

MISS BRENDA EDITH CANIPE

Mrs. Coxey Entertained At Shower

Recent bride, Mrs. Charlene Leonard Coxey was entertained at a miscellaneous shower on August 12, at the home of Mrs. Becky Leonard on East Iredell Avenue. The courtesy was in the form of a drop-in and a pink and green color scheme was used in appointments throughout the home.

Hostesses were Mrs. Mike Brewer, Mrs. D. W. Davis and Mrs. A. J. Helms.

Wearing a summer ensemble, the honoree received a corsage of white pompons, adorned with wedding bells, from her hostesses.

The dining table, covered in green lace, was appointed with a floral arrangement of pink, green and yellow. The crystal punch service was filled with green fruit punch and other refreshments were praline cake, nuts and mints.

Thirty guests called during the evening hours and the honoree received many lovely and useful gifts.

MRS. DAVID JEFFREY STONESTREET

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Miss Daniel, Mr. Stonestreet

A candlelight ceremony on August 18, at the Arden Presbyterian Church, united in marriage Miss Cynthia Nadine Daniel and David Jeffrey Stonestreet. The lovely ceremony was performed by the Reverend Ed Graham, assisted by the Reverend Billy Taylor, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey Daniel of Walnut Street, Royal Pines. Arden and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Columbus Stonestreet, Jr., of 116 West Park Avenue, Mooresville.

The altar of the sanctuary was ornamented with a background of greenery interspersed with numerous candelabra holding lighted tapers and baskets of all white gladioli, snapdragons, and carnations. Palms graced each side of the choir loft and completed the setting.

Wedding music was rendered, prior to and during the ceremony, by Robert Whitman, III, organist and Dr. Jesse Chapman, vocalist. The organist is well-known throughout the south and plays for state conventions. He rendered a program of traditional wedding music.

Dr. Chapman, of Asheville, sang "Hand in Hand We'll Walk Together With the Lord," "Each for the Other" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown of candlelight ivory silk organza and alencon lace styled with a "see thru" yoke and long cuffed sleeves applied with lace and pearls. The a-line skirt was applied with the same lace and pearls. Her chapel length train was bordered with matching alencon lace and pearls.

The bride's full length mantilla fell from a cap of alencon lace and was applied with medallions, pearls and sequins.

Her cascade bouquet was fashioned of white roses, stephanotis, and baby's breath with an orchid in the center, which she lifted and added to her going away ensemble.

Mrs. Brenda Millsaps, of Robbinsville, was matron of honor. Her gown was fashioned with a yellow daron and nylon flowered print skirt and matching polyester organza bodice. Elizabethan ruffles accented the neck and hemline. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, mixed colored daisies, and baby's breath.

Miss Sandy Showalter of Athens, Ga., was maid of honor and she was dressed in pastel

Kristin Harris Celebrates 8th Birthday

Kristin Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harris, celebrated her 8th birthday with a party on Saturday, August 18, at her home.

The dining room of the home was decorated with streamers, balloons and flowers. There were little girl party hats at each chair and each place was marked with a miniature doll cake bearing the girl's name. Kristin had a larger doll cake which was cut and served with ice cream, punch and potato chips.

Games were played and prizes were won by Christine Brown and Kim Harris. Those attending the party were: Vivian Rogers, Jana Sawyer, Kim Harris, Megan Morrow, Donna Bowles, Carol Ann Johnson and Christine Brown.

Kristin received many nice gifts.

Bill Kiser celebrated his 10th birthday on Thursday evening with a party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kiser, at their home on Mooresville, Route 6, Brawley School Road.

Refreshments of birthday cake, shaped like a football and decorated as a football field with a pennant of the Washington Redskins, and ice cream were served to those helping Bill celebrate.

Guests included: Alan Clodfelter, Chris Brooks, Lisa Brooks, Mary Helen Hasket, Alan Hasket, Buddy Goodson, Mrs. Jean Goodson, Mrs. Elizabeth Brook and the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Goodson.

Bill received many nice gifts.

Covers were laid for ten guests which included the bride and groom, Mrs. Tom Brown and Mrs. Harry Horton of Salisbury. Also, Mrs. Tim Brown of Boone and Mrs. Sam Brown who will direct the wedding.

The Rev. Tom McLean officiated at the six o'clock ceremony, and music was presented by organist Danny Millsaps and the bride's brother, Tim Brown of Boone, guitarist and soloist.

The couple will live in Salisbury after a honeymoon at the coast. For travel, the bride wore a pink and white polyester pantsuit with a daisy corsage.

A graduate of Mooresville High School, the bride is employed with Lowrance Hospital, and attended Rowan Technical Institute, where her husband is an instructor. She will resume her studies there in the fall.

The bridegroom graduated from China Grove High School, and attended Pfeiffer College. He is a four-year student of Marietta Technical Institute and of Marietta-Cobb Area Vocational Technical School, Marietta, Ga.

On Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal, a cake-cutting was held in the church social hall.

Bridesmaids' LuncheonFetes Miss Brown

Miss Genie McNeely was hostess on Saturday at a bridesmaids luncheon honoring Miss Dottie Brown, bride-elect of Larry Horton. Miss McNeely was assisted by her mother, Mrs. G. E. McNeely, and the courtesy was held at their home on Mooresville, Route 3.

The bride-elect wore a pretty white frock of polyester with green and yellow trim to which she added a daisy corsage from her hostesses. She also received a silver, candy dish as the hostesses' gift.

Prior to the luncheon, appetizers were served in the den and guests were invited to the dining area where the table was covered in white with lace trim and a lovely arrangement of yellow gladioli, mums and tuberoses. Silver candelabrum held yellow tapers. The guests found their places marked with daisy nameplates with yellow net rice bags, accented with yellow ribbons.

Tables, arranged in the living room, were covered with white cloths with yellow lace trim and centered with budvases filled with arrangements of tuberoses and baby's breath.

The menu consisted of chicken salad in pastry shells topped with red hearts of pimento, sugar peas, asparagus casserole with almonds, cantaloupe, lettuce and tomatoes and a relish tray of pickled okra, pickled green tomatoes, olives, pickles and angel biscuits with iced tea. Bridesmaid's luncheon was served with green and white slipper shoes was served for dessert.

Covers were laid for ten guests which included the bride and groom, Mrs. Tom Brown and Mrs. Harry Horton of Salisbury. Also, Mrs. Tim Brown of Boone and Mrs. Sam Brown who will direct the wedding.
