

Church Will Host Kid's Crusade

Laura Memorial Church of God in Mooreville will host the "world's greatest Kid's Crusade" June 17-21.

The event will feature daily sessions from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. The "ringmaster" will be Terry Owens accompanied by Cindy Owens. Another participant will be "Frosty the Clown."

Since 1979, the Rev. Terry Owens has traveled nationally and internationally with his family-oriented ministry.

He is a Church of God minister and has served as a pastor, evangelist and Bible teacher. Owens has done numerous radio and television interviews and written articles for various publications.

He also has his own radio program for children call "The Kid's Klub."

Cindy Owens is a gospel music singer who has performed in revivals and churches throughout the United States.

Both have appeared on a Trinity Broadcasting Network television affiliate.

While the program is designed to entertain, it is not just for children. The Rev. Frank Smith, pastor of Laura Memorial, invites entire families to come and participate in the special services.

Donaldson, Ketchie Earn Recognition

Two students at South Iredell High School participated in Junior Day activities at Erskine College.

Vincent Ketchie and Kevin Donaldson, juniors at South, were recognized as Erskine Fellows and invited to take part in Junior and Erskine Fellow Day this spring at the Due West, S.C. college.

Ketchie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ketchie of Mooreville, and Donaldson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Donaldson Jr. of Troutman.

During Junior and Erskine Fellow Day, the students were honored for their achievements. They and their parents also had the opportunity to learn about Erskine's academic and student life programs and tour the campus.

Erskine Fellows participating were assured of an academic grant should they elect to attend Erskine after graduating from high school.

Sixty-five Erskine Fellows from the Carolinas and Georgia took part in the program.

Gospel Singing June 29

A special gospel singing service will be held June 29 at Houston Road Baptist Church between Mooreville and Troutman.

The gospel music program will begin at 7 p.m. at the church, which is located on Houston Road off U.S. 21 just passed the Interstate 77 bridge.

The featured performers for the program will be the Melody Makers along with the Houston Road Baptist choir.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend.

The Rev. Bobby Jones is the pastor at Houston Road Baptist Church and the Rev. Donnie Auten is the youth minister.

Nazarene Award To Be Presented

A special award presentation will be a part of the June 18 activities at First Church of the Nazarene in Mooreville.

A Distinguished Service Award from the Nazarene World Missionary Society will be awarded to a member of the community at the Sunday service.

The recipient, who has not been identified, is someone who has served the church in various ways.

The service will begin at 10:50 a.m. The church is located at 135 East Wilson Avenue.
