Iris Swiney Remains Hospitalized

Iris Yvonne Swiney, 29, of 504 Shearer's Road, Mooresville, remains hospitalized at Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte, suffering from injuries sustained in a one-vehicle wreck March 28.

The accident occurred several miles northwest of Mooresville on Bluefield Road near Cornelius Road, according to Trooper A.K. Davis of the North Carolina Highway Patrol, the investigating officer.

Swiney was operating a 1977 Pontiac north on Bluefield Road when it ran off the left side of the roadway on a curve and collided with a ditchbank.

Swiney was brought to the Lake Norman Regional Medical Center in Mooresville, but was airlifted almost immediately by helicopter to the Carolinas Medical Center.

Swiney was charged with driving while impaired.

Men and equipment of the Shepherd Fire Department and the Mooresville Rescue Squad were dispatched to the wreck scene.

Sirens Around McGuire Station Will Be Tested

Sirens located around McGuire nuclear station, located west of Cornelius, just off N.C. 73, will be tested at noon on Saturday, April 6.

No public action will be required during this three-minute test.

In an actual emergency, the sirens are a signal to residents living around the station to listen to emergency broadcast stations for information from state and county officials.

Residents with questions about the siren test or needing an Emergency Planning Information brochure may call the following number: 1-800-777-0003.

Celebrates NATIONAL WEEKEND OF "THANKS"

President George Bush has declared the weekend of April 5, 6, and 7, as National Thanksgiving Weekend to show America's appreciation to the troops who participated in Operation Desert Storm, as well as their families, and the dedicated efforts of all Veterans. To show appreciation to the troops and all Veterans, this weekend will be commemorated with special events throughout the country, and we at Lowe's encourage everyone to participate in these activities. We also would like to show our appreciation by offering these special values, to all customers, during this All-American weekend.

FREE FLAG!

The first 500 customers in each store on Sat. April 6 will receive a special brass American Flag lapel pin to commemorate this All-American Thanksgiving Weekend!
