Willis-McKenzie Couple United At St. Mark's

St. Mark's Lutheran Church was the setting for the Saturday, April 6, wedding of Miss Heather McKenzie and Ronald Edwin Willis. The Reverend Johnny C. Couart officiated at the 5:00 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas G. McKenzie Jr. of Route 10, Mooresville, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug McKenzie and Mr. Harold R. Overcash, all of Mooresville. She is a graduate of Travelers Rest High School and attended Greenville Technological College at Greenville, SC. She is employed by Family Dollar Stores at Travelers Rest.

The groom, son of Jerry Willis and Shirley Johnson of Travelers Rest, SC, is a graduate of Blue Ridge High School in Taylors, SC. He is employed at the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport in Greer, SC.

The vows were pledged in a beautiful setting of palms, candelabras, and foliage interspersed with seven-branched and spiral candelabras holding lit candles. The unity candle was used during the ceremony and white satin bows with foliage marked the pews for the families and guests. In the narthos of the church, a large urn held a massive arrangement of snapdragons, gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Lisa Harris, organist and Mrs. Sheila Kissack, soloist. Prelude selections included: "Prelude in C" by Bach; "He Shall Feed His Flock," Handel; "Sheep May Safely Graze," Bach; Canon in D by Pachelbel; Arioso, Bach; To A Wild Rose, MacDowell; and "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach.

Mrs. Kissack sang "O Perfect Love by Barby and Wedding Prayer by Rice.

For the processional of the attendants, Trumpet Voluntary by Purcell was played and Bridal Chorus by Wagner was presented for the entrance of the bride. Wedding March by Mendelssohn was the recessional.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in an original gown of candlelight chintilly lace over satin which was worn by her mother and her aunt. Fashioned with a molded bodice, the gown fastened in back with tiny self-covered buttons and the sleeves were softly shirred. The yoke of illusion, giving an off-shoulder effect, was joined to the dress with lace spray appliques embroidered in seed pearls. Tiers of pleated tulle ruffles were featured on the sides of the bouffant skirt and ruffles cascaded down the back, forming the aisle-wide train. She wore long lace mitts which tapered to points over the hands. Her veil of silk illusion was softly gathered to silk flowers and extended to fingertip length. The bride carried a cascade of cattleya lilies, roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Tina Looser of Travelers Rest. Bridesmaids were Kathryn McKenzie of Mooresville, sister of the bride; Amy Hellberg, Mandy Veach, and Rhonda Brown, all of Travelers Rest and Melissa Overcash of Fort Wayne, IN, cousin of the bride.

All of the attendants were dressed identically in tea length gowns of peach taffeta with the focus on a fresh look with criss-cross back and a bow attached at the waist. The neckline was a gentle scoop while the tapered elbow length sleeves were shirred at the cuffs.

Each attendant wore a strand of pearls with matching earrings, a gift of the bride. They carried bouquets of white and peach roses, stephanotis and baby's breath, tied with white and peach satin ribbons.

The groom's best man was Hank Godfrey of Simpsonville, SC, uncle of the groom. Ushers were Bryan Dalton and Travis Lindsey, cousins of the groom; Donnie Willis, brother of the groom and all of Travelers Rest; Chad McKenzie of Mooresville, brother of the bride; and Michael Gravley of Seneca, SC.

The bride's mother wore an original street-length dress of royal blue silk chiffon over taffeta, highlighted with loose flowing chiffon panels and fashioned with a scooped neckline and long sleeves, closing with tiny covered buttons. She complimented her attire with a corsage of roses.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride couple, their parents and attendants received in the social area.

The hall was arranged with four round bridal tables covered in floor length cloths with white lace overlays, caught up with peach satin bows. Mirrored tiles reflected the beauty of the silver candelabra centerpieces.

The cake table was covered in white and overlaid with peach lace and caught up with white bows and flowers and placed in front of a white wicker screen. The three-tiered cake was iced in white cream cheese frosting with ivory trim. Divided twice with white roman columns, fresh flowers adorned the center and surrounded the base of the cake. The top tier was ornamented with a pair of love birds nestled among flowers.

Assisting with the serving of the cake were Mrs. Millie McKenzie-Hyman of Brevard and Mrs. Karen McKenzie of Apex, aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hellberg and Mrs. Joyce Stewart of Travelers Rest presided at the silver punch service which held a refreshing punch peach color.

Silver trays were laden with mixed nuts, mints in peach hearts and white doves, heart and bell shaped cheese balls with assorted crackers and ham roll-ups.

Round tables were set-up for the guests to be seated and each was covered in white linen.

After an unannounced honeymoon, the newlyweds will make their home at Travelers Rest.

Poppe-Banner Couple United At Huntersville Baptist Church

Terri-Lynne Banner of Mooresville, formerly of Asheville, and Jason Erich Poppe of Kerrville, Texas were married Saturday, March 30 in the Huntersville First Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. James Royston, pastor of the church and the Reverend C.O. Vance, grandfather of the bride. Special music was provided by Martha Addison of Boone as soloist and Eddie Haiger of Huntersville as organist. The ceremony was directed by Mrs. Darrell Wilson of Mooresville.

The bride wore a long gown of white organza and satin. It had a wedding band neckline, applied, long waist, and renaissance sleeves. The bodice, neckline and sleeves were trimmed with lace applique, seed pearls and sequins. The trumpet skirt was of five-tier organza ruffles with a cathedral train and large satin bow at the back.

Her fingertip veil of illusion, attached to a crown of pearls and accented with flowers and pearl spray, was personally designed to match the gown.

She carried an arm bouquet of white calla lilies, stephanotis, and exotic greenery caught with a satin bow having satin and pearl streamers.

The bride chose Michelle Wilson of Hickory as her maid of honor and Stacey Kavonius of Rockville, Maryland as her bridesmaid. The attendants wore matching tea-length dresses of magenta and carried arm bouquets of calla lilies with white satin bows and streamers.

Other attendants were Myra Brown of Arden at the guest register, Summer Stevens of Brevard as program attendant, and Tina Banner Casner of Boone, Donna Cox of Asheville, Lisa Dockery of Asheville, and Irene Poppe Poulin of Chaleston, S.C. serving as hostesses.

The groom chose Trey Fisher of San Antonio, Texas as best man. His groomsmen were Bill Corbett of Wrightsville Beach, Steven Oeland of Kerrville, Texas, and Kyle Wilson of Mooresville.

The focal point of the altar decorations was a split kneeling bench accented with a spray of flowers. A fifteen-candle arch was used as the background with fifteen-candle spirals, palms, and ferns framing the altar area.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Family Life Center of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. Doris Vance Banner of Mooresville and Martin Banner of Weaverville. She is the
