Devil Soccer Arrives With New Coach, Surroundings

There are a number of new things present in Mooresville Senior High's soccer camp this season.

And there are a number of old things around to enjoy them.

Among the new is a coach, a practice facility, and a rehearsal routine.

Among the old are primarily the players themselves, with only one being lost from last year's edition via graduation.

And it's the old that's combining with the new to help the Blue Devils prepare themselves for the opening of the school's fourth varsity soccer campaign early next week.

Mooresville's booters enjoy the luxury of becoming the school's first squad to compete in season-opening activities, with the christening of the 1987 campaign coinciding with the ringing of classroom bells Monday.

Just after learning who their teachers will be for the coming school term, members of the soccer team will then take their first test Monday night by entertaining the visiting Spiders of non-conference Concord on the Mooresville Stadium facility behing Junior High.

"We're getting excited about the season," stated Steve Stith, going on record for the first time as the Devil booters' rookie head coach, in between practice sessions Friday. "We've put in two hard weeks, and we've got another one ahead of us. Our skills are improving by the day, and we're looking forward to getting the season started."

Stith, a fifth-year student at Davidson College, played for four years on the Wildcat soccer team. Last year this time, he was preparing for his final fling, during which he helped spearhead the 'Cats attack as its team captain.

Although now adjusting to his first assignment as a head coach, Stith, who comes on in replace of former three-year head coach Scott Bruton, boasts of 18 years playing experience. He was first attracted to the game while a youngster growing up in his hometown of Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I know a lot about the game of soccer," admitted Stith, who has instituted a twice-a-day practice routine that is also new to the host of returning players. "I've played for 18 years, and I've had a lot of good coaches who have taught me quite a lot. Coach (Charlie) Slagle (Davidson's head coach) may have been one of my best. So far, I've liked what I've seen as far as basic skills go. There is still a lot that they have to learn, but they're catching on quick. I think we're going to surprise some teams this year."

The Devils have already had their fair share of surprises during their three weeks of pre-season workouts.

In addition to welcoming in a new coach and coaching style as well as adjusting to the two-a-day practice schedule, the Devils are also enjoying life far away from the season's "other" sport that steals so much of fall's thunder.

For the first time, the players are no longer practicing on an old football field. Instead, they are going through their routines on the Mooresville Soccer Complex, a collection of three fields that sits just behind South School on Magnolia Street.

"This is really a nice place to practice," agreed Stith, who grew used to playing on a soccer-only field while at Davidson.

Though the facility is not game ready, it is more than suitable as a site for practice, something of which this year's team has had its fair share and then some.

In contrast to years past, when only one workout was slated daily, coach Stith has had the players on the field once in the mornings and again in the evenings, swaying from that routine only once when he was forced away to attend the funeral of a former fraternity brother killed in a car accident.

"That's something that's hard to forget," Stith said. "I'm glad I've got this going here. It has helped take my mind off of it a little bit."

For now, the mind of Stith, as well as those of the players, are centering around the arrival of the season, which kicks off with the match against incoming Concord Monday night.

The game is tabled to get underway at 7 p.m. on the stadium field.

Concord is one of five straight non-conference foes that will help prepare the Devils for their fourth season of participation in the Foothills Athletic Soccer Conference.

Mooresville has finished third all three previous times, and that's something that Stith has plans of changing.

"We have several goals set for ourselves this season," revealed Stith. "We want to improve both individually and in our team play, and we'd like to get a win over Statesville and South Iredell. From what I can gather, Mooresville hasn't beaten either of them, That's something we're going to shoot for."

And the Devils are boosted by a number of veteran shooters:

The team lost only one of last year's player via graduation, in starter Jamie Brooks, resulting in a host of returnees from last year's team.

Among them is James Gallimore, who has successfully overcome a severe knee injury suffered while snow skiing.

Also back this year is Frank Matthews, a key clog two years ago who skipped soccer last season to play football.

So vital are Gallimore, one of last year's top three scorers, and Matthews that they have been named as the team's co-captains for this season.

Also back are Mark Lewis, last year's top goal producer, and Matt Touchton, also a top scorer a year ago, as well as Jeff Lovett, the Devils' every-match goalkeeper the previous fall.

"We appear to have quite a bit of team leadership," noted Stith. "That's always a plus."

What may not work in the team's favor is its rugged early schedule, with opponents Concord, Hickory, Providence Day and Charlotte Christian all boasting of proud soccer success.

"Sometimes," reflected Stith, who was on the Davidson team that shocked Duke's Blue Devils last year, "losing to a team better than yours isn't always a loss. If you can learn something, then that's a plus. I think our schedule will help us in the long run."

After opening with Concord Monday, Mooresville makes three straight road trips, visiting, in order, Northwest Cabarrus, Hickory and Providence Day, before returning home Sept. 14 to entertain Charlotte Christian in the final non-conference match.

The Devils are slated to open league play Sept. 21 against reigning conference champion and visiting South Iredell.

Unity To Host Open Tournament

It's tournament time at Unity Church Recreation Center.

Having already sponsored one double-elimination attraction this month, Unity is preparing for another one, this one set to take place the final weekend of August.

The recreation center is planning to conduct a Men's Open Softball Tournament Aug. 28-30.

Entry fee is $70 per team, plus the furnishing of two playable Blue Dot softballs.

An organizational tournament meeting will take place Aug. 26 at 7 p.m. at the recreation center.

For more information, contact Carolyn Bentley, at 998-3049, or Larry Bentley, at 857-6086.

Bicentennial of the United States Constitution

1787-1987

Independence Hall

In 1776 Independence Hall gave birth to freedom for America through the Declaration of Independence. In 1787 the more difficult task of retaining that freedom was secured by the fifty-five delegates who met there from May 25th until the signing of the Constitution on September 17th.
