Fero-Leatherman Couple United At Cleveland Baptist

Cleveland Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Kelly Renae Leatherman and Robert Edward Fero Jr. on Saturday, April 27, at 3:00 p.m. The Reverend Arnold Bell officiated the impressive ceremony in the midst of altar appointments of two spiral candelabras and the unity candelabra. Four grapevine baskets were filled with silk purple iris, Williamburg blue gladioli, mauve and rose colored tiger lilies, white star flowers and baby's breath. Two heart shaped baskets were also arranged with identical flowers. Special pews were marked with white bridal bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gibson of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Larry L. Leatherman of Iron Station. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Fero of Cleveland.

Wedding music was provided by Gail Moore of Cleveland. Prelude selections were mostly sacred favorites of the bridal couple and included: Love Divine, All Loves Excelling, Wesley; Majesty, Hayford; Wedding Song, Unknown; Annie's Song, Denver; Amazing Grace, arr. by Turner and several other favorites.

After the processional of the attendants, the bride entered to the traditional Bridal Chorus by Wagner.

Special solos were presented by uncles of the bride — Charlie Leatherman sang How Great Thou Art and Bruce Leatherman presented The Lord's Prayer.

The recessional was Wedding March by Mendelssohn and How Majestic Is Your Name, Smith.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Larry Leatherman, was radiant in a formal gown of white bridal satin and chantilly lace fashioned with a natural waistline, lace cap sleeves plunging to a V in front and back and a round neckline of smaller fine lace. The front and back of the dress was lace and closed in back with pearl buttons and a large bow at the waist.

Her full length veil of illusion was attached to a circle of braided pearls and satin cording with a small pouf in the back. Floral and pearl accents were on each side of the headpiece.

Her only ornaments were pearl earrings borrowed from her stepmother, Mrs. Leatherman.

She carried an all-silk cascade of white roses with touches of accents of lavender and white pearls, surrounded by white lillies with mauve tiger lilies in the center. White, mauve, blue and lavender satin streamers added to the cascade effect.

Maid of honor was Teena Leatherman.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jeanette Nelson, Deanna Gulledge, Irene Gulledge, Jackie Leatherman and Kimberly Leatherman.

All of the attendants were dressed identically in Williamsburg blue cotton floral print of ivory, rose, mauve and lavender on a blue background and styled with puffed sleeves, round neckline and natural waistline. Each wore a single strand of pearls to compliment their dresses. They carried a grapevine basket with an array of lavender, mauve and blue silk flowers with matching mauve, lavender, blue and cream satin ribbon streamers

Cecilia Vincent was the flower girl. She was dressed like the adult attendants and carried a grapevine basket with floral petals.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Mr. Brian Fero, brother of the groom; Mr. Billy Gibson, brother of the bride; Mr. Curtis Ribelin, Mr. Scott Brown and Mr. Tim White.

Joshua Isley was the ring bearer. He wore a grey suit with a blue and pink pinstripe.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Gibson wore an emerald green jacquard silk dress with V-neckline, white lace collar and three-quarter length sleeves. The draped waistline accented the pleated skirt. She complimented her attire with emerald and gold earrings and an emerald and rhinestone necklace.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Fero selected a light pink linen suit in street length. The round neckline featured a white collar trimmed in lace. The bodice closed with gold-white trimmed buttons down the front and three-quarter length sleeves.

Grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Rex J. Tolbert of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie F. Leatherman Sr. of Bethlehem and her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Z. Leatherman of Hickory, along with the groom's grandmothers, Mrs. Connie W. Hodge of Cleveland and Mrs. Lillian Fero of Harrisburg, were special guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Isley of Cleveland presided at the guest register and bulletins were presented by Misses Jessica and Nicole Nelson and Lindsey Daniel Isley.

During the ceremony, scripture was read by Mr. Clay Tolbert and Rev. Kenneth Hyde.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church Fellowship Hall and hosted by the parents of the bride.

Bridal tables were arranged with the wedding colors and the focal point was the wedding cake decorated on the top with doves, daisies and small blue apple blossoms.

Served with the cake were jello jigglers, pickles, nuts, mints and blue chocolate hearts, chips and french and jalepeno dips, party mix and cheese wafers. Strawberry punch completed the foods.

The bride and groom cut the first slice of wedding cake with a knife given to the bride by her stepmother.

Tables were covered in blue cloths and decorated with small oval baskets adorned with silk flowers in mauve, blue and white. Each basket held a globe and candle. Other appointments in the hall included a bride and groom bear set made by Debbie Isley and a bride bear given to the bride by her grandmother, Mrs. Eva Claywell of Mooresville.

After greeting their guests and throwing the bouquet and garter, the bride and groom left the reception in a horse and buggy driven by Mr. Frank Bumgarner of Cleveland.

The couple honeymooned in the mountains of North Carolina. Upon their return they will reside in their new home on Cool Springs Road, Cleveland.

The bride and groom met at church and they have been active in the same church all their lives.

The bride is a 1988 graduate of South Iredell High School and also a graduate of Career Beauty College of Statesville. She is employed at Country Hair Salon in Cleveland.

The groom is a 1986 graduate of West Rowan High School and is employed at OTC Construction Co. of Cleveland. He is a member of the Lions Club.

A rehearsal dinner was held on Friday night in the church Fellowship Hall. The cookout was hosted by the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fero.

