

St. Andrews Singers To Perform Sunday At Fair View United Methodist Church

The St. Andrews Singers of St. Andrews United Methodist Church in Charlotte will present a musical program at Fair View United Methodist Church at Mount Mourne at 6 p.m. on Sunday, April 7.

Following the concert, a covered dish supper will be served in the dining hall of the church's newly remodeled fellowship building.

Reid Memorial Youth Schedule 3-Night Revival

On April 15, 16 and 17, the youth of Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church will sponsor a three-night revival, with Dwight White as the speaker.

There will be a guest choir at each service.

Services will begin at 6:30 p.m. The church is located at 336 North Broad St. in Mooresville.

The church's pastor, the Rev. Michael Askew, joins members of the church in inviting the public to attend the services.

The singing group was formed in 1985 as a mission outreach of St. Andrews' music department.

"Sharing a common love for contemporary Christian music and a desire to share our faith through the word and song, we have developed into a family of singers," stated the organization's director, John Palmer Smith.

"More importantly, we have become a family who shares struggles and joys as we go through our daily walk with Christ," Smith continued.

In conclusion, Smith said: "Through sharing, both public and private, we all celebrate through giving and receiving through the gift of the Father."

The public is cordially invited to attend this musical program.

Missionaries Featured At Local Church

Special guests will conduct an April 5 program at the First Church of the Nazarene in Mooresville.

The Rev. and Mrs. Jon Scott will be the featured guests at the church for the program, which will be held at 7 p.m.

The Scotts are missionaries to the Azores Islands. They are furloughing in 1990-91 and will hold deputation services across the United States and Canada.

The Scotts, both graduates of Olivet Nazarene College near Chicago, have been serving as missionaries since 1974.

After serving in the Peace Corps in Brazil, the Scotts later served two terms in Portugal in the area of evangelism and church planting.

In 1988, they were transferred to the Azores, where Rev. Scott is mission director and they both work in evangelism, church planting and education by extension.

The public is invited to attend the special program at the church, which is located at 135 East Wilson Avenue.
