

Asses of God Denomination Leaps And Bounds

The Methodist Church, the largest denomination in the South, is experiencing a period of rapid growth in the past decade. In 1976, the denomination had 1,000,000 members and 10,000 churches. By 1986, the membership had grown to 1,200,000 and the number of churches to 12,000. This growth is attributed to a number of factors, including a renewed emphasis on evangelism, a focus on social issues, and a commitment to community service.

Methodism is a global faith with a strong presence in the United States. The denomination is known for its commitment to social justice and its emphasis on the love of God and neighbor. In the United States, Methodism is represented by the United Methodist Church, which is a member of the World Council of Churches. The denomination is also known for its commitment to the environment and its support of nuclear disarmament.

Parents Vital To Basic Education Program

Parents and communities can play a vital role in the eight-year implementation of the Basic Education Program by enhancing the arts provided in their schools' curriculum. The program is designed to provide children with a well-rounded education that includes the arts, science, and social studies. Parents are encouraged to support their children's education by providing a home environment that is conducive to learning and by encouraging their children to participate in extracurricular activities.

The Basic Education Program is a comprehensive plan adopted in 1985 by the NC Legislature. It is designed to provide all children in North Carolina with a high-quality education that prepares them for the challenges of the 21st century. The program includes a variety of initiatives, including the arts, science, and social studies. Earnhardt Strengthens Family's Racing Success

In order to get as much fame as one's father, one has to be much more able than he. DENIS EARNHARDT, 18, is proving this. He is a major-league baseball player today. His father, Ralph, was a professional race car driver. Ralph's success in racing was due to his talent, his hard work, and his family's support. Denis is following in his father's footsteps and is becoming a professional baseball player.

Ralph Earnhardt was a professional race car driver who won several championships. He was known for his speed and his ability to handle pressure. He was a role model for his son, Denis, who is now a professional baseball player. Denis is following in his father's footsteps and is becoming a professional baseball player.

THE CHILD IS FATHER OF THE MAN
Dr. Daniel A. Poling, prominent minister of another generation, began his pastoral prayer one Sunday with: "Now I lay me down to sleep..." Embarrassed, he caught himself, fumbled around for proper pastoral phrases, and in a cold sweat continued his prayer.

"I don't know what happened," he wrote later. "The words just came out. A slip of the mind, a return to childhood, I guess."
