

Wedding Vows of Dyson-Barger Couple Pledged

Four-square Church in Cornelius was the setting for the wedding of Miss Dana Carol Barger and Brian Clay Dyson on Sunday, October 11. The Reverend Glenn Burris performed the impressive ceremony in the midst of a lovely setting of brass candleabras holding lighted candles and surrounded by stately palms and other large green plants. A floral arrangement in mixed colors enhanced the altar area.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Carol Compton of 812 Ferncliff Drive, Mooresville and the late Larry Barger. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dyson of Route 5, Mooresville.

Wedding music was provided by Cindy Blackwell, pianist and Debbie Szabo, soloist. Selections included

MRS. BRIAN CLAY DYSON

House Full of Faith, Lord's Prayer, This Is Love, One in One, and selections by Bach. The traditional wedding marches were played for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her brother, Larry Barger, the bride was beautiful in a full length gown of chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured ruffles trimmed in sequins and pearls and ended in a chapel train.

The bride carried a cascade of white phalaenopsis orchids with daisies and tiger lilies and accented with touches of blue.

The bride carried a cascade of white phalaenopsis orchids with daisies and tiger lilies and accented with touches of blue. Nikki Dixon was maid of honor and she wore a tea length dress in royal blue color. She carried a fan adorned with daisies and tiger lilies and accents of blue. Bridesmaids were Hilary Nantz, Shelli Plot of Mocksville, cousin of the bride and Kathy Waugh. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor and carried the same style bouquet.

Brandy Compton, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid. Her tea length dress was fashioned of off-white lace.

Little Miss Ashley Compton, sister of the bride, was a flower girl. She wore a tea length dress of white lace. The junior bridesmaid and the flower girl carried bouquets like the adult attendants.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Scott Dyson, brother of the groom and Todd Waugh. The bride's mother chose a two-piece taffeta dress in a light honey color and styled with long sleeves, a peplum at the waistline and street length skirt. The jacket was enhanced with off-white lace trim. She complimented her attire with a corsage of tiger lilies.

The groom's mother selected a tea length dress of taupe taffeta fashioned with a white lace collar and bouffant sleeves. Her corsage was a white orchid with a tiger lily.

Grandparents of the bride couple, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Greene and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Pierce, all of Winston Salem, Mrs. Laura Barger, Darrell A. Knott and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Dyson, all of Mooresville, were remembered with corsages and boutonnieres of white roses.

Presiding at the guest register was Beth Dyson, sister of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom, their parents and attendants posed in the vestibule of the church to greet their guests.

The bride couple will have a belated honeymoon since the groom is serving with the U. S. Marine Corps and had to report to Tennessee the day after the wedding. His permanent station will be at New River.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of Mooresville Senior High School and the groom graduated from MSHS in 1984.

On Saturday evening following the couple's wedding rehearsal, a cake-cutting was held at the home of the couple's parents.

The three-tiered heart-shaped wedding cake was the focal point and it was topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was served with a variety of party foods and punch.

Former Resident, Miss Gray, Weds Mr. Noble At Peace College Chapel

Miss Elizabeth Williamson Gray and John Ruskin Noble, both of Raleigh, were united in marriage on Saturday, November 7 at the Chapel Hill Divinidde Chapel, Peace College, Raleigh. The 3:00 p.m. ceremony was performed by The Reverend James Eiler, associate minister of Alamance Presbyterian Church of Greensboro.

The bride is the daughter of The Reverend and Mrs. Lucius Ardrey Gray of Greensboro, formerly of Mooresville. She is a graduate of South Rowan Senior High School, Peace College and a summa cum laude of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is employed by Thalhimer's of Raleigh as a fashion coordinator for the Raleigh area stores.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Robert C. Noble of Cary and the late Mr. Noble. He is a graduate of Cary Senior High School and attended North Carolina State University of Raleigh. He is employed by Mitsubishi Semiconductor America, Inc. of Durham as principal technician.

The historic Divinidde Chapel was adorned with a low arrangement of mixed flowers of ivory, mauve, pale pink and deep red colors on the communion table with the brass Celtic cross, flanked by single lighted candles, in the background.

A program of classical and sacred wedding music was presented by Virginia Vance, Peace College organist; James Keith of Chapel Hill, trumpeter and Toby Joys of Greensboro, soloist. Trumpet Voluntary by Clark was used for the processional and the recessional was Trumpet Tune by Purcell.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of ivory satin with long, tapered sleeves and fitted bodice overlaid in alencon lace and accented with seed pearls. The gown ended in a cathedral train which was appliqued and bordered with alencon lace.

Her fingertip veil was attached to a wreath of silk orange blossoms. The bride carried a cascade of dendrobium orchids, sterling silver roses, red azaleas, ivory freesia and ivy.

For maid of honor the bride chose her sister, Lois Gray of Greensboro. Her gown was tea length rose satin fashioned with a basque waist and long tapered sleeves. She carried a loose spray of sterling silver roses, red azaleas, ivory freesia and ivy.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Noble of Cary, sister of the groom, Jennifer Beason of Lenoir, Betty Bell of Raleigh, and Joanne Wagner of Chesapeake Beach, MD. Their gowns and bouquets were identical to those of the honor attendant.

The groom's best man was Daniel Jones of Durham. Groomsman were Jere Noble of Pittsburgh, PA, uncle of the groom, Steven Brooks and Steven Elderkin of Raleigh and

Hairdressers At Show

Sharon Patton and Michelle Wilson of the Hair Gallery of Mooresville attended the Total Concept Beauty Show in Winston Salem at the Bilton Convention Center on Monday. The show was sponsored by B. H. Beauty and Barber Supply.

The local hairdressers attended classes with many artists and saw the latest styles and techniques. "Wide" hair styles are in for fall as well as the wedge is making a return in modification.

Waite Warren of Durham. Directing the wedding was Betty Alexander of Mooresville. Janet Price-Petrell of Chapel Hill presided at the guest register and programs were presented by Julie Brown Autry of Bethel, cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the North Ridge Country Club.

Greeting the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Bigger and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williamson Jr., uncle and aunt of the bride, all of Raleigh.

Assisting with the serving were Marjorie Brown of Bethel, aunt of the bride, Virginia Edmonson and Doris Weddington, both of Mooresville and Virginia Bethune of Pulaski, VA.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Howie of Davidson said goodbyes. The couple will reside in Raleigh following a honeymoon in Hawaii.

On Friday evening, November 6, Mrs. Robert C. Noble of Cary, mother of the groom-elect, honored her son and his fiancée and their wedding attendants with a rehearsal dinner at the Velvet Cloak Inn, Raleigh. Other guests were family and out of town friends.

The bride-elect was honored with a miscellaneous shower at Prospect Presbyterian Church on October 11. Hostesses were Betty Alexander, Linda Boet, Virginia Edmonson, Frances Howie, Mary Lili Kipka, Joyce Morrow and Doris Teiler.
