Pre-Nuptial Events Fete Bridal Couple

Pre-nuptial courtesies held for Miss Terri-Lynne Banner and Jason Erich Poppe included a miscellaneous shower given by Donna Cox of Asheville. The shower was an event of Sunday afternoon, March 17. Miss Banner and her mother, Doris Banner, lived in Asheville many years, prior to moving to Mooresville.

Several close friends called during the afternoon courtesy and a special guest was the bride-elect's mother.

Miss Banner was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

On Monday evening, March 18, the bridal couple were entertained at a "barbecue happening" in Hickory. Hosting the event at their Hickory home were Michelle Wilson and Stacey Kavounis, both of whom were attendants in the couple's March 30 wedding.

The hostesses' gift was a gas grill and all other gifts to the couple were associated with a cookout.

The dinner consisted of barbecued chicken, cole slaw, potato salad, baked beans and key lime and chocolate pies.

Special guests were the bride-elect's mother, Doris Banner and her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. C.O. Vance.

The bride-elect chose this occasion to present gifts of earrings and pearl enhancers to her attendants and they were worn in the wedding.

Miss Murdock Entertained At Shower

Millette Murdock was honored with a bridal shower on Saturday, April 6, given by Pat Clontz and the Ted E. Bear Family - Perth Road, Mooresville.

Upon arrival, the honoree received a corsage featuring a teddy bear surrounded with eyelet.

The "Honey Hollow" home was decorated throughout with Teddy Bears in their spring attire, engaged in all sorts of activities to help with the party festivities. Other bears, playing outdoors, greeted the guests and invited them inside.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a teddy bear quilt and centered with an arrangement of fresh lavender daisies. The punch bowl was surrounded with greenery and small teddy bears. Refreshments were cheese spread with assorted crackers, cheese straws, pickles, olives, nuts, cake squares and punch.

Twenty-six guests attended the courtesy and showered the honoree with many lovely and useful gifts. The hostess gift was a basket filled with an assortment of household items and teddy bears for the couple's new home. Millette will be married to Kelly Clontz on May 18th.
