MRS. ROBERT DANNY ERVIN

Ervin-Holthouser Couple Pledge Vows On Saturday

In a beautiful candlelight setting on Saturday, November 10, at the Rockwell Baptist Church, Miss Kathy Lynn Holthouser became the bride of Robert Danny Ervin. The Reverend J. W. Morris performed the ceremony at six o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holthouser of Mooresville, route 1 and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cliff Ervin of Mooresville, route 3.

The sanctuary of the church was ornamented with a background of palms and greenery and numerous seven branched candelabra with lighted tapers. Two floor baskets of white gladioli, white daisies, and yellow mums and yellow daisies enhanced the setting. The kneeling bench was used for the benediction and pews for the families and guests were marked with foliage and satin bows. Each window in the sanctuary was marked with candles and greenery.

Michael Slattery, of Lanham, Maryland, nephew of the bride served as acolyte.

A program of traditional organ wedding music was rendered by Mike Mahla, of Davidson College. He also accompanied the vocalist, Miss Margaret Bradburn, of Troutman. She sang "Song of Ruth", "The Greatest of These Is Love" and for the benediction "The Lord's Prayer".

The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of re-embroidered alencon lace and chiffon designed with a fitted lace bodice, high neckline and bishop sleeves. The skirt was fashioned of chiffon.

Her chapel length mantilla with lace trim was attached to a headpiece accented with beaded trim.

The bride carried a white Bible with a spray of yellow roses and snowdrift pompoms.

Miss Linda Holthouser, of Nonville, sister of the bride, was maid of nonor.

Miss Shirley Ervin, of Mooresville, sister of the groom, was a bridesmaid.

The attendants were dressed identical in floor length gowns designed with floral chiffon skirt, featuring fall colors, and avocado green crepe bodice. The bodice was styled with empire waist, high neckline and full sleeves ending in cuffs at the wrist. The maid of honor completed her dress with a cummerbund of gold velvet while the bridesmaid's was accented with a green velvet cummerbund. Their headpieces were gathered bows in velvet matching their cummerbunds. Each carried a nosegay of bronze pompoms and wood roses with matching ribbons.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Junior Ward of Harrisburg; Mrs. Bill Howard of Mooresville; Mrs. Ken Cloaninger of Greensboro; Mrs. E. H. Cook, Jr. of Huntersville and Mrs. Larry Hopkins of Wake Forest. Each carried a single long stemmed yellow rose with foliage and ribbons.

Little Miss Christy Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cook, Jr., of Huntersville, was a flower girl. She was dressed identical to the bride and carried a fancy lace basket filled with flower petals.

Master David Holthouser, son of Mr. and Mrs Mike Holthouser of Sanford and Chad Kepley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kepley of Kannapolis, were ring bearers. They carried the rings on white satin pillows.

The groom chose his father as best man. Mike Holthouser of Sanford, brother of the bride, ushered with the groom's brother-in-law, Jerry Kepley of Kannapolis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Holthouser chose an aqua knit dress styled with bodice which was semi-full at the waistline, round neckline, long sleeves and a-line skirt. She chose matching accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother, Mrs. Ervin, chose a pink coat and dress ensemble of worsted silk. She chose matching accessories and a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Jerry Kepley, of Kannapolis, presided at the guest register.

Following the ceremony, the bridal couple, their parents and attendants paused in the vestibule of the church to greet their guests.

For a wedding trip to Nashville, Tenn., the bride changed into a wine colored polyester pantsuit.

A graduate of South Iredell High School, the bride is employed at Emery Air Freight Corp. in Charlotte. The groom is a graduate of South Rowan High School and is employed with Ervin Construction in Mooresville.

Foltz-Shoe Couple Feted At Reception

Immediately following the wedding of Miss Sandra Lynn Shoe and Dennis Eugene Foltz at St. Mark's Lutheran Church on Saturday evening, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Shoe of Marion, S. C., as hosts.

The hall was decorated with hurricane lamps, entwined with smilax foliage and floral appointments carried out the bride's wedding colors of gold, bronze, yellow and orange.

The bridal table, spread in yellow satin and overlaid with white lace, was arranged with two silver candelabra arrangements of lighted tapers with fall flowers. The four-tiered wedding cake, decorated in yellow, green and white, was topped with a minature bride and groom ornament. Completing the bridal table appointments were silver trays of fondant mints, cheese rosettes and nuts.

Two round tables were covered identical to the larger table and each held a silver punch service from which fruit punch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Davis, Jr. greeted the guests and after the bridal couple cut the traditional first-slice of wedding cake, Mrs. Leon Campbell and Miss Bridgett Wade completed the serving of the cake. Mrs. Grady Shoe, aunt of the bride and Miss Janice Brewer presided at the punch tables.

Bridal Couple Honored At Cake Cutting

Immediately following the wedding rehearsal of Miss Kathy Holthouser and Danny Ervin at the Rockwell Baptist Church on Friday evening, a cake-cutting was held at the home of the bride-elect's sister, Miss Linda Holthouser on Lake Norman.

