Gleason Recipient Of BPW Honor

Mooresville Senior High School senior Kristen Lynn Gleason has been selected by the Mooresville Business and Professional Women's Club as the Girl of the Month.

The daughter of Donna G. Davis and Rex Gleason, both of Mooresville, Kristen is a part-time employee at the Mooresville Tribune, in addition to her many school activities.

She is vice president of the Student Council, member of the Beta Club, AFS, French Club, treasurer of Medical Explorers, member of SADD, a member of the color guard performing with the Mooresville Blue Devils Band.

Honors received by Kristen include N.C. Governor's School for 1987; Broyhill Leadership Conference and Converse Girls Leadership Conference, both 1986; Student Council Achievement Award; Presidential Academic Fitness Award and Homecoming Queen for 1987-88.

In addition to the offices she holds within the school organizations, Kristen is active in the new "Teen Talk" program offered by the speech classes. Overall, Kristen takes great pride in her school and strives to set a good example to fellow students.

At home, her contributions are helping with chores and spending time together. She loves her family very much and appreciates the family contributions to her.

As the Girl of the Month, Kristen was a special guest at the organization's dinner meeting and also received a certificate of recognition.

Millsaps Presents Organ Recital In Newton

Daniel Millsaps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Millsaps of Mooresville, presented an organ recital at the First United Methodist Church in Newton on Sunday afternoon, November 29.

Recital selections were Hymn of Action's of grace "Te Deum" by Jean Langlais; Savor of the Nations Canon in C major by J. S. Bach; Fantasia; Wake, Awake for Night is Flying and Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor, all by Bach; Magnificat VI: Gloria, Marcel Dupre; Ave Maria, Bach-Gounod; and La Nativite — The Manger; The Angels; The Shepherds; and The Holy Family.

Choral preludes were Come Thou Long Expected Jesus, Paul Mauriat; Jesus, Priceless Treasure (two settings); Noel Nouvelet; Let How a Rose E'er Blooming, Alan Stout; In Dulci Jure, Bach; and Carillon de Westminster, Louis Vierne.

A reception followed the recital in the church Fellowship Hall.

Millsaps is the organist at the Newton church and much reconstruction has just been completed on the organ.

A graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne College at Hickory, Millsaps majored in music. He also studied under Don Laine, Minister of Music at the First Baptist Church of Mooresville.

AFS STUDENTS, HOBY REP. GUESTS OF WOMAN'S CLUB

Woman's Club Program Presented By Local International Students At Luncheon

Mooresville's American Field Service students were special guests at the Thursday luncheon of the Mooresville Woman's Club at the War Memorial Building.

President Doris Thompson welcomed the members and guests after which International Affairs chairman Terri Braatz introduced the Houston who presented her AFS sister, Christina Thelin from Sweden. Mrs. Clinton Holdslaw followed by introducing her AFS daughter, Ana Victoria from Spain. Each of the AFS students told interesting facts about her family and her country after which they answered the clubwomen's questions.

Education chairman Clara Johnson presented this year's Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation representative Richard Carver. Richard will represent the Woman's Club at the HOBY seminar in Charlotte next summer.

Reports were heard from standing committees and included a report on food and clothing provided annually for needy families; taking apples and appreciation notes to each of the schools for the teachers during National Education Week; a full report on the recently held Fall District Meeting in Mooresville; and a letter with pictures was shown to the members from the organization's adopted foster child in India.

An invitation was read and accepted by the clubwomen to assist with the 75th celebration of John Mack and Son on Sunday afternoon, December 20.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Clara Johnson, Emily Kerley and Josephine Gilley. A bountiful Thanksgiving luncheon was served and tables carried out the theme in baskets of apples with a cornucopia tree on the head table.

Thanksgiving devotions were presented by Mrs. Georgia Mabe and the meeting was presided over by the President, Doris Thompson.

