

Credit Women Plan Two Day Board Meeting In Kinston

About two hundred members of the North Carolina State Association of Credit Women's Breakfast Clubs and sponsors from twenty three clubs through the State are expected to attend the annual fall board meeting at the Hotel Kinston, Kinston, on November 16 and 17. The Kinston Club will be hostess for the meeting.

Registration will begin Saturday afternoon from 4 p. m. until 6 p. m. and Saturday night open house will be in the ballroom of the hotel with dancing, talking, and cards.

Sunday's activities will begin with the Past President's Club Breakfast at 8 a. m. and Mrs. Eula Williams, of Kannapolis, will preside. A workshop will also be conducted by past president, Miss Mildred Richardson of Greensboro.

Mrs. Winifred Belthius, of Asheville, state president, will preside at the business session of the executive board meeting at 11 a. m. with the representative from each club composing the North Carolina State Association in attendance.

Discussion pertaining to the club problems and State, District and International projects will be reviewed. An activities report from each club will be distributed at this time.

Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m. with Mrs. Winifred Belthius presiding. Devotion will be given by the state secretary, Miss Earlene Longest, of Burlington.

State officers are: Mrs. Winifred Belthius, president; Mrs. Shirley Palmer, Salisbury, first vice president; Miss Karleen Longest, Graham, recording secretary; Mrs. Marie Media, Kinston, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Lou Yarbrough, Asheville, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Nell McCray, Kannapolis, historian; Mrs. Elsie Minor, Winston-Salem, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Nancy Belk, local club president, is a director.
