MR. AND MRS. WALTER L. MILLS

Mills Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Mills celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Billy K. Nesbit and Mr. and Mrs. Billy M. Mayhew on Sunday, September 16, from three until five o'clock in the afternoon. The celebration was held at the Mills home on Perth Road in Troutman.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills were married on September 12, 1923. Mrs. Mills is the former Bertha Mae Wineoff and she and Mr. Mills have made their home in Troutman since their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collins greeted the guests and Mrs. Merle Mills and Mrs. Glenn Collins presided at the guest register.

The guests were received by the honored couple in the living room, which was decorated with flowers given as gifts.

A picture of the Mills couple in their early years of marriage was placed in view of those entering the dining room.

The anniversary table was covered with a linen cloth with lace trim. The three-tier anniversary cake, decorated with gold doves, rings, cupids, roses, and topped with gold numerals "50th" in the center of a bell, graced one end of the table. The crystal punch service was on the opposite end of the table. Gold candlesticks with lighted candles enhanced the center of the table.

Crystal trays held cheese rosettes, sausage balls, and gold bell designed mints and nuts. Gold fruit punch completed the refreshments.

Assisting in serving were: Mrs. Jack Loftin, Mrs. Vernon Hedrick, Mrs. John S. Thompson, Mrs. Billy K. Nesbit and Mrs. Bill Mayhew.

For the celebration, Mrs. Mills wore a gold floral print dress and a yellow orchid corsage. She, also wore a diamond studded locket, which was a gift from Mr. Mills before their marriage.

The honor couple received many lovely gifts. Approximately 100 guests called during the appointed hours.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Harold Deaton of West Virginia; Mrs. Grady H. Richardson of Christiansburg, Va.; Mrs. Glenn A. Ellis, Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Safrit, Kannapolis; Michael R. Collins, Elkin; Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Wineoff, Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Thompson, Lenoir; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hedrick all of Charlotte.

Dwyer Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Dwyer, Sr. were honored on their golden anniversary with a lovely reception on Sunday afternoon, September 16, in the fellowship hall of Oak Grove United Methodist Church. Hosting the event were the couple's children and their spouses: Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Dwyer Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Nantz; Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Dwyer; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dwyer; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dwyer; and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Cooke.

Miss Marie Dwyer, granddaughter of the couple, presided at the guest register, which was placed on a round table covered in a white cut-work cloth extending to the floor. An arrangement of greenery with a gold cross entwined with gold wedding rings was also used on the table.

Guests were directed to the receiving line which was composed of the honored couple and Mr. Dwyer's mother, Mrs. C. H. Dwyer of Huntersville, and their six children and their wives and husbands.

From the receiving line, guests were invited to the anniversary table which was covered with a beautiful gold cloth and centered with a lovely candelabra arrangement of bronze pompoms, yellow snapdragons and gold candles.

The anniversary cake was three tiered and each tier was separated with white columns and decorated with gold flowers, leaves, and bells. A minature bridal couple, accented in gold, ornamented the top tier of the cake. A cutglass punch service was filled with gold fruit punch. Nuts, homemade mints, and cheese straws completed the refreshments.

Mrs. Jimmy Hucks of Huntersville and Miss Debbie Nantz of Mooresville, granddaughters of the couple, served the anniversary cake. Mrs. Joe Dwyer of Huntsville, Ala. and Mrs. Randy Dwyer of Charlotte, presided at the punch service.

The gift table was covered with a gold cloth and overlaid with white lace. A picture of the couple on their wedding day and the couple's marriage license became the focal point of the gift table.

For the celebration, Mrs. Dwyer wore a beautiful off-white floor length gown with gold sequin trim. A gold orchid completed her outfit. Each of the daughters, granddaughters and daughters-in-law of the couple, also wore dresses identical to Mrs. Dwyers'. They wore corsages of gold pompoms and ribbons. Mr. Dwyer and his sons and sons-in-law were presented with matching pompom boutonnieres.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer were married on September 17, 1923 in Chester, S. C. Mrs. Dwyer is the former Annie Stinson. In addition to their six children, they have eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Goodbyes were said by Miss Carol Bennett of Charlotte, at which time each guest was presented with a souvenir thanking them for helping celebrate the occasion with the honored couple.

