

Iredell 4-H'ers Receive Top Honors For Projects

Seven Iredell County 4-H'ers were recently named district winners for their 4-H projects.

There were selected and honored during competition with 4-H'ers from across the 12-county Southwestern District.

The winners and their projects: Brooke Cornelius, the daughter of Marsha and Preston Cornelius of Mooresville: senior beef.

Eric Harrison, the son of James and Jean Harrison of Mooresville: senior electric.

Heather Harrison, the daughter of James and Jean Harrison of Mooresville, junior electric.

Kenya Templeton, the daughter of Robert Templeton of Mooresville and Carolyn Templeton of Statesville: senior recreation and leisure education.

Elizabeth Bustle, the daughter of Jerry and Mary Bustle of Statesville: junior gardening.

Jennie Patterson, the daughter of Robert and Jane Patterson of Statesville: junior home environment.

Patric Patterson, the son of Robert and Jane Patterson of Statesville: senior entomology.

These 4-H'ers were selected on the basis of their 4-H cumulative records, which summarize their 4-H experiences. They will also compete for State honors in their respective projects.

Activities of the 4-H program are open to all young people between the ages of six and 19. For more information about the 4-H program, contact the 4-H office at 873-0507 or 663-1616.

Local Students Receive Special Catawba Honors

Two area students were among the special award recipients during ceremonies held recently at Catawba College.

Cindy Elaine Warren of Mooresville and Jason Robert Connelly of Mt. Ulla were among the 12 outstanding students recognized for accomplishments during the college's annual Awards Convocation held April 11.

Warren, the daughter of Larry and Patricia Warren of Mooresville, received the chemistry award. The award is presented to the student who best represents qualities of high character, overall scholarship and excellence in chemistry course work.

Connelly, the son of Robert and Betty Connelly of Mt. Ulla, won the Braun Award and the Jack Kelly Award. The Braun Award is presented to the student showing the most outstanding work in the field of physics. The Jack Kelly Award is given to the rising junior or senior in biology, chemistry or physics who has best upheld the high standards of scholarship and character exemplified by the late Jack Kelly, who was president of the Student Government Association in 1951-52.

SBC Honors For Local Students

Three local women have earned academic recognition at Salisbury Business College.

Sandra Hobbs, Gabrielle Moore and Jamie Sloop were named to the college's dean's list for the winter quarter of this year.

Hobbs earned a 4.0 grade point average in the junior accounting curriculum, Moore maintained a 4.0 average in the medical secretarial field and Sloop earned a 3.73 average in word processing.

Each quarter, those students who maintain a quality point average of 3.0, have no grade below a "C" and carry at least nine credit hours of coursework are eligible for the SBC honors.

Goofy Girls Featured At Vanderburg

The "Goofy Girls" will provide some unique entertainment tonight at Vanderburg United Methodist Church on N.C. 115 north of Mooresville.

The group will be featured in a program that will begin at 7 p.m. The program will follow a 6 p.m. supper served at the church.

The Girls have entertained at conventions, retirement parties, church group meetings, senior citizen square dances, retirement homes, town festivals and other special events where having a good time is a requirement.

They have also been featured on WBTV's "Top 'O The Day" program and on "Carolina Camera."

The group performs on a variety of instruments including the piano, mandolin, guitar, tamborine and a unique "washboard contraption."

Another feature of the group is a 75-year-old contortionist who can rub her nose with her toes and twist and turn into shapes most other folks, including those much younger, can't imagine.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program at Vanderburg.

Apply Now For Ginger Cascades Summer Program
