

ENGAGED RA Focus

Week Being Observed

Royal Ambassadors of Southside Baptist Church, along with many other chapters across the Southern Baptist Convention, are celebrating RA Focus Week November 4-11.

Monday evening, November 5, a Men and Boy's Rally was held at the Southside Fellowship Building. Supper was served at 7:30 p.m. to more than 100 guests, including RA's from at least nine churches in the association. Rev. Phyllis McSwain was guest speaker for the occasion, and another highlight included slides on the Southside groups trip to the RA Congress in St. Louis last August.

Wednesday evening, November 7, the boys held their regular chapter meetings. Friday, November 9, a cocktail will be held for the men and boys of the church. Following the cocktail the group will board a church bus to go to Salisbury for the North Rowan-Mooreville football game. After the game the RA's and their counselors will enjoy a camp-out.

H. L. Childers Jr. is Royal Ambassador for the Southside Baptist Church.

A pantry shower was given in honor of Miss Sandy Shoe on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Mack Crab on Shearers Chapel Road. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Brawley of Charlotte and Mrs. Larry Cook of Mooreville.

Lovely fall flowers were used in appointments throughout the home. The honoree received a corsage of carnations, adorned with wedding bells, from her hostesses.

Refreshments of cake squares, minis, nuts and punch were served to the guests. Miss Shoe was the recipient of many useful pantry items and her hostesses showered her with a clothes basket filled with small kitchen utensils, dish towels and an apron.

DAR Chapter Plans Meeting

The Mary Sloumb Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Saturday afternoon, at the home of Miss Lynda Templeton, at 3:00 p.m. Members of the Chapter are requested to bring an item which has been handed down through the generations from their ancestors for the afternoon program.

Bridal Shower

Compliments Miss Withers

Honoring Miss Arlice Withers, of Davidson, a miscellaneous bridal shower was held on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Erskine Neel, the former Donna Davis, in Charlotte.

Miss Withers and Gary Davis will be married on December 15 at the Presbyterian Church in Davidson.

Upon arrival of the honoree, the hostesses added a corsage of white mums to her fall ensemble.

Refreshments of cake, hors d'oeuvres and punch were served to the following guests: Mrs. Robert Withers, of Davidson and Mrs. J. B. Davis of Huntersville, mothers of the engaged couple; Mrs. Bill Withers, both of Davidson; Mrs. A. H. Cobb, Mrs. Kate Ransom Cornue and Miss Nell Ransom, of Huntersville; Mrs. Ellis Allen, Mrs. W. E. Neel, Sr., Mrs. W. E. Neel, Jr., Mrs. Michael McKea, Mrs. H. C. Brackett, grandmother of the prospective groom; Mrs. F. O. Brown and Mrs. Billy Joe Major, all of Mooreville; Mrs. L. D. Rummage, Jr., of Asheboro, and Miss Trishia Rummage, of Wingate College.

The bride-elect was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Miss Mary McKnight gave a most interesting program on the "Thank Offering."

After the program, members signed get-well cards to be sent to Mrs. James Torrence and Mrs. Martha White.

Floral centerpiece, the anniversary cake and punch service.

Granddaughters of the couple, Mrs. Shelley Smith of Elton College and Misses Cindy and Maria Rogers of Statesville, served the cake, punch, and nuts.

For the celebration, Mrs. Young wore a blue knit dress with a corsage of gold carnations and Mr. Young was remembered with a boutonniere of gold carnations.

Approximately fifty guests visited with the couple and they received many lovely gifts, among which was an anniversary book which guests were asked to register.

A family dinner was spread picnic style at the noon hour and during the afternoon, friends and neighbors of the couple on Patterson Avenue were invited for anniversary cake and punch. The dining table was covered with a gold lace cloth over white and arranged with

AAUW Group Has Program On County Vocational Workshop

The Mooreville Branch of the American Association of University Women held their monthly meeting on Thursday, November 1, in the conference room of the Carolina First National Bank. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Sheila Kornblum, Mrs. Pat Culbertson, Mrs. Meriel Tashnik and Mrs. Evelyn Johnston.

The president, Mrs. Don Stewart called the meeting to order and welcomed guests, Mrs. Liz Webb, Mrs. Mary Grier, and Mrs. Harlan and new members, Mrs. Helen Neely, Mrs. Lou Fleagle and Mrs. Carol DeVaughan.