A pink and white color scheme was used in appointments throughout the lovely home. An arrangement of pink gladioli, snapdragons and white starburst chrysanthemums enhanced the foyer.

The bridal table, covered in a white linen embroidered cloth was arranged with a four branched candelabra with lighted tapers and silver and crystal trays held chicken salad and vegetable sandwiches, cheese straws, melon balls and nuts. Green fruit punch was served from a silver fountain.

The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in pink and white and topped with a cherub's delight ornament, completed the appointments.

After the bridal couple cut the traditional first-slice of wedding cake, Mrs. Joe Slattery of Lanham, Md., sister of the bride and Mrs. Michael Holthouser, of Sanford, sister-in-law of the bride, completed the serving of the cake. Mrs. David Miller, of Mooresville, presided at the punch service.

For the cake-cutting, the bride-elect wore a grey, white and red polyester dress.

The bridal couple also chose this time to present gifts to their attendants. The bride-elect's attendants received lockets which they wore in the wedding.

Guests were members of the two families and the wedding party.

MRS. DENNIS EUGENE FOLTZ

Foltz-Shoe Vows Pledged At St. Mark's Lutheran Church

In a ceremony of beauty at St. Mark's Lutheran Church on Saturday, November 10, Miss Sandra Lynn Shoe became the bride of Dennis Eugene Foltz, at seven o'clock in the evening. The groom's father, Reverend John C. Foltz, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Shoe of 310 Withlacoohee Street, Marion, S.C. The groom is the son of Reverend and Mrs. John C. Foltz, of 127 East Wilson Avenue, Mooresville.

The sanctuary of the church was beautifully ornamented with seven and three-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers. Smilax foliage enhanced the candelabra. Altar vases were arranged with yellow, talisman, and bronze fall flowers and two floor baskets with identical flowers were on either side of the rostrum. Pews for the families and guests were marked with hurricane lamps with foliage and bows.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Steve Stutts, organist and Miss Page Rasar, soloist, both of Mooresville.

The organ prelude consisted of He Shall Feed His Flock from "The Messiah" by Handel; Prelude on Lasst uns erfeuran", Gordon Young; Pastorale, Richard Purvis; O Rest in the Lord from "Elijah", Mendelssohn; If Thou Be Near, Bach; Offertoire from "The Marriage Mass", DuBois.

Miss Rasar sang "Hold Thou My Hand Dear Lord", Briggs; "If With All Your Hearts" from "Elijah", Mendelssohn and for the benediction "The Wedding Prayer", by Dunlap.

"Bridal Chorus" by Wagner was rendered for the processional and "Love Divine All Love's Excelling" based on the hymn tune "Hyfrydal" by Prichard was played for the recessional.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of ivory peau de sole, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a-line skirt. The bodice featured a mandarin neckline and sheer bishop sleeves ending in wide cuffs. Venetian lace accented the bodice, neckline and cuffs of the sleeves, as well as, the skirt and chapel train.

A camelot cap, covered in venetian lace, held her mantilla bordered with matching lace and her full length veil of illusion.

The bride carried a nosegay of Zorina roses, starburst chrysanthemums, bronze pompoms and bridal ribbons.

Mrs. Keith Andrus, of Charlotte, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Bridemaids were: Miss Vicki Davis, Miss Joanie Adams, Miss Kathy Foltz, Miss Donna Foltz, all of Mooresville and Miss Karen Foltz of Kansas City, Missouri. The latter three attendants are sisters of the groom.

All of the attendants were dressed identical in full length gowns fashioned with empire waist and bodice of sheer floral design with mandarin collar and full sheer sleeves ending in wide cuffs. The slightly gathered skirt was fashioned of deep gold crepe. Gold velvet ribbon accented the waistline and completed the design of the gown.

The matron of honor carried two long stemmed bronze chrysanthemums with foliage and matching ribbons while the bridesmaids carried a single long stemmed bronze chrysanthemum with foliage and matching ribbons.

The groom chose Robert Brawley, of Charlotte, as his best man. David Foltz, of Nashville, Tenn., ushered with the bride's brother, Doug Shoe of Marion, S.C.; Davy Talbert and Richard Warlic, both of Mooresville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shoe chose a full length gown of mint green polyester and chiffon featuring a fitted bodice with high neckline, sheer long sleeves and pleated skirt. She wore silver accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Foltz, wore a gown of blue polyester fashioned with long sleeves and accented with a gold belt. She chose gold accessories. Both of the mothers complemented their attire with corsages of white Starburst chrysanthemums.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. A. H. Shoe of Salisbury, was remembered with a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Robert Brawley, of Charlotte, kept the guest register and she was presented a corsage of pink carnations. The wedding director, Mrs. Lewis F. Davis, Jr. was remembered with a corsage of yellow carnations.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in their mobile home on Bailey Road, Mooresville.

For traveling, the bride changed into a long purple jumper with bodysuit and black patent accessories.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Mooresville Senior High School. The bride is employed in the Designing Office of Mooresville Mills and the groom is employed by Mooresville Flooring and Contractors Supply, Inc.
