Softball's Stretch Underway

These may be the times that try men souls, but they're also the times that will be used to determine this spring's regular-season champion within the Men's Open Softball League.

The league's stretch run has began.

And as it does, no fewer than five teams — and possibly a sixth — still have a legitimate shot at the league's regular-season bragging honors.

Entering this week's play, a mere half-game separates the top two teams, it coming in the win column, with another sits two games back in losses, and a fourth is a game-back in defeats and two short in wins.

As for the fifth, it is still within shot, as is a possible sixth, with just this week and part of next week remaining in the campaign.

Heading into this week's play, Randy Marion Chevrolet, after padding its mark with a win last week, continued to nail down the top spot, at 9-1.

Following close behind is Magic Rentals, which also won its only game and stands at 8-1 after last week's action.

Universal Maintainence fell from the ranks of the once-beaten after losing last week to slip to 7-2 overall.

Brinton's Bombers, also winners of their only game, improved to 8-3 overall.

Mooresville Ford, among the busiest teams and with a 2-1 weekly mark to show for it, took its 6-3 record into play this week.

That was a half-game better than Greenfield Market, checking in at 6-4 after losing its only game last week.

The Hurricanes, winners of a game, round out the list of teams playing at or above .500 with a 5-3 record.

Burlington, which pulled the biggest upset last week by beating Universal Maintainence, improved to 3-5 to head the league's second divison.

The rest of the group includes MCCA, at 3-6, followed, in order, by Lakeside Cabl;, at 3-7, Lake Norman Regional Medical Center, at 1-7, NGK Ceramics, at 1-8, and the Brew Dogs, at 0-10.

Last week's play was again cut short a day when one night of action was postponed by rain.

There were no single game outburts of power last week, but there were some individual highlights.

Topping them was Mooresville Ford's Todd Canestraro, who belted solo shots in two of his team's three games to lead the home run hitting parade.

Others with single shots for the week were Mooresville Ford's Mark Torrrence and Junior Jones, Brew Dog Ken Vaughn, Burlington's Ray Winford, and Randy Marion's Tony Hager.

Among them, Brew Dog Vaughn and Ford's Torrence each swatted their base-clearing jobs with inside-the-park hits.

Play in the Men's Open Softball League is conducted through the Mooresville Recreation Department.

Games are held on Monday through Thursday evenings, all of them on the Woods School field.

Under the original schedule, regular-season play was to end tonight (Wednesday).

However, due to rainouts, several games have been added to the schedule.

Play will continue tomorrow night and through Tuesday of next week because of rain postponements.

Men's Softball Standings

Randy Marion Chevy	9-1
Magic Rentels	8-1
Universal Maintainence	7-2
Brinton's Bombers	8-3
Mooresville Ford	6-3

Lakeside Cable	3-7
LNRMC	1-7
NGK Ceramics	1-8
Brew Dogs	0-10

Bandits Pad Softball Lead

The Bandits have themselves to thank for padding their edge in the girls Midget Softball League.

The Bandits, entering the week as one of two unbeaten teams, emerged from it as the only one after single-handedly handing that other squad its first defeat.

That propelled the Bandits to a two-win week and improved their overall record to the 5-0 level.

As a result, the Bandits increased their lead by a full two games after.

As for the Cubs, it was a lost week altogether. entering it tied for the league lead, the Cubs suffered their first two losses and sliped to 3-2 overall, falling into second place.

The Cardinals ejoyed their most successful week of the season to date by gathering in a pair of wins to apply some pressure on the runners-up after pushing their record to 2-3.

It was the same old same old for the Orioles, who were dealt two defeats and lowered their record to 0-5 as a result.

The Bandits and Cards shared top team honors as a result of winning a combined four games — two each — without suffering a loss.

Individually, numerous honors were earned.

Among those standing in the spotlight were the Bandits' Janie Deuble, Tonya Cole, Sami Adkins and Krista Mayfield, and Cardinals Nickie Leazer and Angela Keller all spanked home runs.

Among those, Lady Cardinal Leazer topped the league as she popped a single roundtripper apiece in two games to finish with a league-best two dingers.

Play in the girls Midget Softball League is conducted through the Mooresville Recreation Department.

Games, all of which are held at Liberty Park, take place on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

Moors Right Ship Before Break

Touching All The Bases: What a time for a break!

No, not really, as least as far as Mooresville's American Legion baseball Moors are concerned.

After jumping off to a rocky start to this the season after "the season," Post 66 showed signs of righting ship during a two-game homestand the middle and latter parts of last week. Just before taking a breath in order to allow members of its team to revel in over-the-weekend high school graduation ceremonies, Mooresville gloved itself a pair of Southern Division of Area III triumphs to push its record above the .500 mark in that category.

And wouldn't you know it, but at the time when things start going right, here they go and take five days off from play. It's the kind of thing that never happened last season, when Post 66 set club records for the most wins in a season — with 29 — and for advancing the farthest into the state legion playoffs — by making it to the Western N.C. finals. Last year, when things were going right, they stayed right.

