Nelson-Falls Wedding Vows Pledged In Clover Church

Miss Kathleen Sineath Falls of Clover, SC, and Dale Alan Nelson of Charlotte, formerly of Mooresville, were united in marriage on Saturday, March 23, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The impressive double ring ceremony took place at the Clover First Baptist Church with Dr. Edwin Lewis, pastor of Mooresville First Presbyterian Church and Reverend David J. Stanford, pastor of the Clover church, officiating.

The vows were repeated in a soft candlelight setting with mixed greenery forming the background. A large floral arrangement, placed on the baptistry, added to the beauty of the altar. Pews for the family of the bridal couple were marked with pink carnations and greenery.

Prelude music was presented by Mrs. Martha Y. Broome of Fort Mill, organist. Mrs. Judy Falls of Clover, SC, was the vocalist and she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Richard Falls of 106 Patterson Street, Clover. She attended Gaston Day School and graduated from Clover High School. She attended Lees-McRae College and graduated from Armstrong State College with a degree in dental hygiene. She is a member of the Student Dental Hygiene Association and is currently employed as a registered dental hygienist with Dr. Michael W. Davis, DMD. in Fort Mill.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Edward Nelson of 361 Wedgewood Drive, Mooresville, is a graduate of Mooresville Senior High School and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He earned a B.A. degree in mathematics. He is employed as a supervisor with United Parcel Service in Charlotte.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white bridal satin designed with a sabrina neckline and basque waist. The ornate bodice was richly embellished with re-embroidered lace, pearls and sequins featuring a cameo design. The tapered sleeves ended in calla points over the hands and were trimmed with matching lace cut-out designs.

The full skirt extended to a cathedral train highlighted with windows of lace in a pyramid design.

Her full gathered veil of imported illusion was caught to a beaded tiara.

The bride carried a cascading fresh bouquet of roses, tulips, stephanotis, gardenias and star of Bethlehem, accented with baby's breath, in complementing shades of ivory and white.

Mrs. Pam J. Pendleton of Clover, Mrs. Lisa D. Parmer of Rockingham, and Mrs. Karen B. Seawell of Nashville, TN, were matrons of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Stephanie B. Broach of Gastonia, Mrs. Terrie W. Poore of Clover and Mrs. Rachel B. Boyette of Orangeburg.

All of the attendants were dressed identically in formal gowns of cerise dupion fashioned with sabrina necklines, pouf sleeves, and straight skirts. The waistline featured a peplum and a bow in back.

They carried natural tied bouquets of pink tulips, white freesia and greenery with satin ribbon.

Honorary attendants were Lee Pendleton of North Augusta, Melody Love and Allison Troutman of Charlotte, Krista Ellis of Savannah, Christie Jones and LaTrell Stroupe of Clover, Elizabeth S. Nettles of Camden, Sandra Melton of Atlanta and DeAn White of Rock Hill.

Miss Hillary E. Stewart of Clover was a junior bridesmaid. Her long white dress was accentuated with a cerise cummerbund matching the bridesmaids' gowns and she carried a matching bouquet.

The groom's best man was his father. Groomsmen were Michael Nelson and Michael Caldwell of Charlotte, Ron Nelson of Decatur, Ga, brother of the groom; David Beaver of Salisbury; William Moore of Mooresville and Mitchell Setzer of Catawba.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Carol J. Falls wore a tea length, double breasted suit in tea rose dupion styled with a V-neckline and beaded lace collar. The straight skirt featured a matching beaded lace slit.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. Altha W. Nelson chose a powder blue two-piece dress with pleated tea length skirt. The bodice was fashioned with a jewel neckline and trimmed at the waist and sleeves with embroidered scroll work.

Both mothers added corsages of gardenias and greenery to their attire.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Bowling Green Presbyterian Church.

After a honeymoon cruise to Mexico and the Pacific, the newlyweds are making their home at 109 Knox Street, Clover, SC.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Edward Nelson of Mooresville, parents of the bridegroom, hosted an after rehearsal dinner party on March 22, at the Spring Lake Country Club in York, SC.

Women Honored At Reception For Community Service

The Mooresville Branch of the American Association of University Women hosted a reception on Thursday evening in honor of area women for their outstanding service to the community. The event was held in the Parlor of the First Presbyterian Church and upon arrival, the local AAUW President Mary Morrow greeted the guests and introduced to the State AAUW President Elizabeth Black of Hendersonville. The local branch is celebrating its 25th anniversary and the National AAUW is celebrating more than 100 years for its contributions to the advancement of women worldwide. The reception was co-chaired by Martha Barber and Alice Herring. Pictured, left to right, Cathy Critz, member of the local BPW organization; Sara Haire, Iredell County Commissioner; local AAUW Pres. Morrow; State AAUW Pres. Black; and Clara Johnson, president of the Mooresville Woman's Club. Members of other civic clubs and organizations were also in attendance. Guests were invited to the refreshment table which was appointed beautifully and laden with many delightful party foods and a refreshing punch.

Tupperware Shower For Miss Smith

Miss Terri Smith was guest of honor at a Tupperware bridal shower on Tuesday, March 12. The courtesy was held in the Fellowship Hall of Vanderburg United Methodist Church from 7 until 9 p.m. Hostess was Sherry Smith, cousin of the bride-elect, who will be a bridesmaid in the upcoming wedding. Sherry was assisted by her mother, Katy Smith.

Upon arrival, the honoree was presented a white daisy corsage by the hostesses.

Paulette Turner, local Tupperware dealer, led the guests in several enjoyable games. As each guest won a prize, the bride-elect was presented a duplicate of the same prize. After a short demonstration of the latest Tupperware items, guests were able to purchase gifts for the honoree.

The hostess gift selected to present to the bride-elect was a mini-portable vaccum cleaner.

Refreshments were then served which consisted of red velvet cake squares, cheese rosettes, mixed nuts, mints, pickles, hot spiced cider and soft drinks.

Among the fifteen guests were: Mrs. Saundra Smith, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Evelyn Smith, grandmother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Donna Rufty, sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. Bonita Wright, mother of the groom-elect and Mrs. Lillie Levan, grandmother of the groom-elect.

Miss Smith will marry David Wright on Saturday, June 15, at Vanderburg United Methodist Church.
