Couple United In Marriage At Community Foursquare Church

The Reverend James A. Tate officiated at the wedding of Sherry N. Waters and James E. Scott Jr. on Saturday, March 30, at the Community Foursquare Church of Mooresville.

The 3:00 p.m. ceremony was performed in the midst of a lovely setting of lilies and ferns on either side of the altar and burgandy and mauve flowers surrounded the unity candle which was placed on a table, draped in white linen. Pews were marked with mauve and burgandy ribbons for the family and other special guests.

Musical selections were presented by Betty Grubb, pianist/soloist. She played for the processional of the attendants Where Thou Goest and the bride entered to the traditional Wedding March. As the bride and groom lighted the unity candle, The Twelfth of Never was played.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cruse of Mooresville and the late Ira G. Nichols. The groom's parents are Mrs. Mary Barnette of Myrtle Beach, SC and James E. Scott of Charlotte.

Escorted and given in marriage by her stepfather, Alvin Cruse, the bride was lovely in a formal gown of candlelight taffeta overlaid with crystal organza. Fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, short pouffed sleeves, and basque waist, the gown featured a cathedral length train, edged with matching satin ribbon. Schiffli lace cutouts on the sleeves and bodice completed the style of the gown.

Her fingertip veil and pouff of delicate illusion was attached to a medium brimmed hat of candlelight satin. Pink and lavender rosettes enhanced the sides of the hat.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of ivory, mauve and burgandy mixed flowers with matching ribbon streamers.

Matron of honor was Diane Fesperman, sister of the bride. She wore a tea length suit in mauve color. The jacket was chantilly lace with pearl buttons and complimented the deep v-neckline, long pouffed sleeves and a dropped waistline. The full taffeta skirt was overlaid with matching crepe.

Little Miss Candice Fesperman, niece of the bride, was a flower girl. She wore a tea length dress of burgandy velvet with oversized collar trimmed in ivory lace.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Billy Clampitt and Steve Keller. The groom wore an ivory tuxedo with tails and a mauve cummberund and bowtie. His boutonniere was a dark mauve single rosebud with baby's breath. The best man and ushers wore black jacket styled tuxedos with mauve bowties and cummerbunds. The bride's stepfather wore a grey pin-striped suit. Their boutonnieres were pink rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a cameo pink two-piece belted suit while the groom's mother chose a peach chiffon dress with full length sheer jacket. They complemented their attire with corsages of white rosebuds.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES E. SCOTT JR.

Grandparents, Mrs. Grace Holman and Mrs. Carrie Wood of Todd and Mr. Ray Elder of North Wilkesboro, along with other relatives of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grubb and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Elder of Todd; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marfell of Peoria, Il., Torry Scott, Diane Alson and other guests from Charlotte, and Trey, Michelle, Holly and Tara Barnette of Myrtle Beach, SC, were in attendance. Grandparents were remembered with floral corsages and boutonniere.

Presiding at the guest register and presenting programs was Mrs. Abbie McNeill, aunt of the bride. Photographs were taken by Mr. Ansel Smith.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church Fellowship Hall where flowers matching those in the wedding and other greenery was used at vantage points. All of the decorations and bouquets, corsages and boutonnieres were made by Betty Shumaker. The reception was directed by Mrs. Peggy Crump, aunt of the bride.

The three-tiered ivory cake with mauve and burgandy decorations was the focal point of the reception. Served with the cake were vegetables with dip, a tray of fresh fruits, cheese ball shaped like a wedding bell and served with crackers, mints, and nuts. The foods were made by Mrs. Barbara Harris. A delicious punch completed the reception foods.

Assisting with the serving were Darlene Reid, Teresa Bennett, sister of the bride and Stephanie Baker.

All those helping with the reception were remembered with floral corsages.

After honeymooning in The Bahamas, the newlyweds are residing in Mooresville. Prior to leaving for their honeymoon, the bride and groom took a ride around the Mooresville Drag Strip in Steve Keller's 1971 Supei Rod Vega and the marriage was announced over the PA system. March 30 was the opening day for the drag strip's 1991 season.

A 1983 graduate of South Iredell High School, the bride is employed at Draymore MFG. Corp.

The groom attended Mooresville City Schools. He has served four years in the U.S. Air Force and is currently in the North Carolina Air National Guard at Charlotte.

Relative Of Area Residents Weds Miss Ferron In Statesville

The Reverend Erman F. Bradley and Father Paul Gary officiated at the Saturday, April 6 wedding of Miss Katherine Elizabeth Ferron and William Howard Talbert, at the Monticello United Methodist Church of Statesville. The ceremony took place at 7:30 p.m.

Wedding musicians were Mrs. Diana Fox, organist and Mrs. Patsy Gregory, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Ferron of 1905 Meadowview Drive, Statesville. She is a graduate of Coshocton High School in Ohio and attended Bowling Green State University. She is employed at Roederstein in Statesville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton E. Howard Route 17, Statesville and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Howard I. Beatty. He has a number of relatives in the Mooresville area. A graduate of West Iredell High School and Pfeiffer College at Misenheimer, the groom is employed at Interstate Bolt and Supply in Statesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Ferron greeted the guests and Miss Leah Levan and Miss Lindsey Levan presented the wedding programs.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a formal gown of silk chantilly lace designed with a V-neckline with venise lace medallions, outlined with sequins and pearls. The full, puffed sleeves were accented with small ruffles at the shoulders. The basque waist enhanced the full skirt and its chapel train.

MRS. WILLIAM HOWARD TALBERT

Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a halo of silk flowers and pearls.

The bride carried an alluring bouquet of all yellow roses with english ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Maureen Price, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Colleen Haustman of Illinois, sister of the bride; Miss Kimberly Stikeleather of Statesville and Mrs. Kandance Stoker of New Jersey.

All of the attendants were dressed identically in seafoam green tea length gowns fashioned with bodices of scalloped lace over satin and capped and scalloped sleeves. A satin sash and bow encircled the waistlines of the gowns.

Little Miss Lauren Levan, niece of the bride, was a flower girl.

The groom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Dr. Don Brady of Roanoke, VA; Terry Galliher and David Swann, both of Statesville.

The bride's mother wore a beige chiffon dress with embroidered bodice while the groom's mother chose an aqua georgette dress with dropped waist. Both of the mothers complimented their attire with corsages of yellow roses.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Sharon Ferron.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Statesville Elks Lodge.

After honeymooning at Orlando, FL, the newlyweds are making their home at Island Ford Road, Statesville.