But, as much as we hate to admit it, this is no longer last year. This is this year, and our Moors have of late showed signs of returning to last year's form.

They did so with back-to-back, homefield victories first over North Wilkesboro and then over Lexington Wednesday and Thursday nights, respectively, to push their mark to the 3-2 level against SD-Area III foes. Following Thursday's shelling of winless Lexington, Post 66 was out of action until hosting what many feel may be the class of the league in a Mocksville-Davie squad late last night.

Hyping the current situation of the Moors is the completion of its team roster. Members of Statesville Senior High's team who played as Moors last season were still engaged in state postseason play through the early stages of last week. They completed their play in grand fashion, by sweeping Washington's Pam Pack, the East division champion, in two straight games of a best-of-three series to claim the coveted North Carolina High School Athletic Association's 3A class baseball championship.

By their own admission, the Moors, like every other team in the nine-member SD-Area III, are taking the season one goal at a time. The first is to finish among the league's top eight clubs and make the league's postseason tournament. The second is to finish among those top four in order to merit the homefield advantage for first-round playoff series.

Of course, topping the list is a regular-season, first-place finish that will earn that team the homefield edge throughout league postseason play. It's a path Post 66 followed last year that proved highly advantageous, as they won all three league playoff series by use of its homefield security.

Still, it's too early to start thinking that far ahead. The time to think about is now. Beginning with this week's return to play against Mocksville, Post 66 will play the remainder of its 11 regular-season games in less than a two-week span. The schedule includes a span that features games on eight consecutive nights.

The Moors needed the kind of effort they got just last week, and the way it looks they also may need the break that followed it. Beginning this week, Post 66 has just two more scheduled open dates between now and the end of the season June 24.

Hopefully, last week's ship righting will be enough to steady the Moors through rocky waters ahead.

Camping Under An Infield Fly: Joe Pinyan, Mooresville's first-season head varsity baseball coach, whispered out loud a short while ago that it would sure help him accept his team's performance this past spring a little easier if it wound up being the best 2A class team in the state that ended the Devils' season.

Well, almost rest easy, there, Joe.

Swannanoa Owen, which Mooresville met and lost to in the first-round of the state playoffs in mid May, actually advanced into the state 2A class final playoff series last week after winning the state's West division title. Swan Owen topped Senior High, 7-4, in that first round game and went on to make it to the state finals opposite East division champion Whiteville.

But that's where Swannanoa's season came up short, falling in two games straight to Whiteville to wind up as the state runners-up. Still, it should ease the Devils season somewhat to know that it was the state's second-best club in its class that ended its year.

Elsewhere, in baseball, all state title winners for this spring have been determined. We all know that Statesville bashed Washington for the state 3A title, winning that series in two straight. In the 4A class, just two games were also needed as Fayetteville South View, the East champion, breezed past East representative Winston-Salem Glen to take that crown. And in the 1A ranks, three games were required before St. Pauls, which lost the first game, inched past Southern Onslow for the state championship crown.

In softball, state queens there have also been determined.

Alexander Central won the first and third games of its best-of-three series with homestanding Scotland County to take the 4A title. In the 3A class, hostessing Fred T. Foard, under former Mooresville faculty member and assistant boys basketball coach Dave Shubert, ousted Greenville Conley in two straight games for the class honors. At the 2A level, Ledford needed only two games to douse South Granville and win that group's top bragging rights. And in the 1A class, Currituck wasted little time vaulting past South Davidson to win the state championship.

Determing the state titles in baseball and softball through the playing of the series last week officially brought the 1990-91 high school sports season to a close.

Correcting Errors Committed: I just knew it.

With so many end-of-the-year honors floating around last week, it was a matter of when I would commit my errors, not if. So, I goofed a couple of times. Mark them down as my first ones of the year.

In an attempt to correct the ones that were brought to my attention, here goes.

At Junior High, obsolutely without any intention did I leave out identifying Robin Donaldson in the eight-graders' sports awards picture that ran last week. Donaldson captured the coach's award for her participation in softball and was awarded for being an oustanding member of the school's girls track team. She's there, in the picture, right between two classmates who were identified. For some reason, I skipped right past her.

On to Senior High. If anything, I'm not biased. I make my goofs at all levels.

In the photo honoring those Mooresville student-athletes receiving team awards for spring sport participation, I got Jennifer Thompson's name, and her award, both right. What I missed was her sport. No, she wasn't the coach's award winner in soccer, as the caption says. Actually, it was softball. She knew that. Now, after setting the record straight, we do, too.

For both miscues, please pardon me, ladies.

Driving Through The Fairway: The N.C. Amateur gets underway later this week with two Mooresville linksmen in the prestigious field.

Steve Harwell, who finished third last year and was exempt from qualifying, will join Mike Overcash, who advanced by qualifying late last month, at Alamance Country Club in Burlington for play beginning tomorrow. Both will be looking to make the two-day cut in order to hang around for the final two rounds this weekend.

Good luck!
