McCoy Wins Recognition

The grandson of a Mooresville woman received special recognition at Mars Hill College.

Timothy Conder McCoy, a spring graduate of Mars Hill, was named the 1991 Outstanding Senior by the college's Alumni Association. The award was presented May 11 at the college's Graduate Banquet.

McCoy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCoy of Wedgewood Drive in Huntersville and the grandson of Mrs. Willeen Shumake of Mooresville.

McCoy graduated with a double major in communications and religion.

He was president of the Student Government Association at Mars Hill for two years, field commander of the marching band for three years, a member of the Delta Kappa Theta fraternity, the recipient of the Wendell Privette Scholarship and a participant in the Big Brother program at Mars Hill Elementary School.

He was also selected for "Who's Who Among Students at American Universities and Colleges.

The Outstanding Senior award goes to a student who has distinguished himself in all areas of student life.

Over a million and a half Americans had heart attacks last year. Tragically, a third of them didn't survive.
But now, heart attack victims in this area have a good chance to beat those odds. That's because our hospital has joined the Carolinas Heart Emergency Network.
This network of hospitals throughout the state was formed to provide heart attack victims with the most advanced cardiac care available today.
Immediate response. Fast diagnosis. Treatment with new clot-dissolving drugs. They are all available at our hospital. And they all mean your chances of surviving a heart attack just got better.
For more information on the Carolinas Heart Emergency Network, just call us.