The membership voted to send a telegram to President Nixon urging that he appoint as the next Assistant Secretary of Education, Dr. Anne Campbell, who is the National President of AAUW.

The program for the evening was given by Dick Arthur, who is with the Iredell County Vocational Workshop. The Workshop was started eight years ago and is a chartered non-profit organization. It has served about 400 clients in age from 15 1/2 years and up. The clients can choose the area in which they would like to work, such as chair bottoming, yard work, janitor service, sewing, engraving and cooking. Financing comes from the county, Statesville, Mooreville and State Vocational Rehabilitation funds. Also, money comes from businesses who provide jobs for the clients, as well as the products they make are for sale.

The Workshop will be having open house on Thursday, November 15, from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. and Mr. Arthur invited the group to attend.

Brunch Fetes

Miss Shoe, Bride-Elect

Mrs. Keith Andrus entertained for Miss Sandy Shoe and her wedding attendants at a brunch on Saturday morning, at her home, 310 Lexington Avenue, Charlotte.

Mrs. Andrus, sister of Miss Shoe, will be matron of honor in Miss Shoe's wedding to Dennis Foltz on November 10, at 7 p.m. at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Mooreville.

Tables were arranged in the dining area of the home and the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Paul Payne, served orange juice, sausage, coffee cake with whipped butter, coffee and strawberry parfait to her guests.

Attending the brunch were: Miss Shoe and Mrs. John Foltz, mother of the groom-to-be and bridesmaids, Miss Kathy Foltz, Miss Donna Foltz, Miss Joanne Adams, all of Mooreville; Mrs. Robert Brawley of Charlotte, who will be the guest register and hostess, Mrs. Andrus.

Miss Shoe chose this time to present gifts to her attendants. Bridesmaids received chimes and Mrs. Andrus, Mrs. Brawley and Mrs. Davis were presented large scented candles with decorative holders.

The three-tiered anniversary cake was decorated in yellow and white and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver trays held nuts and mints and the crystal punch service was filled with green fruit punch.

The tiered anniversary cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Paul Kennerly and she also baked five small cakes which were decorated in the colors of the large cake. The five cakes were for each of the Foltz children and each had a name and birth date on the top. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Kennerly, assisted by Miss Sandy Gibson and Miss Grier.

Tommy Linebarger presided at the punch service. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Joe Gibson, Mrs. Troy Thompson and Mrs. Robert McLean.

Mrs. Colen Willis and Mrs. Pete Brotherton displayed the gifts in the living room. Many lovely gifts of silver were presented to the honor couple and the congregation of the church presented to the couple a silver coffee and tea service.

Members of the Chatter Club will meet tonight (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. J.W. Hager on Carpenter Avenue at 7:30 p.m. All members are requested to be present.

Southside Women Have General Meet

The General Meeting of the Baptist Women of Southside Baptist Church was held Wednesday, October 31, at 6:30 at the church.

The membership voted to send a telegram to President Nixon urging that he appoint as the next Assistant Secretary of Education, Dr. Anne Campbell, who is the National President of AAUW.

REV. AND MRS. JOHN C. FOLTZ

Foltz Couple Celebrates 25th Wedding Anniversary

Reverend and Mrs. John C. Foltz celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday, November 4, from two until five o'clock in the afternoon, at a reception, given by the honor couple's children and the congregation of the First Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. Foltz is pastor of the local church and the reception was held at the church parsonage, 127 East Wilson Avenue.

Lovely fall flowers were used at focal points throughout the home and as guests arrived they were greeted by Dennis Foltz and his fiancée, Miss Sandy Shoe.

Rev. and Mrs. Foltz, along with their two daughters, Misses Kathy and Donna Foltz, missed a receiving line in the foyer of the home.

Mrs. Philip Foltz presided at the guest register and directed to the dining area where the table was beautifully appointed with white lace over yellow and centered with lovely centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums, flanked on either side with silver candelsticks holding yellow taper.

The three-tiered anniversary cake was decorated in yellow and white and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver trays held nuts and mints and the crystal punch service was filled with green fruit punch.

The tiered anniversary cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Paul Kennerly and she also baked five small cakes which were decorated in the colors of the large cake.
