Workshop On Housing June 13

The N.C. Department of Economic and Community Development and the N.C. Housing Finance Agency will sponsor a Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy workshop in Statesville June 13. The workshop will be held at Mitchell Community College. It is open to the public. The workshop, which is designed to give interested persons information about housing needs in their region, will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A man in Washington asked, "Is this the headquarters for the war against poverty?" "Yes, sir," answered a secretary. "Good," he said. "I've come to surrender." That's what the Lord wants you to do - come to Him to surrender. For He said, "He who isn't with Me, is against Me." When you go against Him, you set yourself on a road that leads to dissatisfaction and despair. You become less and less the man the Lord intended you to be, more and more a slave to sin. But you were made to be free, and when you surrender to the Lord you become a master of yourself and your sins. Wouldn't you rather surrender to the Lord?

THE COMPASSIONATE FATHER

A small child runs toward the street. The child's father calls out calmly, yet firmly, "Come back into the yard."
"As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him." (Psalm 103:13)

Webster defines this "fear" as "reverential awe," indicating a feeling of "deep respect and overwhelming admiration." Though the child was not aware of the possible danger in the street, he was aware of the admiration and respect he felt for his father, since he knew that his father loved and protected him. Therefore, he obeyed. He feared his father in the most positive way.

It is this "reverential awe" which our Heavenly Father inspires in us. His children, so that we respect Him in such a positive and trusting way as to desire to obey His Word, thus living a life filled with faith, hope and the knowledge that our soul shall never die, but live eternally with Him.

As you honor your father this Sabbath, praise also your Heavenly Father. His compassion and love are everlasting.
