Bonanza

The approximate value of higher-education financial assistance earned by this year's Mooresville Senior High graduates is $964,000.

Guidance counselor Mary Lou Lawson crunched the numbers. She pointed out that not all recognition for the Class of '91 carries monetary awards, and, of those that do, not all will be used.

For example, Jeff Haynes accounts for $545,000 of the total: appointments to both the Air Force and Navy academies, $425,000 combined; Reserve Officer Training Corps scholarships, $80,000 each. He chose the AF academy.

And Chris Morgan won't use his $60,000 Army ROTC scholarship because he will attend the Merchant Marine Academy on a congressional appointment valued at $200,000.
