and her hostesses showered her with a tea kettle, coffee pot, recipe lectern and numerous kitchen utensils.

Mrs. Johnston To Resume Piano Classes

Mrs. Eugene Johnston will return to her home on August 23 and resume her classes in piano at that time.

Catawba College Graduates United In Marriage On Sunday

In a ceremony of beauty on August 12, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Fieldstone Presbyterian Church, Miss Sherri Elaine Archie became the bride of Lawrence Whitley Strunk. The bride's pastor, Rev. Richard Newkirk, assisted by the groom's father, Rev. Lawrence Strunk officiated.

The wedding vows were pledged in a setting of spiral candelabra with fifteen lighted tapers and seven branched candelabra holding lighted tapers. Baskets of red and white carnations and white snapdragons enhanced the setting and pews were marked with ribbons and foliage.

MRS. LAWRENCE WHITLEY STRUNK

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clifton Archie of 754 Edgemoor Drive, Mooresville. The groom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Norman Strunk of 224 Division Avenue, Hagerstown, Md.

Mrs. Ray A. Brawley, of Mooresville, organist and Ron Lundy of Virginia Beach, Va., vocalist, rendered a program of wedding music.

The organ prelude consisted of Chorale—To God Alone Be Highest Praise, Bach; Toccato in F Major, Buxtehude; Blest Be The Tie, Mason; Air (Water Music Suite), Handel, March In C, Purcell, Ave Maria, Schubert; Boellmann, O Perfect Love, Barnby; Arioso (Thanks Be To Thee), Handel and Indian Love Call, Friml.

Mr. Lundy sang "The Greatest Of These Is Love", Bilgood; "Wedding Song", Warner; "The Lord's Prayer", Malotte and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You", Lutkin.

The bridal attendants processed to Psalm XIX, Marcello and the bride entered to Chimes and Wedding March (Lohengrin) by Wagner. Wedding March from (Midsummer Night's Dream) by Mendelssohn and Allegro Maestoso (Water Music Suite) by Handel was played for the recessional.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white imported sheer organza with chantilly lace. The gown featured a scoop neckline, long fitted sleeves and empire waist. The sleeves ending in ruffles were accented with satin bows and the waistline was also accented with satin ribbon in back to form a bow with long streamers. A wide panel of chantilly lace extended from the neck to the deep cut away lace hemline. The chapel length train was enhanced with deep hem of cut away lace matching the dress.

Her mantilla of white imported illusion and chantilly lace was shoulder length with blusher.

The bride carried a cascade of red roses, white and red carnations and bridal ribbons.

Mrs. Tom Atkins, of Woodstown, N. J., was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. David Blalock of Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. Frank Swala of Morganton, West Va.; Mrs. Gordon Caywood of Hickory; Miss Nancy Culp of Lancaster, Pa.; and Miss Judy Robinson of Gettysburg, Pa.

Mrs. Jeff Tidrick, of Atlanta, Ga., was an honorary bridesmaid.

All of the attendants were dressed identical in gowns of navy blue organza skirt with double ruffle panels at hemline and the empire waist was accented with a navy cumberbund. The bodice was fashioned of white organza eyelet with each eyelet embroidered in navy and red. The high neckline and long sleeves were enhanced with ruffles and a band of red velvet ribbons.

The matron of honor carried a bouquet of peppermint carnations with red ribbon streamers while the other attendants carried the same type bouquet with the exception of ribbons which were red and white streamers.

Little Miss Terri McKnight, cousin of the bride, was a flower girl. She was dressed like the other attendants.

Master Scott Archie, brother of the bride, served as acolyte.

The groom chose his uncle, Joe Martin of Raleigh, as his best man. Cliff Archie of Mooresville, brother of the bride, ushered with Todd King, Dick Shank and Tom Shank, all of Hagerstown, Md. and David Ratchford of Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Archie chose for her daughter's wedding, a gown of mint green polyester crepe with empire waist and sash at back. The bodice was fashioned of rib knit with long sleeves and scoop neckline.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Strunk wore a gown of pink lace, lined with taffeta and featuring long chiffon sleeves with deep ruffles at wrist and neckline.

Both of the mothers complemented their attire with corsages of white carnations.

Grandmothers of the couple, Mrs. C. C. Shumake, Mrs. Ed Archie and Mrs. Henry Strunk were remembered with corsages of white pompoms.

Mrs. Danny Benfield kept the guest register.

After a wedding trip to Nags Head and points of interest on the North Carolina coast, the couple will make their home at 415 Forest Lane, Mocksville Apts., Mocksville. For traveling, the bride wore a dress and jacket ensemble in white and yellow polyester.

The bridal couple met while attending Catawba College in Salisbury. The bride, a graduate of Mooresville Senior High School, received a degree in sociology at Catawba and is employed as a social worker for Iredell County. The groom, a graduate of North Hagerstown High School, received his degree in economics at Catawba. He also attended the Holiday Inn University and received degrees in hotel and restaurant management. He is employed at Holiday Inn in Lexington.

Lovely Wedding Reception Fetes Sunday Bridal Couple

After the wedding of Miss Sherri Archie and Whit Strunk on Sunday afternoon, at the Fieldstone Presbyterian Church, a lovely wedding reception was held in the social hall of St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

The bride's wedding colors of red and white were used in the decor of the hall. Tables for the reception were covered identical in cloths of white satin with white lace.

Bridesmaids Entertained At Brunch

Honoring her bridal attendants, Miss Sherri Archie and her mother, Mrs. Robert Archie entertained at a brunch on Sunday morning at the Town and Country Restaurant.

Miss Archie and Whit Strunk of Hagerstown, Md., were married on Sunday afternoon, at the Fieldstone Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock.

The dining tables were covered with white cloths and appointed with lovely arrangements of red and white carnations and white snapdragons.

The menu consisted of rolled ham, turkey slices, potato salad, cole slaw, boiled egg slices, assorted crackers, iced tea, coffee and orange sherbet.

Attending the brunch, other than the hostesses, were: Mrs. Lawrence Strunk, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. Joe Martin, aunt of the groom-elect; Mrs. C. C. Shumake and Mrs. J. E. Archie, grandmothers of the bride-elect; Mrs. Tom Atkins, Mrs. David Blalock, Mrs. Gordon Caywood, Miss Nancy Culp, Miss Judy Robinson, Mrs. Frank Swala, Mrs. Jeff Tidrick, Mrs. Kingsley McKnight and daughter, Miss Terri McKnight.

The bridal table held the beautifully decorated wedding cake with the flowing fountain separating the top tier from the other tiers of the cake. The top tier was ornamented with a bouquet of fresh flowers with lovebirds. The cake was decorated in white with red accents. Two three-branched silver candelabra arrangements of red and white flowers and lighted tapers enhanced the table and silver trays held chicken salad puffs, minature ham biscuits, finger sandwiches, and marzipan strawberries.

The silver punch service was placed on a round table spread identical to the other tables and appointed with a similar arrangement of red and white flowers.

Upon entering the reception area, guests helped themselves to fruit balls from a melon basket.

After the bridal couple cut the traditional first slice of wedding cake, Mrs. Arthur Ratledge and Mrs. Gary Archie, aunts of the bride, completed the serving of the cake. Mrs. George Sproul, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Kingsley McKnight, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch service.

Mrs. Danny Benfield, cousin of the bride, kept the guest register which was marked with a red and white floral arrangement and a basket filled with red net rice bags which were distributed to the guests.
