Southside Church Women Install 1973-74 Officers

Baptist Women of Southside Baptist Church held their first meeting of the new 1973-74 Associational year on Monday evening, October 1, at the church fellowship hall.

The group was welcomed by Mrs. Bruce Alexander, president of the Baptist Women. Following the invocation by the Rev. Phate McSwain, the group enjoyed a buffet meal of ham, green beans, various cheese tidbits, salads and desserts.

Mrs. Alexander presided over the evening program. She voiced her appreciation to the women of the church for their support of mission work during the year and expressed confidence that the year to come would be an even more fruitful one. Mrs. Guy Bowles led in the call to prayer. John Hunter, Minister of Music and Education of the Southside Church led the group in singing their hymn of the year, "Word of God, Across the Ages". Mrs. Alexander recognized Mrs. Elree Wilson, WMU Director of the church, who also expressed her appreciation to the women for their cooperation. Mrs. Wilson was presented a gold WMU pin and guard as a token of love and gratitude for her leadership during the year. The slate of officers for 1973-74 were introduced. These included: Mrs. Paul Carter, secretary, Mrs. Guy Bowles, mission support chairman; Mrs. Robert Garner, mission study chairman; Mrs. W. H. Bowles, mission action chairman.

Speaker for the evening was Rev. Phate W. McSwain, Jr. pastor of the Southside Church. He challenged the women to a deeper commitment to the cause of Christ in the year to come.

At the close of Rev. McSwain's message the women divided into groups for their business sessions. Group leaders for the new year are: Prayer Group, Mrs. G. W. Liner; Current Mission Day Group, Mrs. Linda Byers; Current Mission Night Group, Mrs. Roy Reid; Bible Study I, Mrs. Marvin Shumake; Bible Study II, Mrs. Bill Caldwell; Mission Action Group, Mrs. George Ballard; Baptist Young Women Day Group, Mrs. Al Bryant, and Baptist Young Women Night Group Mrs. Don Buie.

Baptist Missions Group Has Meet At Hayes Home

The members of the Current Missions Group of the First Baptist Church met on Monday evening, at the home of their new chairman, Mrs. Douglas Hayes on Wedgewood Road.

Mrs. William Turner opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs Lewis Davis, Jr. gave the prayer calendar for the month with scripture from Genesis 12. Mrs. Ruby Ballard closed the devotions with prayer.

Mrs. Hayes presided over the meeting and since this was the first meeting of the new year, much business was discussed. Meeting places and hostesses for the year were named and the general meeting was discussed.

A prayer retreat is planned for November 17 at Barger Cottage at Ridgecrest. All women of the church are urged to attend and the church bus will be used for transportation, as well as cars. Also, World Mission services will be conducted throughout the South Yadkin Association the week of October 28-November 2.

The community mission project of the group for the month of October is to keep the Wednesday evening nursery.

The hostess served frozen fruit salad with crackers, cokes and coffee to the following members: Mesdames Ruby Ballard, John Gabriel, Jay Kennedy, Mazell Blackwelder, Helen Burr, Augustine Brown, J. R. Cagle, Jr., R. W. Maddrey, Keith Clodfelter, Marvin Rummage, Carl Hardin, Paul Cook, Lewis Davis, Paul Ballard and William Turner.

Eastside WMS Has Monday Night Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Society of Eastside Baptist Church held it's monthly meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Faye McDaniel.

Mrs. Melinda Benfield opened the meeting by leading the group in singing "Surely Goodness and Mercy". Mrs. Viki Gregory led in prayer. Mrs. Dana Overcash had devotions from Luke 19. For the program, a sermon on album by Dr. Jack Hudson was played, after which two of the ladies gave their testimony.

Attending the meeting were: Mesdames Kaye Adams, Melinda Benfield, Darlene Huffman, Frances Pigg, Viki Gregory, Dana Overcash, Margie Benfield, Frances Strawn, Edna Daniels, Phyliss Hardwick, Faye Daniels, Shelby Sanford, Linda Marlowe and Mary Ganey.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

David Chamberlain spent the weekend in Rochester, N. Y., visiting Hulene McLean, who is in graduate school at the Eastman School of Music. Points of interest seen during the trip were Kodak Park, the manufacturing facility for Eastman Kodak; the George Eastman House, a museum on the history of photography and the founder of Kodak; and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Lewis son, Jimmy, Mrs. E. W. Perry and great-grandson, Tommy B. Lewis, Mrs. Lloyd Deaton and Mrs. Hattie Denny spent the weekend in Athens, Tenn. with Mrs. Perry's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Withrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Shinn, Jr. spent Sunday in Boone with their daughter, Cindy, a student at ASU. Joining the Shinns and Cindy for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Terry Shinn of Chapel Hill, who spent the weekend at Boone; Miss Shella Tucker, roommate of Cindy's and Terry Pardew, also a student at ASU. The dinner was in honor of Cindy who was celebrating her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Butch Stewart and daughter, Carissa, of Lake Charles, La., are visiting his mother, Mrs. Pauline S. Rogers. While here, Mr. Stewart is participating in the rodeo in Shelby. He is winning in the United States in bareback riding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Curtis visited their son, Dr. Jerry L. Curtis and wife, Marcia, in Milledgeville, Ga. for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Phillips recently vacationed at Flagler Beach, Fla. While there, Mr. Phillips caught an eight pound and four ounce fish while fishing in St. John River out of Ormonds Jungle Den Fish Resort at Astor, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Earnhardt visited Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Pendergrass of Hillsborough on Sunday.

