Mullis, Walker And Co. Pluck Eagles

The Blue Devils of Mooresville face Salisbury Friday night for the bi-conference title. The Devils advanced to this game by clipping the Davie County War Eagles' wings 48-19 at Mocksville last Friday.

The Mooresville offense was led by the rushing of senior flashback Johnny Walker. Walker tallied 188 yards on the ground, while his running mate, bullback David Mullis, accumulated 112 total yards on the ground. The passing game of Mooresville, usually nil, was above average as the Devils completed three of seven attempts for 44 yards.

Mullis, Walker and flanker Jeff Wade each grabbed an aerial to contribute to the passing game.

Mooresville rolled to 310 yards in total offense, 266 by land and 44 by air.

The two teams used the first period to get used to the weather and figure out the other's weakness. One score was produced in the first period by Davie County. The scoring drive began at their 45. The big plays in the drive were passes from Davie quarterback Tom Eanes to ends Billy Clark and Tom Anderson. Jeff Ward got the score for the Eagles with 1:17 left in the period. David Dwiggins kicked the extra point.

The Devils exploded in the second quarter with 27 points, allowing their opponents only six.

Mooresville's first score came on the same play that appeared in the North Rowan game. Quarterback Bob Craig faked to the inside, kept the ball and scampered 48 yards to the goal, untouched. Mullis was unable to kick the ball through the uprights as the score stood, Devils 6, Davie 7.

The Mooresville defense stopped the Eagle drive and forced a punt. On this drive, the Devil offense again produced a score. In the drive, which covered 46 yards, Walker pounded out 49 while Mullis gained the other six. Walker got the score from nine yards out to put the locals ahead for good. The extra point pass from Craig to Charles Turner produced two extra points to give the Devils a 14-7 lead.

The defense of Mooresville set up the next local score. Defensive halfback Keye Everhardt spotted a loose ball and pounced upon it to give the Devils the ball on the Eagle 25. In three plays, Mullis hit yardirt, and his kick was good to give Mooresville a 21-7 lead.

Mooresville's final score came after the defense again forced the Eagles to punt. While in the process to punt, the War Eagle center snapped the ball high to the punter. As the punter recovered, he was buried by a host of Mooresville defensive linemen for a seven-yard loss and the Devils got the ball on the Eagle 21. Five plays later, Mooresville scored again. Mullis carried the ball over, but his foot was off target as he missed the extra point.

Davie managed to score again before the horn ended the first half. Marcus Wilson took the kickoff, and raced 91 yards to the goal, outracing everyone on the field. Dwiggins' extra point attempt failed.

The teams entered the dressing rooms with Mooresville holding the 27-13 advantage.

The Devil defense was more than equal to Davie's second-half determination, allowing but one TD after the victory was assured. Mooresville struck once in the third period, and twice in the fourth to put the game on ice.

On Davie's first play from scrimmage in the second half, quarterback Craig Michaels threw into the hands of end Walker, who played a bang-up game on defense as well as giving his usual stellar ball-carrying performance. Brian Duckworth, Jimmy McIntosh and Tony Hager were among the Devils who were seen plucking War Eagle feathers throughout the second half.

The exciting Walker got the third period score for Mooresville. Quarterback Craig handed the ball off to Walker, who burst through the line. Before the Eagles could react, the Devils' speed demon was across the goal for the six points. Walker also took care of the conversion by running the ball over for two points.

The Devil defense again rose to the occasion to force the Eagles to punt the ball away. While Mooresville had possession, time ran out in the third period. The Devils got the score with five seconds gone in the fourth period. Mullis plowed to the goal from seven yards out to put the locals ahead 41-13. Mullis' foot added one more to the score.

The next possessions for both teams resulted in punts. The Eagles were unable to move first then the Devils were stopped. Keye Everhardt got his second fumble recovery of the night as an Eagle end lost control of the ball. Mooresville back Donald Duff fumbled and Davie got possession to set up its only score of the half. The host team had the ball on the Devil 38. The scoring play was a pass from quarterback Craig Michaels to end Doug Quarles that covered 33 yards. The extra point attempt failed to give the Eagles their night total of 19.

The Davie kickoff was an attempted on-side kick. Bob Beale for Mooresville recovered. On the third play from scrimmage, Walker broke every tackle and dashed 43 yards for the finale of the scoring with 3:47 remaining.

The Davie County Eagles put together a threat but the stout Mooresville defense killed their drive on the one-yard line.

