

Miss Watts Becomes Bride Of Mr. Little

In a ceremony of beauty at the Bethel Presbyterian Church of Cornelius, Miss Tracy Lynn Watts and David LaVerne Little pledged their wedding vows on Saturday, August 15.

The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Glenn C. Burris Jr. at 2:00 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Watts of 17900 Jett Road, Huntersville and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David B. Little of 21204 McCall Street, Cornelius.

The altar of the sanctuary was ornamented with two spiral candelabras holding lighted cathedral tapers, flanked by potted white azalea blossoms on small tables. A three-branched candelabra centered the altar and held the unity candle which the couple lit at the close of the ceremony to signify oneness.

A kneeling bench also graced the altar and was used by the couple for the benediction.

Pews for the bridal parents and grandmothers were marked with white satin bows and greenery. A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Cindy Blackwell, pianist and organist, Mrs. Laura Ladlock, Charles Harris and Mrs. Pat Carpentier, vocalists.

Piano selections were presented for the prelude and vocal selections were The Wedding Song by Terry and Always by Lewis as a duet by Mr. Harris and Mrs. Carpentier with accompaniment.

The attendants processed to "The Way by Terry and the bride entered to "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner. The recessional was "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach.

At the close of the ceremony, Mr. Harris sang "Flesh of My Flesh by Pauline, unaccompanied, for the benediction. Escorted by her father, the bride was given in marriage by her parents. She was wearing a white elegant formal gown of white tulle with a fitted bodice and a full skirt, and a white lace train.

The bride carried a bouquet of red silk roses enhanced with white silk baby's breath.

Her only ornaments were a single strand of pearls with matching pearl earrings.

In keeping with tradition, the bride selected for something old, a 1980s wedding gown; for something new, a pearl necklace; and for something blue, a garland of blue satin and white lace.

Miss Pam Byers of Mooresville was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Kim Lumpkin and Mrs. Rhonda Kee, both of Mooresville; Miss Marie Herndon, Miss Sandy Nelson and Miss Donna Payne, all of Cornelius.

All of the attendants wore gowns.

Clubb-Hitt Vows Pledged In Troy At Mt. Carmel Baptist Church

In a ceremony of simplicity and beauty at the Mount Carmel Baptist Church in Troy on Sunday, August 2, Melissa Kay Hitt and Jesse James Clubb Jr. were united in marriage. The 2:00 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Reverend Tom Thomas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Joe Hunsucker of Route 1, Troy. The groom, a resident of Troy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Clubb of 1036 Davis Street, Mooresville.

The sanctuary of the church was arranged with a white wrought arch entwined with greenery and pink bows and white wedding bells extending from the center. Large ferns in brass planters were on either side of the arch and completed the setting.

Mrs. Cynthia Hunsucker was organist and soloist. Traditional wedding selections were provided.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in an all-white silk and satin gown fashioned with a high neckline of chantilly lace and a sheer yoke outlined in white fur. The sleeves were lace and the front waistline ended in a v-point. The softly gathered satin skirt was designed with a full length underskirt of lace. Lace and fur trimmed the entire length of the satin skirt which extended into a short train.

Her full length veil of silk illusion was attached to a wreath of silk flowers with seed pearls and ribbon streamers extending from each side. The illusion was completely outlined with white satin ribbon.

The bride carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations with a single pink rosebud.

A reception followed in the church Fellowship Hall where a garden setting was created with white wrought iron furniture and a matching table which held a lovely potted plant. Two potted fuchsia colored azaleas were placed at vantage points in the reception area.

The groom's father was best man. The bride's father was best man. The groom's mother was maid of honor. The bride's mother was maid of honor. The groom's sister was bridesmaid. The bride's sister was bridesmaid. The groom's brother was ring bearer. The bride's brother was ring bearer.

The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated in white with pink rosebuds and topped with a ceramic bride and groom ornament. After the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of cake, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Burdick of Cornelius completed the serving of the cake.

A fresh fruit bowl, along with cheese puffs, sausage balls, peanuts and a refreshing pink punch completed the bridal feast. Assisting at the table was Mrs. Diane Stinson of Cornelius.

All of the bridal tables were covered identically in white linen with white lace overlays. The food table was arranged with three hurricane lamps in various heights and each held a pink lighted candle.

The groom's mother selected a street length dress of teal silk fashioned with a peplum overlay bodice and gathered at the front waistline which was accented with a fabric rose. The sleeves were long. She wore off-white accessories and her corsage was a silk rose in off-white with lace ribbons.

Baby Shower Fetes Mrs. Belk

In honor of Mrs. Mitchell Belk, the former Susan Ketchie, a baby shower was held on Saturday evening, August 22, at the home of the future paternal grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Belk. Hostesses were Phyllis and Sheryl Belk and Laura and Lou Ann Carriker.

The honoree, wearing a pink sundress, received a corsage of blue and white baby socks from her hostesses.

The dining table was covered in lace and centered with a porcelain doll dressed in a blue romper suit and flanked by blue candles in crystal holders.

Refreshments of cucumber sandwiches, minis, nuts, cake squares, assorted fruits in a baby carriage carved from a watermelon and punch were served.

Special guests, in addition to the future paternal grandmother, were the future maternal grandmother, Jean Ketchie and the honoree's sister, Karen Ketchie.

Twenty-five guests showered the expectant mother with many lovely and useful layette gifts.

The hostesses gift was a car seat. The Belk couple expect their first child on September 16.
