Mooresville's Moors had a ball during the opening weekend of the Mocksville League Fall Baseball League. The Moors would never lose, holding on for an 8-7 triumph. In the second, and boosted by that first-game win, the Moors saved by not allowing a hit or run and striking out three. Adams finished with two hits and four runs batted in, up an run and two hits. Ballard, who drove three runs, joined Josh and Ronald Crum with

Steve Park is down. Whether or not he's out remains to be seen. Park, one of the three drivers who crashed, suffered a concussion and bruised his collarbone in an accident during the Busch Grand National South race at the track. The 26-year-old driver from Kansas City, Mo., was seen in the back of an ambulance being taken to a hospital. The race was stopped for 15 minutes while the ambulance was taken to the hospital. The race resumed with 10 laps to go. The race was won by Larry Foyt, who was accelerating to move up the head of the line of lapped cars.