Final Standings

The final regular-season standings of the teams in the four conferences that make up the Western North Carolina High School Activities Association have been released by W.C. Clary of Winston-Salem, the association's executive secretary.

The conferences include: North Piedmont, South Piedmont, Northwestern and Southwestern. Mooresville is a member of Division I on the NPC.

DAVID MULLIS BOOMS OPPONENT FOR JOHNNY WALKER SCORE
Walker Has 1,348 Yards For The Season, Mullis Has 1,356 Yards

Blue Devil Gridders Named To All-Iredell County Squad

Johnny Walker of Mooresville High and Dennis Kilby and Rat Jones of Statesville High led the balloting for the all-county football team for 1973.

This trio of gridders were named to both the offensive and defensive all-county units.

Mooresville's David Mullis was chosen player-of-the-year by a one-point (18-17) margin over Walker.

The all-star teams (offensive and defensive) were selected by vote of the four head coaches at the four senior high schools in the county—Mooresville, South Iredell, Statesville, and North Iredell—and Mike Owens, sports editor of the Statesville Record & Landmark.

Each of the five men voted for three offensive ends, three offensive tackles, three offensive guards, two centers, two quarterbacks and seven running-backs. Points were awarded on a 3-2-1 basis or 7-6-etc. basis, according to eligible contestants for each position. Votes were also given to three defensive ends, three defensive tackles, two nose-guards, five linebackers and five defensive backs.

Kilby and Tony Hager of Mooresville were selected as the offensive ends. Kilby won by 12-9 with John Summers of North and Jimmy Dagenhart of South having five points each.

Lennie Mackey of Mooresville led the offensive tackle balloting with 12 points with Randy Reid of Statesville edging Roger Harris of South Iredell by 9-7 for the other slot.

Stan Lippard of Statesville led the balloting at offensive guard with 10 points, compared to nine by North's Kent Blackwelder. Mark Brawley of Mooresville earned honorable mention.

The closest battle was for the offensive center position. Greg Mills of Statesville had 13 points while Rick Mack of Mooresville had 12.

Statesville's Kent Gaither came away with quarterbacking laurels with Terrell Rhye and Bobby Craig of Mooresville and Kim Newton of South tied for a very distant second. Gaither won his slot by the widest margin, eight points.

The running back positions were the second closest. Mullis led the way with 31 points and Walker had 29. Jones finished third with 26 with North Iredell's Robert Patterson next with 19. Curtis Sloan rounded out the top five with 15 points.

Defensively, Kilby was the top vote-getter at end with Walker edging teammate Hager for second place. Buddy Tucker of North also had support. Roger Harris of South ran away with balloting for the defensive tackle slot with Mooresville's Walt Lenzer nailing down second. Statesville's Bill Roseboro lost to Leazer by one point.

Jones had 14 of a possible 15 points at noseguard. Cress Alexander of Mooresville and Melvin Lapish of North tied for second.

Ted Inscore of the Greyhounds led the balloting at linebacker. Inscore had 23 points with Brian Duckworth of Mooresville second with 17. North's Ray Ramseur edged Mooresville's Cress Alexander by 9-8 for the third position.

Defensive backs selected included Ivan Cowan of South, Robert Patterson of North Iredell and Charles Turner and Donald Duff of Mooresville, who tied for the third position.

Alexander failed to make the team but received votes at three different positions. He had votes at defensive tackle, noseguard and linebacker.

Robert Patterson Leading Scorer For NI's Raiders

The North Iredell Raiders concluded their 1973 football season with a 2-7-1 mark overall and 2-5-1 conference record. Highlights of the season include the first win ever in the Raider Ravine and a 39-28 tie at home against the Division champion Davie County War Eagles.

The Raiders scored 104 points during the season and allowed the opposition 243. The high point total was 28 against Davie County and the best defensive efforts were against East Rowan and North Davidson when the Raiders allowed only seven points. The Raiders were blanked twice and the most points scored against the North Club were the 46 by conference champion Mooresville.

Robert Patterson ended the season as the leading scorer for the team with 68 points and he became second on the school's all-time scoring list.

The school now has a 12-65-2 record in eight seasons.