RANDALL PHARR AND JUNE NELSON

Couple's June Wedding To Take Place At Southside

Jack and Judy Nelson of Route 9, Mooresville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss June Carol Nelson and Randall Gray Pharr, son of Alfred and Matilyn Pharr of Route 7, Troutman.

The wedding is planned for Thursday, June 13, at 7:00 p.m. at the Southside Baptist Church of Mooresville.

The groom-elect, who has been in the U.S. Navy for 10 years, is presently stationed at the Pensacola Naval Air Station in FLorida. He is in charge of supply and logistics for the Blue Angels Naval Flight Demonstration Squadron and holds the rank of first class petty officer.

Old Fashion Carnival At Wal-Mart To Benefit Children

On Saturday, May 4, from 3:00 until 7:00 p.m. an old-fashion Family Carnival to benefit the Children's Miracle Network will be held in the parking lot of Wal-Mart, Mooresville's Marketplace.

The money from the project will be used by the Children's Miracle Network to purchase equipment for Carolina's Medical Center and to be used by any child who needs it. A portion of the money will also remain in the Mooresville area. For instance, the Mooresville Fire Department was the recipient of $500 to aid in its smoke detector and fire safety awareness programs.

The carnival will feature games for all ages, a live band, dancers, clowns, raffles and lots of food (hot dogs, fries and Pepsi Colas).

The is the second year for the "Miracle Carnival", the first being rained out after only 45 minutes. The sponsors were still able to raise around $1,500 for the children.

For more information, or if anyone is interested in participating such as a church or civic group, contact Ann Brewer or Donna Wolfe at Wal-Mart, Mooresville, 664-5238.

Thompson Winner Of Third Womanless Beauty Pageant

The annual 1991 Womanless Beauty Pageant, sponsored for the third year by Mooresville Wal-Mart Store, was held Saturday night at the high school auditorium. The event is in conjunction with the Children's Miracle Network Telethon.

Five contestants competed for the honor and they were Dennis Thompson of Statesville, winner; Mykl Wike of Statesville, first runner-up; Sidney St. James of Statesville, placed second; Whitney Montgomery of Statesville came in third and Mooresville's Wayne Smith was fourth runner-up. Entertainment was provided by the 1990 Miss Lovely Roger Rumple and special entertainment by Hillary White, former Ideal Girl Queen. Visiting queens were Miss Mooresville Stephanie Kistler, 1991 Mooresville Princess Amy Fish and N.C. Little Miss Ideal Girl Shantell Jordan.

The opening number of the pageant was presented by the Senior Troupe of Academy of Dance Arts, under the direction of Karen B. Sherrill. The production staff was made up of Director Ann Brewer; Master of Ceremonies Scott Vaughn; backstage assistants Donna Patterson, Donna Wolf, Brenda Isom and Chad Bowles; music, Jimmy Brewer; lights, Chad Bowles; video, Glenn and Kathi Shuler. All proceeds will be used to help purchase equipment for children at the Carolina's Medical Center in Charlotte.

Keenagers Tour Mint Museum

The Keenagers (older adults) of Rocky Mount United Methodist Church met at noon on Wednesday, April 24 at The Mayflower Restaurant.

Rev. T. Dale Holcombe asked the blessing and the group enjoyed a delicious buffet luncheon.

Other members in attendance were Louise Holcombe, Lynette Cooper, Bill and Alice Younts, Patty Broderick, Mae Clontz, Muriel Fulford and Sue Sherrill. Irene Page of Bath was a visitor and the guest of Mae Clontz.

A tour of the Mint Museum of Art in Charlotte was enjoyed during the afternoon by Patty, Mae, Muriel, Irene and Sue.

Following a person-to-person tour conducted by Docent/Guide Lottie Calhoun, the ladies enjoyed a special afternoon tea in the Delhom Gallery, conducted by the Delhom Service League.

The Mint was originally built in 1836 in uptown Charlotte as the first branch of the United States Mint. It produced $5 million in gold coins prior to the outbreak of the Civil War. Later it was used as a Confederate Headquarters, as a hospital and as an assay office. Moved in 1933 to its present site, the Mint opened in 1936 as the first art museum in North Carolina.

The Mint Museum of Art has grown with Charlotte to become the leading cultural institution in the region.

The next meeting of the Keenagers will be Wednesday, May 29 for lunch and a tour of the Raptor Center/Latta Plantation.

Bridesmaids' Brunch For Miss Hare

A bridesmaids' brunch was held on Saturday, April 27, at the Holiday Inn in Cornelius by Miss Tracy Hare in honor of her maid of honor, Nita McClamrock and bridesmaids Kimberly Allen, Vicky Connelly, Carol Beth Koontz, Angela McConnell and Jennifer Stewart.

Miss Hare is the April 27 bride-elect of Troy Gagliardo.

After the attendants gathered in the dining room, Miss Hare presented each with a long stemmed pink rose and a pewter jewelry box which held black onyx and rhinestone earrings to be worn in the wedding.

The honoree and her guests enjoyed a delicious salad plate of croissants filled with chicken salad and garnished with fresh fruits, potato salad, dessert and beverage.

UDC Chapter Meeting Set

The Battle of Bentonville Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet on Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. at the Western Steer Restaurant.

This is a very important planning meeting and all members are encouraged to attend.
