MRS. HAROLD MILTON SCHWAB

Miss Crump And Mr. Schwab Pledge Vows At Mt. Zion Church

Mount Zion United Methodist Church at Cornelius was the setting for the wedding of Miss Theresa Jane Crump and Harold Milton Schwab on October 21. The Reverend Donald Bridger performed ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Town and Country Restaurant in Mooresville.

The bride is the daughter of M-Sgt. and Mrs. Jerry Crump, of 510 Catawba Avenue, Cornelius. The groom, who resides at 1522 Park Drive, Charlotte, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Lacy of 1616 Seven Oaks Place, High Point.

The wedding vows were exchanged in a traditional setting and nuptial music was rendered by Miss Sherry Brooks of Cornelius.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of light ivory silk peau de soie, satin faced and reembroidered lace. The empire bodice, overlaid with scalloped lace and pearls, forming vertical rows on each side of the bodice, had traditional long sleeves which were overlaid with appliques of hand cut lace, embellished with pearls. Small self ruffles encircled the wrist. The high victorian neckline also overlaid with scalloped reembroidered lace, was embellished with petite bridal pearls. The fluid a-line skirt featured lace cascading down center front to hemline, in a pyramid effect. Scalloped lace encircled the hemline and pearl beading accented the entire skirt. The back of the skirt was identical to the front skirt and a large layered bow of self fabric at center of empire line under which a flowing tunnel train swept back. The train was edged in scalloped lace with random appliques about back of train.

A camelot cap, covered with lace and pearls with a layered bow attached to back, under which bouffant layers of English illusion fell to the shoulders.

Miss Dianne Crump, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a formal gown of Mediterranean blue crepe and cluney lace. The gown was fashioned with an empire bodice with wide horizontal inset of lace embroidered with pale green flowers and a self tie at the back. The lantern sleeves were accented with lace inset from lantern to wrist. A ruffle of lace encircled the wrist. A high victorian neckline with ruffle of cluney lace completed the style of the bodice. The skirt was a gored princess line.

Her headpiece of matched Mediterranean blue featured shaded flowers at crown with dropped stems adorned with buds and maline veiling.

The groom chose Paul Crump of Lincolnton as his best man. Ushers were Harry Crump of Lincolnton and Donald Hinson of Charlotte.

The bride is a graduate of North Mecklenburg High School and is now attending Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte. The groom has sreved two years in the U. S. Army and is also attending CPCC.

The couple will make their home at 1613 D-4th St., Charlotte.

MISS KAREN ELIZABETH MORRIS

December Wedding Planned By Miss Morris And Mr. Hensley

Mr. and Mrs. William Grady Morris, Jr., of 2207 Bridgette Blvd., Greensboro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Elizabeth, to Janes Oscar Hensley, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Oscar Hensley, Jr., of Mooresville, route 1.

The wedding is planned for December 29, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the College Place United Methodist Church, Spring Garden Street at Tate Street, Greensboro.

The bride-elect is a former resident of Mooresville and a 1970 graduate of Mooresville Senior High School. She attended Appalachian State University at Boone for two years, majoring in Business Administration. She is presently employed with Piedmont Orthopedic Associates, Inc., Greensboro.

The groom-elect is a graduate of Mooresville Senior High School and attended Lees McRae College at Banner Elk for two years. He is now attending Appalachian State University at Boone, majoring in Business Administration. He is also an officer candidate in the Marine Corps Reserves.

Homemakers Entertained At Luncheon At Crouch Home

Mrs. M. F. Crouch entertained the Shepherds Homemakers Club at a luncheon in her home October 24 with Mrs. R. L. Parker and Mrs. C. K. Sigmon joint hostesses.

As the guests arrived, they were served appetizers then were directed downstairs to the recreation room which was lit by numerous candles and beautifully decorated with bright orange and yellow flowers, accented with beautiful autumn leaves. All the tables had as their center piece a floral arrangement with candles, Halloween pumpkins, witches and skeletons looking on the delicious lunch of chicken salad on lettuce, green beans, spiced apple rings, pickles, tomatoes, hot rolls and coffee. Later trays of desserts, consisting of strawberry short cake, pound cake and pumpkin pie with whipped cream was served.

Following lunch the ladies assembled back into the living room for the meeting with Mrs. J. I. Few, president, presiding.

Mrs. Bert Cornelius gave the devotional using Psalm 100 and all repeated the Lords Prayer. This was followed by the group singing the hymn, "We Gather Together."

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the roll was called with 13 members present.

Words of welcome were given by Mrs. Few to the Home Extension Agent, Mrs. Nancy Myers who later gave the program.

Mrs. Few read a letter asking the club members to submit names in nomination for county leadership officers. She extended an invitation for all club women who could to attend the 1974 N. C. Womens Organization Forum to be held at the Royal Villa Hotel in Raleigh on November 8.

Ladies who plan to attend the Southern Christmas Show at the Merchandise Mart in Charlotte, will meet at New Town Plaza in Statesville or the Elks Club in Mooresville and a bus will take them. The date is November 7.

The club voted to contribute $10 to the United Fund Drive in Iredell County.

Project leaders reports were given by Mrs. C. K. Sigmon on clothing. She attended the Sew-A-Thon in Charlotte October 23 at the new Civic Center. She said it was very interesting, giving good information on all phases of sewing, teaching through the beginner stage to tailoring a garment. She said she learned many things and it was a wonderful experience for her. A fashion show was also held and they told of many ways to plan and buy clothes. They had demonstrators to teach all kinds of handwork like knitting, crocheting, needle point and others. Everyone enjoyed her report.

Mrs. R. L. Parker on public information told of next month schedule of television shows of special interest to club members. They will be coming from University Television on all channels 7:00 p.m. Wednesday and 5:00 p.m. on Sundays.

