Mrs. Dearman Guest Of Jaycettes

The Mooresville Jaycettes met at 7:30 Monday night August 20, in the conference room of the Carolina First National Bank.

President Freddie Bridges presided over the meeting which was attended by 17 members and 2 visitors.

Special speaker for the evening was Mrs. Dearman a member of the Board of Directors of the Emergency Child Care Home of Iredell County, Inc. Mrs. Dearman presented an interesting and informative program with slides telling the history and background of this new facility which will provide emergency care for Mooresville, Statesville, and Iredell County youngsters. The newly acquired facility located near Statesville High School will hold open house this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Changes in by-laws and constitution were presented to the club for a vote at the next meeting. The Jaycettes voted to bring a group of boys from Huntersville Boys Home and treat them to tickets and refreshments for the Jaycee sponsored Rodeo on Friday night.

The Jaycettes presented to their past president Marie Davis a lovely gold bracelet with a Jaycette pendant in appreciation of her efforts for the club.

Following the business meeting, the door prize was awarded to Brenda Crouch, a member of the club, for her contributions and refreshments were served by Gail Frick and Maria Moore.

Charles Caskey spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Caskey. He accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Leaver of Bethesda, Md., who were enroute to Alabama, as far as Mooresville. The Leavers returned here on Friday and were overnight guests of the Caskeys and on Saturday, they and Charles returned to Maryland. Charles was the guest minister at the Centre Presbyterian Church on August 12. He is studying at Virginia Theological Seminary at Alexandria. Prior to entering the seminary he was associated with the Defense Department in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Coggins Honored At Stork Shower

A drop-in stork shower was given for Mrs. Larry Coggins on August 18, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Lillian Marshall on North Church Street. Mrs. Margaret Settemyere was co-hostess.

The home was most attractive throughout depicting the special occasion.

Sherbet punch was served with decorated cake squares, nuts, and mints to the 40 guests as they arrived to wish the expectant mother their best wishes.

The honored guest received many beautiful gifts from those attending, as well as from other invited guests who were unable to attend.

The hostesses gift was a silver spoon and a beautiful white shawl.

Honoring Mrs. Pryor Miller, a coffee was given on Thursday morning by Mrs. Harry Gabriel and Mrs. Fred Tucker, at the Gabriel home on the Statesville Highway.

Beautiful arrangements of summer flowers were used in appointments throughout the home and the dining table, covered in white linen, was centered with an arrangement of roses.

Served with coffee was an assortment of finger sandwiches, cheese ball, dainty cookies and banana tart.

Ten guests attended the courtesy and the hostesses presented the honoree with a framed cloth which was trimmed in hand-crocheted lace, made by Mrs. Gabriel. She also received a friendship book which had been autographed by the guests.

The Miller family moved this Tuesday morning to Dunn where Mr. Miller will be associated with the Burlington Industries plant there.
