...aduate of Mooresville ...High School, Sims attends ...versity of North Carolina ...tte where she is a mem... ...e Chi Omega sorority. She is pursing a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration.

During her high school years, she was a Junior Marshal, Junior Rotarian, Scholar All American, ranked 10th in a class of 150, and was Prom Queen.

At UNC-C, she is a graduate of the Emerging Leaders program, a Student Council justice and a member of the Gold Duster dance team.

She is a former Miss UNCC '49'er and former Miss Iredell County. She was also a contestant in the 1988 Miss Statesville-Dogwood Queen Pageant.

First runner-up was Jennifer Lynn Russell of Mt. Ulla and Stacy Michelle Coyle of Statesville was second runner-up. Receiving the Miss Congeniality award was Janet Louise Helderman of Mocksville.

Las Amigas Pageant Saturday

The 11th annual Little Miss Las Amigas Pageant will be held at South Elementary School on Saturday, April 20, at 7:00 p.m. The pageant is sponsored by the Mooresville Las Amigas Chapter and it is one of their most popular and entertaining projects. The public is invited to attend and support their favorite contestant.

Among the contestants will be Delisse Shanay Glaspy, 8-year-old daughter of Donna Glaspy. Delisse is in the third grade at Wayside Elementary School where she is an "A" student. A member of Antioch Baptist Church, she serves on the Junior Usher Board, member of the Junior Choir and a member of the Antioch Spiritual Singers. She was third runner-up in the 1990 Little Miss Ebony pageant and her hobbies are playing the piano, cooking and singing.

This year's pageant will salute the troops serving in the Gulf and a special dance routine "All American Girl" will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Karen Brown Sherrill from the Academy of Dance Arts.

The talents of some of the contestants will also be presented, along with special talents from the community which will include Tylan Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.T. Cross. He will do a medley of piano selections. Tylan is a piano student of Mrs. Connie Burns.

The well-planned evening promises to be delightful and very entertaining and the public is invited to attend and join in the fun.

Newcomers Add Four New Members

The Mooresville Newcomers Club held a dinner meeting on Tuesday, April 9, at the Main Street Cafe.

Members and guests were welcomed by President Jodie Barber. The blessing was given by Teresa McVea.

Donald Breedlove of the Iredell Agricultural Extension Service presented a program on gardening. He was assisted by Donald Harmon, a member of the Master Garden program.

New members in attendance were Susan Shepperd of Chesapeake, VA; Marilyn Fox of Lakeland, FL; Linda Barr of Anderson, SC and Patti Bruce of Weddington. Jeannie Faulconer also was present as a prospective member.

Door prize winners were Grace Hall, Jan Brothers and Yvonne Speth.

MRS. LORENE MOON

Surprise 80th Birthday Celebration Held April 7

A surprise 80th birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Lorene Moon on Sunday, April 7, at 4:45 p.m. at the Western Steer Restaurant on North Cannon Boulevard in Kannapolis. Hosting the party were the honoree's daughter and son-in-law, Betty and Carol Coone of Mooresville and their spouses, Debbie (Coone) and Bruce Kolkebeck of Salisbury and Crystal (Coone) and Paul Dickerson of Greenville, SC. Mrs. Moon also has a son, Billy J. Moon of Chesapeake, Va., along with seven grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Invitations had been issued by the host couple and one hundred and eight relatives and friends gathered in the restaurant's party room to join in the surprise celebration. The invitation also asked that guests bring no gifts but bring their fondest or funniest memory to share during the event.

The dining tables were set with pink placemats and party favors were at each setting. Two banners "Happy Birthday Lorene" and "Lorene is 80" along with balloons decorated the wall just behind the honoree's place.

The dinner was dutch and after enjoying the meal, the two-tiered birthday cake, decorated in a soft pink and darker pink roses topped with the numerals "80" was served. The cake was made by Barbara Harris of Mooresville. The cake table was arranged with a small vase of purple iris with baby's breath.

Other bouquets of iris were placed at vantage points on the tables.

As the guests arrived, they were invited to register and receive a name tag. The table holding the register book and tags was decorated with a gorgeous basket arrangement of purple iris and baby's breath.

The pretty honoree was presented a corsage of a white orchid with purple throat and pink ribbons to compliment her attire.

During the celebration, many of those in attendance told their favorite memory or funniest story about Lorene and this was great fun for everyone.

A very special lady and loved by many, Mrs. Moon is a resident of Mooresville. She is an active member of the China Grove First Baptist Church and drives herself there every Sunday morning and during the summer months, she also attends the Sunday and Wednesday evening services.(She just likes to be at home before dark). She is a nursery worker for Sunday School and many Sundays she remains in the nursery for the worship hour.

Her favorite hobbies include: working in the yard — by the way she still mows her grass and takes care of her shrubs and flowers — she's an excellent cook, does handwork which includes making beautiful pillows and she gardens.

Guests attending the event were from Mooresville, Salisbury, China Grove, Kannapolis, Winston-Salem, South Carolina, Virginia, Missouri and Georgia. Among the guests were 26 nieces and nephews from Georgia and a grandson and his family from Missouri.

Miss Hare Entertained

Miss Tracy Hare, April bride-elect of Troy Gagliardo, was guest of honor at a lingerie shower on Saturday, April 6. Hosting the courtesy were Mrs. Kay Allen and her daughter, Miss Kimberly Allen, at their home on Briarwood Drive. Kimberly will be a bridesmaid in the upcoming wedding.

After the guests had assembled and the honoree opened her many lovely gifts, guests were invited to the refreshment table, which was covered in a white cutwork cloth and centered with a pretty bouquet of spring flowers, flanked on either side by silver candleholders with pink tapers.

Refreshments of cake squares decorated with pink rosebuds, pink and white homemade mints, nuts and a refreshing pink punch were served.

The hostesses added to the array of lingerie, a matching gown and robe.

Special guests were mothers of the bridal couple, Mrs. Phyllis Hare and Mrs. Carol Ludlam, along with the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Louise Hare of Mocksville.

Hare-Gagliardo wedding vows will be pledged on April 27, at the First Baptist Church of Mooresville.

New Officers For Kappa Kappa Iota

Mu Conclave of Kappa Kappa Iota met Tuesday , April 9, at 4:00 p.m. in the Year-Round School Office. President Della Kinney conducted the meeting. She also gave the inspirational thoughts. Minutes were read and roll called by Bonnie Blanton, secretary.

The nominating committee presented the slate of officers for the 1991-92 year. They are as follows: Ethel Stewart, president; Bonnie Blanton, vice president; Donna Mayes, secretary and Joan Newton, treasurer.

During the business session, the group decided to give money to the Kempe National Center. Members were encouraged to attend the state Kappa Kappa Iota convention on May 4, in Kings Mountain. Pres. Kinney will be installed as the new state president at that time.

Members donated paper products for the Fifth Street Shelter Ministries. Annual dues were collected and a White Elephant Sale was held with Gaynelle Keeling as the auctioneer. Proceeds from the sale will be used for the scholarship fund.

Plans were made for the final sorority meeting on Saturday, May 18. Members will be notified of the location of this meeting.
