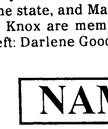
Mayor Proclaims Nurses Week in Mooresville

Mooresville has joined state and federal governments in designating a time to focus public attention on the vital contributions of nurses. Mayor Joe Knox signs a proclamation establishing May 6-12 as Nurses Week. This same period has the same designation throughout the state, and May 6 is National Recognition Day for Nurses by congressional decree. With Knox are members of the Lake Norman Regional Medical Center nursing staff. From left: Darlene Goodman, Director of Nursing Peggy Hicks, Ann Pascal and Irene Caldwell.

NAMES IN THE NEWS

A Mooresville native and resident has been named branch manager of the Davidson office of First Union National Bank of North Carolina.

David L. Christenbury has assumed the Davidson post. Christenbury, a First Union vice president, has 15 years of experience with the bank and recently served as consumer sales manager for Cabarrus County. Last year he was named First Union's number one consumer credit sales manager in North Carolina. He has also served as operations and loan/marketing officer.



CHRISTENBURY

Christenbury attended the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is secretary/treasurer of the Noon Exchange Club of Concord and served on the board of governors of Mallard Head Country Club. This month, he will graduate from the Cabarrus County Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Cabarrus program.

FUNB, a principal subsidiary of Charlotte-based First Union Corporation, has 273 banking offices in more than 140 communities throughout the state.

The daughter of a Mooresville woman has joined a public relations firm in Texas.

Katherine Idol Howe, the daughter of Anne S. Idol of Mooresville and the late W. Chase Idol Jr., is a new assistant account executive at Tracy-Locke/Pharr Public Relations in Dallas. She works on media relations for Haggar Apparel Company and on special projects.

Prior to joining the firm, Howe was the area director in charge of media relations and special events for the Tarrant County office of the National Kidney Foundation of Texas. She has lived in Arlington, Texas for 15 years.

Howe holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Greg Ross has been named assistant golf professional at The Peninsula Club, according to Mack Briggs, the club's director of golf.

Ross will assist in the operation of the pro shop and the organization of golf tournaments held at the club. In addition, he will conduct golf clinics and private lessons for Peninsula members and will be involved in handicapping and golf club repair.

Prior to joining The Peninsula, Ross served as the assistant golf professional at Pine Lakes International Country Club in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Ross, a native of Denver, graduated from UNC-Charlotte in 1988 with a bachelor of arts degree in business administration.

"I am excited about working with the members of the Club and the staff at The Peninsula," Ross said. "The course is absolutely beautiful and the views of Lake Norman are magnificent."

The Peninsula on Lake Norman, on Jetton Road off N.C. 73, features an 18-hole championship golf course designed by Rees Jones. The course has been open for membership play since November of last year.

The Bank of Iredell has reported first quarter earnings of $97,711, up 28.8 percent over earnings from the first quarter of 1990. Net income per share for the quarter was 13 cents compared to 10 cents for 1990.

Total assets of the band ended the quarter at $61,029,800, up 13.3 percent from a year earlier. Total deposits of $55,319,100 were up 14.3 percent from the total on March 31 of last year. Totals loans were up 6.8 percent from last year.

The Bank of Iredell was established in 1983 and operates offices in Mooresville, Troutman, Lake Norman, Statesville and Cleveland.

Carolina First BancShares, Inc., has reported consolidated net income for the quarter ended March 31 of $167,831, or 20 cents per share, as compared to $257,912, or 32 cents per share, for the same period one year ago.

Company officials said the earnings decline reflects a larger addition to the loan loss reserve and a timing variance in premium income in the company's insurance subsidiary.

On March 31, the company has consolidated assets of $146.6 million, a 10.6 percent increase over March 31, 1990. Deposits increased 11.1 percent to $132.5 million.

Gross loans increased from $94.3 million last year to $95.2 million on March 31 of this year.

Carolina First BancShares, Inc. is the parent company of Lincoln Bank of North Carolina.

Public Service Company of North Carolina, Inc., a natural gas utility, has reported operating results for the quarter ended March 31. The results reflect the effect of weather that was 10 percent warmer than normal.

Operating revenues for the quarter were $82,962,000 compared to $82,735,000 of the same quarter last year. Cost of gas decreased four percent, or $1,747,000, compared to the same quarter last year. This resulted in gross margin of $38,197,000 for the quarter, a five percent increase compared to the second quarter last year.

Quarterly earnings per average common share, based on 9,941,000 average common shares outstanding, were $1.17 compared to $1.16 a year ago, which 9,656,000 average common shares were outstanding.

Public Service Company distributes natural gas to more than 236,000 customers in 87 cities, towns and communities in a 28-county area that includes Mooresville.