Mrs. Holthouser Hostess To Bible Group

The Afternoon Bible Study Group of the First Baptist Church met on Monday with Mrs. Grover Holthouser, at her home in the Mount Mourne Community.

Mrs. H. T. Mayhew, chairman, called the meeting to order and gave the devotions.

The Bible study, "Origin of Missions" was presented by Mrs. A. C. Craven.

Chairmen of the various committees gave reports and several announcements were made.

The hostess served delicious Martha's salad, cheese-sausage biscuits, cocoa brownies, nuts, olives, iced tea, coffee and sunshine punch. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Wade Rogers, who was a visitor.

Members present and not mentioned above were: Mesdames Grace Davis, H. M. Sloop, W. L. Hess, George C. Goodman, H. J. Safrit, Earl Young, Lorene Davis and Chester Marlow.

Terrariums Made By Jr. Garden Club

The entire membership of the Nature Lovers Junior Garden Club was present for the October meeting at the home of Bobby and Joe Frye on Wednesday afternoon.

After the seventeen members had arrived, the hosts assisted by their mother, Mrs. Jim Frye served refreshments.

The group learned how to make terrariums during the afternoon and Mrs. Richard Barber instructed the group as to the making of a terrarium and she also displayed terrariums her son, Dickie Barber had made. The attractive terrariums were made with wild plants, ferns, mosses, and other natural accents.

For presenting the program, Mrs. Barber received an umbrella plant, from the club which had been grown by Mrs. Al Eakle. Joe frye is program chairman.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Megan Morrow on Hampton Place with April Freeman as cohostess. The club meets the first Wednesday afternoon of each month.

Small Couple Returns From N. Y. Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Small have returned from a 10-day trip to Glen Cove, N. Y., the former home of Mr. Small. Enroute to N.Y., they spent the weekend on Chesapeake Bay with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Palmer. Mrs. Palmer is the former Nadine Upright of Mooresville.

While in Glen Cove, the Smalls visited with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Craft and made a trip to New York City to visit Burlington House and especially the Erwin-Mooresville Division. On Thursday, they drove upstate New York to the Berkshire Mountains which were already in brilliant color and then on Friday they crossed the Hudson River and drove through the Catskill Mountains before starting their return trip.

Garden Club Members Attend District Meet

Thursday, October 4, Mrs. W. J. Driver, Mrs. Pressly Brawley, Sr., Mrs. W. L. Pressly, Miss Winnie Gabriel and Mrs. Allan Eakle attended the District III meeting of the North Carolina Garden Clubs Inc. held at the Holiday Inn in Gastonia. The Gastonia Garden Council was host for the meeting.

Mrs. J. Ross Pringle, state president and other state officers were honored guests.

District chairmen, council presidents and club presidents reported on their most outstanding activities and projects.

The Mooresville Garden Club was awarded a blue ribbon for their club's yearbook.

Adah Chapter Sets Meeting

Adah Chapter No. 258, Order of the Eastern Star, will have their regular stated meeting on Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

All members are urged to be present and Mrs. Lucille Ikall will be in charge of the refreshment hour.

Dried Arrangements Topic Of Morning Glories Meeting

The Morning Glories Garden Club met for their October meeting in the home of Mrs. Robert Garner with Mrs. Paul Beaver as co-hostess.

Upon arrival of the members, the hostesses served cherry chewies, napoleons and cheese straws with coffee.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harry Gabriel and the group recited the club collect. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the treasurer gave a report.

Three new members were welcomed into the club and they were Mrs. Harris Badgett, Mrs. Wes Borland and Mrs. Bobby Brown.

After the business, Mrs. Gabriel presented a most interesting and informative program on dried flower arrangements. She displayed many beautiful arrangements which she had made from dried materials and demonstrated to the group how to collect materials and put them together to form an arrangement. She showed items which she had purchased to use in drying and treating the materials to make a more beautiful and lasting arrangement.

The club members throughly enjoyed the demonstration.

Eleven members and one visitor, Mrs. Ben Allen, were present.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jim Frye and the program will concern Christmas decorations.
