

WBTV-Sponsored Bass Tourney On Saturday

A bass tournament that probably attracts more participants than any other fresh-man fishing competition in the Carolinas is scheduled for Saturday, November 3. It's the second annual WBTV tournament on Lake Norman, in which more than 500 anglers tried their luck last year.

Hundreds of dollars worth of prizes will again be awarded, with individual big fish winning rather than total weight of stringers of bass.

Fishing starts at 6:30 a.m. and continues for six hours. There will be two weigh stations—The Pinnacle Access

Class Of '65 Sets Reunion November 24

The graduating class of 1965 of Mooresville Senior High School has scheduled its first class reunion for Saturday, November 24, at the Town and Country Restaurant.

All class members are urged to make reservations for attending by sending a check ($5 per person) to the Class of '65, P.O. Box 1152, Mooresville, N.C. 28115.

A buffet dinner plus plenty of time following for renewing old acquaintances has been planned for the evening. Information regarding plans for the reunion can be obtained by writing the class post office box or calling David Chamberlain at 663-4815 or Brenda Ferrell McNeely at 663-2169.

Funeral Rites Coddle Creek Community Held For Mrs. Moore

Mrs. Minnie Shu Moore, 85, of Winston-Salem, mother of two Mooresville residents, died unexpectedly on Friday, October 19. She was the widow of W. C. Moore, who died some 20 years ago.

Born in Rowan County on July 23, 1888, Mrs. Moore was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Shu.

Survivors include: two daughters, Mrs. Marvin Bostian and Mrs. Bill Edwards, both of Mooresville; one son, Bill Moore of Winston-Salem; two brothers, Wade Shu of Mooresville and Allen Shu of Charlotte; and one sister, Mrs. Lillie Sinclair of Mooresville.

Funeral services for Mrs. Moore were conducted at 3 p.m. on Sunday, October 21, at the Hayworth-Miller Funeral Home in Winston-Salem, and burial was in the Forsyth Memorial Park cemetery in Winston-Salem.

Lt. Col. Shook Finishes Special Officer Course

Army National Guard Lieutenant Colonel Clyde R. Shook, son of Mrs. Edgar Troutman, of Troutman, route 1, has completed the final phase of the Command and General Staff Officer Course at the U. S. Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

The course is organized into nine phases and given over a five-year period either by correspondence or through the U. S. Army Reserve School system. The final two-week phase is conducted at Fort Leavenworth.

The training is designed to prepare selected officers for responsible positions at division and support command levels. It also provides them with an understanding of the duties of corps and field Army general staff officers, and of Army participation in joint and combined operations.

Lieutenant Colonel Shook attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and he is employed by the North Carolina State Highway Patrol, Department of Transportation at Raleigh.

He and his wife, Sue, reside in Elkin.

Troop 633 Campout

Scout troop 633 spent the weekend at the Rocking-B-Ranch, located near Mooresville. In addition to scout activities, which included building a bridge, the troop attended the Mooresville Junior High football game together.

Many of the participating boys at the outing passed off camping and cooking awards. Two patrols, Pro and Hobo, passed company awards during the campout.