Approximately 200 guests called between the hours of three and five o'clock in the afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES O. DWYER, SR.

Reception Fetes Sunday Bridal Couple

Immediately following the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Julia Ann Van Vynckt and Steven Sloop, a reception was held in the chapel of the church with the bride's parents as host.

As guests entered the reception area, they were invited to register by Miss Kathy Sloop of Mooresville. The guest book was placed on a lectern marked with a feathered pin and a Peace rosebud with pink streamers.

The bridal table was covered with pink and overlaid with white lace. A garland of greenery was draped around the sides of the table and caught at various points with pink bridal bows. Two three-branched candelabra arrangments of minature pink pompoms, pink snapdragons, and baby's breath with pink candles enhanced the table.

The three-tiered wedding cake was beautifully decorated and the top tier was ornamented with a minature bride and groom in a garden setting. Silver trays held cheese straws, fondant mints and nuts.

The silver punch service was placed on a round table, covered similar to the bridal table. Garlands of greenery surrounded the base of the service.

After the bride and groom cut the traditional first-slice of wedding cake, Miss Beth Lyons and Miss Lynda Wright assisted with the serving of the cake and punch.

Garden Club Members At Board Meeting

Mrs. Allan Eakle, president of the Mooresville Garden Club and Mrs. W. L. Pressly, district yearbook chairman, attended the annual fall board meeting of the Garden Club of North Carolina, Inc., September 19, at the Center for Continuing Education of Appalachian State University at Boone.

An Environmental Improvement and Conservation Workshop was held preceding the business meeting. Following the Board meeting, they attended a luncheon at which time Dr. Robert P. Tuelings spoke on the subject: "North Carolina State Parks—Now or Never".

Mrs. J. Ross Pringle of Greensboro, state president, presided over the meetings and the Blue Ridge Garden Club of Boone served as hostess group.

Mrs. Cook Entertains Chatter Club

Members of the Chatter Club met on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Paul Cook, 326 Wedgewood Road, for their monthly session.

Bridge and canasta were enjoyed and those present included: Mrs. Doug Hayes, Mrs. Chester Marlow, Mrs. Claude Waters, Mrs. J. C. Sanders, Mrs. Everette Whitlow, Mrs. Marvin Ballard, Mrs. J. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. J. W. Hager, Mrs. Fred Bridges, Mrs. Judge Perry, Jr. and Mrs. Cook.

The hostess served a delicious frozen fruit salad on lettuce leaf with crackers and cokes.

Bishop To Be Guest At Opening Of Symphony House

A noted museum authority and lecturer on American decorative arts will be the special guest and featured speaker at the opening of the Charlotte Symphony A.I.D. Designer House, 1107 Queens Rd., Charlotte, on September 23.

Robert Bishop, Museum Editor and acting curator of furniture for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, Dearborn, Michigan, will give an illustrated lecture at 3 p.m. in the garden tea room of the Designer House. "From Junk to Gems" is the title of his wide-ranging presentation, which will touch on antiques, reproductions, transforming heirloom pieces and other topics dealing with interior design.

A man of many talents and varied background, Mr. Bishop is the author of ten books on antiques and sculptures, has edited and designed numerous catalogues and pamphlets, and has written many magazine articles on antiques and art. He is a member of the American Association of Museums, American Folk Art Museum, the Connoisseur Club of the Metropolitan Museum, the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Victorian Society.

The A.I.D. Designer House sponsored by the Charlotte Symphony Women's Association opens officially at 2 p.m. on the 23rd and will be open to the public daily except Mondays until Oct. 14th. Eleven of Carolinas noted interior designers have transformed the rooms of this lovely English Tudor house as a fund raising project for the Youth Symphony of the Carolinas and in-school concert program of the Charlotte Symphony.

Jean Homesley, of 921 Hampton Place, serves as local chairman for the Symphony.
