

Boys To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Boyd will honor their parents with a reception on their 50th wedding anniversary in the Fellowship Hall of the Mooreville Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Carpenter and Rankin Streets, Sunday, September 9, between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m. No formal invitations will be issued. Friends and relatives are cordially invited. Please omit gifts.

Pre-Nuptial Courtships Fete Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Woody entertained at a pre-rehearsal dinner on Friday evening, honoring their son, Christopher Woody and his fiancée, Miss Debra Kerr. The dinner was held at the Raleigh Woman's Club.

Following the rehearsal at the Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh, a cake-cutting was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cauthen and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallagher, at the North Ridge Country Club. Guests were the bride's couple, their attendants, relatives and close friends.

The bride is attending Career Beauty College in Statesville and the groom is a senior at West Rowan High School. He is employed by Burlington Industries.

On Saturday morning, the bride couple, Miss Kerr and Mr. Woody, were entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Velvet Cloak Inn in Raleigh. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Banks D. Kerr of 4750 Edwards Mill Road, Raleigh and the granddaughter of L. P. Kerr of Mooreville, and the late Mrs. Kerr. She attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and will return there to graduate in the spring. She is majoring in math and is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Woody, of 812 Autumn Court, Raleigh, will graduate in December from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He is majoring in civil engineering. The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory tulle de sole with alencon lace accents. The gown featured an empire bodice with sculptured neckline and long bell sleeves. Her mantilla on alencon lace was attached to a camel cap. The bride's sister, Mrs. Steve Lloyd, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Rybak, Miss Margaret Ann

MRS. CHRISTOPHER LEE WOODY

Granddaughter Of Mr. Kerr Weds Mr. Woody On Saturday

The Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh was the setting for the wedding of Miss Debra Sharon Kerr and Christopher Lee Woody, on August 25, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. T. Marvin Vick performed the ceremony and a program of wedding music was rendered by Louis Braun, organist. Miss Judi Edelstein and Jimmy North sang "There Is Love".

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were: Mike Woody brother of the groom; Johnny Kerr, brother of the bride; Steven Lloyd brother-in-law of the bride; Thad Barringer, Andy Wilkinson; Linwood Strickland, Sam Uzzell and Tom Barefoot, all of Raleigh.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Carolina Country Club in Raleigh.

The couple will make their home in Blacksburg, Va.

Sunday Bridal Couple Feted At Reception

Immediately following the wedding of Miss Nancy Setzer and David Henson on Sunday afternoon, at the Broad Street United Methodist Church, a reception was hosted by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Setzer, in the fellowship hall of the church.

The receiving line was composed of the bride couple, the bride's parents, the groom's aunt, the maid of honor and bridesmaid.

Miss Crystal Deal directed the guests to the bridal table which was beautifully appointed with a white linen cloth overlaid with green net and caught at various points with pink velvet ribbon bows.

The center of the table was enhanced with a silver candelabra arrangement of all white flowers and white tapers. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in white with accents of yellow roses and green foliage and topped with a miniature bride and groom in front of a church window featuring a gold cross, graced one end of the table. The crystal punch service, filled with green fruit punch and a floating fruit mold in the shape of a butterfly, was at the opposite end of the table. Silver and crystal trays held cheese rosettes, nuts and minis. Bridal napkins with the couple's name and wedding date completed the appointments.

After the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of wedding cake, Mrs. Margaret Grill, of Lillington, aunt of the bride, completed the serving of the cake. Mrs. George Deal, of Landis, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch service. Assisting with the serving were Miss Sandra Lynn Shoe, of 427 Wedgewood Drive, Mooreville, to Dennis Eugene Foltz, son of the Rev. and Mrs. John C. Foltz, of 127 East Wilson Avenue, Mooreville.

The wedding is planned for November 10, at seven o'clock in the evening, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Mooreville. Both the bride and groom-elect are graduates of Mooreville Senior High School. The bride-elect is employed at Belk's Department Store, Mooreville. The groom-elect attended Trevecca College in Tennessee and is now employed at Mooreville Floor Covering and Contractors Supply Co.

MISS SANDRA LYNN SHOE

Miss Shoe And Mr. Foltz Plan November 10 Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Shoe, of 310 North Withlacoochee Street, Marion, S. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Sandra Lynn Shoe, of 427 Wedgewood Drive, Mooreville, to Dennis Eugene Foltz, son of the Rev. and Mrs. John C. Foltz, of 127 East Wilson Avenue, Mooreville.

The wedding is planned for November 10, at seven o'clock

NO, what they discovered was something just as good as money in the bank. It's Amcourt's revolutionary "Lease-Now Buy-Later" plan. What it means to YOU, the mobile home customer, is that even if you don't have the cash for the customary down payment, but you do have a decent credit rating, Amcourt offers you the opportunity of moving into your own mobile home.

Here's how it works: instead of the usual 10% down, you simply make a security deposit and pre-payment of your first month's rent, which together equal less than $2,000 of the retail purchase price. Then at the end of a 24-month non-renewable lease, you have the right to buy the mobile home for just the amount of the security deposit plus another 5% of the original purchase price. Furthermore, Amcourt will accept payment on the final unpaid balance over a period of 24 months with a non-interest bearing note. Or if you decide not to buy, the security deposit will be returned to you in full.

Why wait? Visit your mobile home dealer today. And be sure to ask him about the Amcourt "Lease-Now Buy-Later" plan. If you're short on cash, but long on possibility, now you have a way to get that mobile home you've been wanting. Lease now. And buy later. There's no way you can move into a mobile home for less.
