Afternoon Bridal Shower Compliments Miss Brawley

The weather forecast for November 9 was showers and in keeping with the forecast, Miss Ann Brawley, who will marry Larry Brown in December, was honored with a miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. C. F. Melchor at her home on West Statesville avenue, on the arrival of a Western Union messenger, bringing a message to the bride-elect from Dan, Cupid.

At this point of the entertainment, door prizes indicated the arrival of a Western Union messenger, bringing a message to the bride-elect from Dan, Cupid.

The bride's table was covered with a white imported luncheon set and her place was marked with a blue satin garb. An arrangement of pink snapdragons, pink roses with baby's breath, and mums were used in the center of the bride's table. Members of the wedding party were seated with the honoree.

The home was beautiful throughout with arrangements of mixed flowers, carrying out a rainbow color scheme. Mrs. L. B. Skeen and Mrs. Sam Pharr were in charge of the flower arrangements.

Covers for small tables were in pastel shades and the same color scheme was used in the refreshments.

Favors for the guests were individual nosegays of pink and white forget-me-nots.

The bride-elect was presented an orchid corsage upon arrival and the hostess' gift was a silver tray.

Entertainment for the afternoon consisted of a burlesque on marriage which was presented by Mrs. Robert Holshouser.

"Disertation on Brim" was given by Mrs. B. S. Houston and "The Rules of the Game" was rendered by Mrs. Keny Mayhew. Mrs. Charles Smith concluded the refreshment course by "With This Ring—I Thee Wed."

Following the able discussion by the matrons, toasts were offered by the forecast, Miss Ann Brawley, who will marry Larry Brown in December, was honored with a miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. C.