Celebration Honors Kelly Couple For 50th Wedding Anniversary

Henry Moore and Floy Litten Kelly, residents of Mount Mourne, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on November 27, in the Fellowship Hall of Fair View United Methodist Church.

The couple were married on November 25, 1937, at The First United Methodist Church in Nash.

Pre-Nuptial Events Honor Kee-Hager Couple

Numerous pre-nuptial events were held for Miss Lori Ann Kee and Mark Daniel Hager, November 21 bride couple.

Among the courtesies was a miscellaneous shower on October 21, in the Fellowship Hall of Shearer Presbyterian Church.

Hostesses were aunts of the bride-elect, Mrs. Margaret Sherrill of Mooresville and Mrs. Shirley Flowe of Huntersville and a cousin, Mrs. Linda Reed, also of Mooresville.

Upon arrival of the honoree, a corsage of pink carnations and baby's breath was pinned to her pretty fall attire by her hostesses.

A lovely basket arrangement of silk flowers in shades of burgundy with pink and blue graced the refreshment table where guests helped themselves to fancy sandwiches, nuts, minis, pickles, cake squares, and punch.

Twenty guests showered the bride-elect with many lovely and useful gifts during the hours of 2:00 until 4:00 p.m.

A wedding bell theme was used at a drop-in miscellaneous shower on Nov. 1 at the Salisbury home of Miss Gloria Franks.

As guests attended from 3:00 until 5:00 p.m., they enjoyed delightful refreshments of cup cakes, nuts, chips, cheese ball with assorted crackers and punch.

Many useful gifts were presented to the bride-elect.

A lovely afternoon bridal tea was held in Mooresville at the home of Mrs. Doris Sherrill in honor of Miss Kelly on November 6.

In lieu of a corsage, the hostess presented her with a basket filled with something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue.

The dining room table was beautifully appointed with a white cloth and mauve colored napkins arranged in a fan shape in a frosted vase. To further accent the napkin arrangement, which was placed on an antique mirror tray, were two small goblets holding mauve colored candles.

Delicious crabmeat, puffs, petite ginger cakes, orange tea time tarts, cucumber sandwiches, roasted nuts, fruit platter, and assorted cheese were served with hot Autumn tea and Cheever punch.

Miss Kee and her bridal attendants were entertained at a bridesmaids' luncheon on November 14, at the Holiday Inn in Cornelius in the Atrium, overlooking the pool.

Covered in white linen, the luncheon table, centered with white flowers flanked by lighted white tapers, was set for 14 guests.

The menu consisted of baked chicken breast with wild rice, green beans with almonds, cauliflower with cheese sauce, garden salad, dinner rolls, iced tea and sherbert.

Hostess, Mrs. Shirley Flowe presented the bride-elect with a corsage of pink roses and a stained glass window decoration.

In addition to the honoree and her attendants, special guests were: members of the bride couple, Mrs. Carolyn Kee and Mrs. Carol Hager, along with an aunt of the honoree, Mrs. Margaret Sherrill and cousins of the bride, Kelly Flowe, Bonnie Flowe, Doris Sherrill and Lisa Overcash.

A surprise buffet brunch was hosted by Mrs. Judy White, a co-worker of Miss Kee at Reeves Bros. The brunch was held at the Hilton University Place in Charlotte.

Guests were close friends of the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. Carolyn Kee and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Carol Hager.

The hostess gift was a potted plant for the bride couple's new home.

Roots Of Words

Courtesan: Today we think of a courtesan as a woman of somewhat dubious sexual morals. However, the word derives from a perfectly proper beginning, a courtesan was simply a woman who was a member of a royal court. The word's meaning changed when people realized that many of these women were also the mistresses of many of the men at court as well.

Lady: Originally, the word meant bread kneader. The lady of the house kneaded the bread which she distributed to the family and to the servants. Her husband was the lord, literally, the one who guarded the bread. Eventually, the words lord and lady came to symbolize those who were in charge of the household for both their food and safety.
