Rehearsal Party Fetes Saturday Bridal Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb hosted a party at the Beaver home immediately following the wedding rehearsal of Miss Paula Armstrong and Danny Beaver on Friday evening, at the Williamson Chapel United Methodist Church.

The refreshment table was centered with a lovely bridal centerpiece. Lighted tapers completed the arrangement.

Silver trays held decorated cake squares, mints, nuts, and cheese rosettes. A fruit punch was also served to the guest who were members of the wedding party. Assisting with the serving was Mrs. Lloyd Bost.

The bridal couple presented gifts to their attendants during the evening.

Miss Armstrong wore a lovely red and white outfit to which a corsage of white carnations was added.

Massachuetts Couple Celebrates Anniversary Here

Mr. and Mrs. John Whites, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. John Whites, Jr., all of Massachusetts, were guests for the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Whites of Mooresville.

They were all impressed with the beauty of North Carolina and toured a good deal of the surrounding area.

Whilte here in Mooresville, Mr. and Mrs. John Whites, Sr. celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. A dinner was held in honor of the occassion at the Whites home. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Rose and their infant son, Jason. Mrs. Rose is the former Judi Whites and Jason is the celebrating couples' great-grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Piecewicz, also of Massachusetts, made a surprise but welcome visit to the Whites' home during the week to help join in the festivities.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Miss Bridwell And Mr. Brown

Miss Mary Denise Bridwell, of Route 5, Mooresville and James Monroe Brown, Jr., of Salisbury, were married on September 30, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Frist Baptist Church, Mooresville.

The Reverend Tom Bodkin, pastor of the bride, performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

Organ music was provided by Mrs. Bob Brown, aunt of the groom and Miss Page Rasar, vocalist.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bridwell, of Mt. Ulla Highway, Mooresville, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of peau de soie with venice lace fashioned with a high neckline, empire waist and full skirt which tapered at the back to form a chapel train.

Her portrait veil of English illusion was attached to a camelot cap and worn mantilla style.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds with stephanotis.

As the bride processed to the altar, she paused at her mother's pew and gave her a long stemmed red rose and as she departed from the altar, she presented a red rose to the groom's mother.

Miss Patricia Witcher, of Greenville, S. C., was maid of honor. She wore a dress of ice blue polyester crepe and matching ice blue ribbons in her hair. Her bouquet was fashioned of forget-me-nots with pink pompoms.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lynn Clover, of High Point; Miss Mary Brown of Salisbury; Miss Debbie Laws, of Salisbury; Miss Karin Tillis of Mooresville, and Miss Dianne Campbell of Greer, S. C. Their gowns were fashioned identical to the maid of honor and they also carried bouquets of forget-me-nots with white pompoms.

Rodney Meade, of Salisbury, served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Eddie Bridwell and Tommy Bridwell, brothers of the bride; Jackie Brown, brother of the groom, Barry Brown and Pete Sells.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bridwell wore a formal gown of royal blue chiffon and matching accessories. Mrs. Brown, mother of the groom, chose a formal gown of melon color and she used matching accessories. Each of the mothers complimented their attire with corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall with the bride's parents as host.

After a Florida wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 109 Sunset Drive, Salisbury.

Adjournet followed the luncheon at 1 p.m.

County Homemakers Visit Chinqua-Penn Plantation

On last Thursday the Shepherds Homemakers Club, along with members of clubs from all over Iredell County, went by bus to visit the Chinqua-Penn Plantation situated near Reidsville. It is the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Penn and is operated by the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The Chinqua-Penn House represents the joint interest of Mr. and Mrs.Penn. They built it and furnished it for their own pleasure and purposes. They made two trips around the world and many trips to the Orient to gather furniture and pieces of art.

The 27 room mansion is built of stone and logs. An Italian stone mason was brought over to lay the richly colored stone which were quarried on the plantation.

The entire house is lavishly decorated with priceless furniture and objects of art. They especially liked the Oriental look which is predominatly seen throughout most of the house. The grounds around the house gives one the impression that he is in another world. Rock walls, masses of dark green ivy, a formal garden with hundreds of boxwoods and a large rose garden. An ornate Chinese pagodo is located beside a large swimming pool.

Mr. Penn was born in Patrick County in Virginia. He was brought to Reidsville as an infant. He began his business career in the tobacco company founded by his father. That company was later sold to the American Tobacco Co. Mr. Penn died in 1946.

Mrs. Penn was a member of a prominent upstate New York family which developed Niagara Falls as a source of power. She was a charming hostess and a tireless worker in behalf of many worthwhile causes. Her death occured on February 21, 1965.

On October 20, 1959 Mrs. Penn gave Chinqua-Penn to the University to be used as a show place for all to see and to enjoy its quiet charm.

Those of the Shepherds Club enjoying the outing were Mesdames J. I. Few, Ralph Thompson, L. C. Boyd, R. L. Parker, Robert Brawley, Robert Day, W. K. Neill, Walter Goodman, F. C. Honeycutt, M. F. Crouch, George Brown, Sam Nesbit and guests of the club were Miss Martha Nesbit, Mrs. Fred Martin of Charlotte and Mrs. John Neill.

Sorority Group Attends Pineville Dinner Theatre

On September 25, the Gamma Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi enjoyed dinner at the Pineville Country Dinner Theatre in Charlotte, and America's funniest musical presentation of "A Funny Forum."

A dance at the VFW has been planned for October 27 and new rushies will be invited.

The next meeting is at the home of Aggie Barrier on October 9.
