Miss Edwards Entertained At Shower

Miss Lisa Edwards, May 12 bride-elect of Steven Coggins, was entertained at a bridal shower on April 28, at the home of Mrs. Gail Brotherton on Bailey Road. Hosting the courtesy were Mrs. Sue Brackett and Mrs. Gail Brotherton, sisters of the groom-elect and Ms. Diane Carver, cousin of the future groom.

Upon arrival, Miss Edwards, lovely in a red suit with matching accessories, found her place marked with a wicker rocking chair adorned with a bouquet of wedding balloons.

The dining room table was covered in a lace cloth and arranged with a centerpiece of a teddy bear dressed in a wedding gown. At the conclusion of the event, the centerpiece was given to the honoree as a gift from Mrs. Sue Brackett.

Guests were invited to enjoy a delightful variety of finger foods, along with cake squares and punch.

Miss Edwards was showered with many household and pantry items for her future new home from the 15 guests in attendance. Invited guests unable to attend sent gifts.

Special guests were Mrs. Virginia Edwards and Mrs. Betty Coggins, mothers of the engaged couple.

DKG Chapter Reviews Its Beginnings

Hosted by the Statesville members, the Alpha Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met on Saturday, May 11, at the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church. President Wyenne Duncan presided. After the invocation by Helen Heafner, the members enjoyed delicious brunch.

President Duncan introduced Betty Glenn, a regional director, who encouraged active support for the society. After the secretary and treasurer's reports, President Duncan narrated a slide program about Dr. Annie Webb Blanton's founding the society for outstanding women educators in Austin, TX. She stated that since its beginning on May 11, 1929, the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International has become the largest honorary educational organization in the world.

Appropriately on "Founder's Day" eight new members were accepted into the Alpha Xi Chapter. The following were initiated and welcomed: Alice C. Absher, Brenda K. Dull, Millie K. Foster, Barbara L. Hayes, and Betty C. Lovette. In addition, Dr. Joyce Sloop, Cathy Hyatt and Olivia Riddle will be formally initiated on a future date.

The next meeting of the Chapter will be September 8 of this year.

Mother-Daughter Scholars

Janet Smith, left, and her daughter, Amy Peterson, are continuing parallel-track pursuits of higher education. Smith completed work last August for a master's degree at the University of North Carolina-Charlotte, posting a perfect 4.0 grade average. At the same time, Peterson completed credits for a bachelor's at UNCC. Smith taught English at Winthrop College in Rock Hill, S.C. during the just-ended school year, while Peterson worked toward a master's at the University of Colorado at Boulder. Both took part in the May 11 UNCC commencement. Both plan to earn doctorates. The Smith family lived here until moving to Huntersville late last year, and Peterson attended Senior High.

Business activity in North Carolina was stable in the first quarter of 1991, according to the First Wachovia North Carolina Business index.

The index had declined significantly in the previous two quarters. Over the past year, the index has risen 0.6 percent.

The index measures the state's economic activity quarterly. Using 1976 as a base of 100, it reflects indicators of the state's economy.

Grand Opening Celebratation Held At Barron's

Mooresville Mayor Joe Knox performs the ceremonial duties at the ribbon-cutting celebration at Barron's Factory Showroom. The furniture showroom, located in the Mooresville Festival shopping center, features an assortment of furniture styles and brandnames as well as specialty and hard-to-find furniture items. Robert Levenson Jr., the company's president, and his wife, Patricia Levenson, the firm's merchandise manager, join in the ceremonies with town, county and Mooresville-South Iredell Chamber of Commerce officials as well as store employees and family members. Barron's Factory Showroom is open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Sunday, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. The store's telephone numbers are 664-8014 and 664-8015. Store employees at the ribbon-cutting included Chris Reid, Missy Propst and Jean Swan. The Levensons' sons, Benjamin and Isaac, also participated.

Miss Sink Honored

On Saturday, May 4, Linda Sink, June 22 bride-elect, was honored at a lovely courtesy at the home of Mrs. J.M. Morrow Jr. on South Magnolia Street. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Jim Mack Morrow and Mrs. Lloyd Baucom.

The bride-elect, accompanied by her mother Mrs. Joe G. Sink Jr. and her grandmother Mrs. Joe G. Sink, received a corsage of daisies from her hostesses to compliment her pink and green sundress. They also presented her a gift of silverware in her informal pattern.

The home was lovely throughout with bouquets of iris being used at vantage points. The dining table was covered in white linen and arranged with silver appointments. A centerpiece of mock orange and iris blossoms in a crystal compote graced the table.

A variety of bridal dainties were served with scuppernong punch to the thirty guests who called during the hours of 2:00 until 3:30 p.m.

Ms. Sink and Alexander Sands Smith of Winston Salem will be united in marriage on Saturday, June 22, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church of Mooresville.