Mrs. Myers gave the program on "Special Diet." She said a doctor might prescribe one of these diets for a particular patient such as a diabetic, bland, low calorie or a high cholesterol. She told of ways to prepare foods on each of these diets. The use of fats and oils are not permitted in so many diets and she suggested the uses of herbs in cooking for flavor. She mentioned that planting and growing of herbs was to be a new project that the Home Economic Extension Agents were going to stress in the early planting season of 1974. She said to be sure to read labels on food to know exactly what you were getting in that particular food and you would know then if that was allright for your diet that you were on. Food canneries have been urged to use better labeling on all their can and packaged products. Her last remark was to always be more thoughtful about what we ate. It was a very interesting and enjoyable program.

Guests, other than Mrs. Myers, were Mrs. H. M. Sloop and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow.

Mrs. E. J. Troutman and Mrs. Glen White will be hostess on November 14 with the meeting set up one week early due to the Thanksgiving holidays.

Book Review Group To Meet

Mrs. H.B.Sink will be hostess and reviewer to the members of the Book Review Group on Tuesday evening, November 6, at her home, 454 West Center Avenue.

Mrs. Sink will review "The Becomers" by Keith Miller.

All members are requested to be present.

Party Enjoyed By Sorority

A Halloween party was enjoyed by the members of the Gamma Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, their husbands and friends, on October 27, at the V. F. W. Hut.

Halloween decorations were used throughout the building. Each table was centered with an orange and black candle decoration.

Evelyn McCully, sponsor of the local chapter, was presented an orchid by Mary Lib Kipka, in honor of her birthday.

Approximately 36 guests enjoyed the party.

Rev. Tom Bodkin, interim pastor of the First Baptist Church, displays a cake, baked and decorated identical to the church bus which takes the XYZ Group of the church on special outings each month. The XYZ Group was celebrating their third anniversary on Thursday and for the celebration the group motored through the mountains of North Carolina. Rev. Bodkin is flanked by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poston and in the background are members of the active group. The cake was a gift to the group from Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crooks, Jr.

Third Anniversary Of First Baptist XYZ Group Celebrated With All-Day Trip To Mountains

On Thursday, October 25, the XYZ (eXtra Years of Zest) Group, of First Baptist Church, celebrated their third anniversary with a trip to the mountains of North Carolina.

Departing from the church parking lot at 9 a.m., the bus, which was filled to capacity, took the group to Asheville for lunch at one of the cafeterias.

Following lunch, it was on to the Blue Ridge Parkway for a scenic drive viewing the leaves in full color. A stop along the way allowed the photographers in the group to take pictures of the surrounding areas.

On the return trip to Mooresville, the group stopped at a roadside park where ice cream and cake were enjoyed by all. The cake, given by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crooks, Jr., was in the shape of the church bus and the lettering wished the group a "Happy Third Anniversary." Since most of the outings of the group involve the church bus, the cake was most appropriate.

The XYZ Group was organized three years ago by Rev. Tom Bodkin, Interim Pastor of First Baptist Church, and now numbers one hundred senior adults who receive the monthly newsletter, "XYZ News," and participate in many of the activities. Membership is not limited to members of the church, but is open to all interested senior adults.

Those attending the third anniversary outing were as follows: Rev. Tom Bodkin, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Poston, Mrs. A, V, Lowery, Mrs. Hubert Blackwelder, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Jay Kennedy, Mrs. J. I. Few, Mrs. L. R. Caldwell, Mrs. George C. Goodman, Mrs. Viola Joines, Mrs. W. C. Rash, Mrs. H. M. Craven, Mrs. Della Hall, Mrs. H. J. Safrit, Mrs. C. F. Rinehardt, Mrs. Earl Young, Mrs. Mae Meeks, Mrs. George Hill, Mrs. Grover Holthouser, Mrs. R. L. Vickers, Mrs. Earl Cline, Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mrs. Ray Mills, Mrs. Lewis Davis, Sr., Mrs. Lucy Dishman, Mrs. Irene Harmon, Mrs. Kelly Potts, Miss Joyce Earnhardt, and Mr. Johnny Hayes, bus driver.

Deaf Ministry Program For Service Club

David Cruse and Miss Barbara Turner were special guests at the monthly meeting of the Service-Social Club on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Heslop.

The guests were introduced by Mrs. Charles Brawley and they presented a very interesting and enlightening program on the Deaf Ministry at the Southside Baptist Church. David, a teenager, has completed the course offered to persons who wish to minister to the deaf in Statesville at the Western Avenue Church. Barbara is one of the deaf persons who attends services at the Southside Church for the deaf and while David told of his work, he, also interpreted for Barbara. Barbara was born deaf and she attended school in Raleigh. She is very mature and is employed in the cafeteria at Mooresville Junior High School. Through the ministry at the church, three deaf persons in the Mooresville area have been won to Christ and received the ordinance of baptism. Another local couple, both of whom are deaf, have joined Southside where they too can understand the message.

The details of the ministry and watching David do the sign language was most interesting. A question and answer period followed the program.

Mrs. Len Sullivan conducted the business meeting at which time several announcements were made. One of the announcements concerned the District 3 meeting in Hickory on October 27 and also plans for the Fine Arts Festival luncheon to be held here in early March. Each member was asked to bring an item of food for a Thanksgiving basket to the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. David Cook.

After adjournment, the hostess served delightful refreshments and a fellowship period was enjoyed with the guests.

Miss Mack Pledged To Sorority

Alice Elaine Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mack of 746 North Main Street, of Mooresville, has pledged the Beta Kappa Chapter of Delta Delta Delta Sorority at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte where she is a junior nursing major.