Planned Better Than They Knew

This eight-sided marker is in the center of the Crawford Johnston family plot in Willow Valley Cemetery. The octagon contains names of the parents and six children who lived on a farm that now is the East Iredell Avenue-East Center Avenue section of Mooresville. Names apparently were etched at random on the stone, but, beginning with the death of Eugene at age seven in 1895, they have died in the order they are listed. Annie, who now lives in Winnsboro, S. C., is the only survivor. Following Eugene in death were Gwynn, who was 27 when he died in 1918; the mother, the former Carrie Harris, 1931; the father, 1938; Stanhope, 1943; Howard, who died in 1961 and was buried in Durham; and Morrison, who died in September of this year.

National Honor Society Selects Faye Howard

Faye Howard, a student at East Carolina University School of Nursing in Greenville, has been selected as a member of the Tau Pi Upsilon Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau, a national honor society in nursing.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Howard of Mooresville, route 4, Miss Howard is a junior at the ECU School of Nursing. She is a graduate of South Iredell High School, near Barium Springs.

Only baccalaureate students are eligible for membership in the society and they must have at least a "B" average. Students are selected for membership in the society on the bases of scholarship, leadership and citizenship.

Last year, Miss Howard served as president of the ECU Student Nurses Association.

In addition to ECU, only two other North Carolina schools—Duke and the University of North Carolina—have chapters of the national honor society.

CVTI Brochure On Evening Classes Available

Catawba Valley Technical Institute in Hickory now has available for public distribution its brochure of evening credit courses, adult eduaction and extension programs scheduled for the winter quarter on the CVTI campus and at several other Catawba Valley locations.

Jack L. Davis, director of the CVTI continuing education, said persons wishing to receive the quarterly brochure of schedules should request that their names be placed on the mailing list by sending a postcard or telephoning CVTI at 327-9124 or 464-4105.

"Because of the tremendous amount of space and time it would require, it is virtually impossible for CVTI to get adequate publicity through the news media for the hundreds of credit and non-credit courses we offer each quarter," Davis explained.

"Through this brochure, we are able to provide important information to persons who are interested in upgrading their job skills, continuing their general education or developing new knowledge for personal enrichment. It's free to anyone for the asking."

The CVTI official said requests to be placed on the mailing list for the quarterly schedule brochure will be accepted anytime between 8 a.m. Thursdays and during daytime hours on Fridays.

Weight Loss

If you're trying to lose weight and nothing works, do what Charles Smith, of London, did. Keep your mouth shut for four months.

Smith lost 105 pounds during that time after his doctor rigged a dental splint, which enabled Smith to open his mouth just wide enough to take in a liquid diet of vitamins and milk.

The victim of a chronic weight problem, Smith had previously made 12 unsuccessful attempts at dieting. The 32-year-old bachelor's weight fell from 313 pounds to 208 pounds.

Kiwanians Salute Farmers

Mooresville Kiwanians Monday night paid tribute to area agriculture and to the men who have invested themselves in it.

It was annual farmers night during the club's supper meeting at Town and Country Restaurant. Area farmers were honor guests during the program arranged by the club's agricultural and ecology committee.

Alvin Stanford, Iredell County farm agent, was guest speaker. Stanford commended the club for its interest in agriculture, and he reminded the Kiwanians of the essential role farming plays in the national economy.

Davidson Biology Professor Daggy Receives Award

Davidson College biology professor Tom Daggy has been given the 1973 North Carolina Entomological Society Award for an outstanding contribution to the field of entomology.

The award was presented at the North Carolina Entomological Society's recent annual meeting in Raleigh.

Daggy was president of the Society in 1966 and has identified numerous species of insects found in North Carolina but never before recorded from the state. He has contributed widely to literature in the field of entomology and is a member of several entomology and scientific organizations.

"Tom Daggy has inspired many Davidson students over the years to pursue careers in entomology," said John M. Bevan, vice president for academic affairs at Davidson. "We are proud that Professor Daggy has won this well-deserved award."

Daggy, a native of Mooresville, Ind., graduated from Earlham College in 1937 and earned a Ph. D. from Northwestern University in 1947. He has taught at Davidson since the latter date.

Bolts Strike Man 5 Times

Lightning never strikes the same spot twice—right? Don't mention that to Roy Sullivan, a ranger at Shenandoah National Park near Waynesboro, Va. Sullivan said he has been struck by lightning five times.

He reported that the last bolt hit him on the head, setting his hair on fire and knocking him 10 feet from where he was standing.

Sullivan extinguished the fire by pouring water over his head. Sullivan said he dreamed he would be struck again.

But all this is over now, Sullivan believes. He said he had another dream which indicated that he would never be struck again.
