

Road loss ends net win spree

Mooreville's tennis team found out just how tough the road can be Monday afternoon.

Riding a two-game win streak, both outcomes coming at home, during the season's opening week, the Devils were rudely welcomed in their first away match of the season in the form of an 8-1 defeat at Davie County.

Last week, the Lady Devils made quick work of a pair of visiting non-conference opponents, following up a season-opening, 7-2 quieting of Alexander Central with an 8-1 thumping past South Rowan. Those two bouts took place within two days of each other.

The wins, however, did come at a cost, as, in the opener, the hosts lost the services due to an injury of their number-four singles player who also helped form half of the number-one doubles team.

In the opening win, the Lady Devils secured enough wins in singles, with five, to lock up a favorable outcome and then added two of three triumphs in doubles to account for the final score.

In singles, home-court winners featured Mary-Grace Moon at two, Allison Bean at three, Hope Jordan at four, Megan Kenyon at five, and Sara Shumaker at six.

In doubles, twosomes logging wins included those comprised of Bean and Kenyon, playing at two, and Traci Pearce and Ashley Hunsuck, comprising the number three duo.

Later, also at home to face South Rowan, it was the sweep of doubles that made the one-point improvement after the home team again captured wins in five of the six singles.

With a new line-up due to the injury to regular number-four singles player Jordan, Pearce, Moon, Bean, Kenyon and Shumaker all collected singles wins to assure a team win.

In doubles, the teams of Moon-Bean, Kenyon-Pearce, and Hunsuck-Shumaker all prevailed.

Mooreville's lady netters head deeper into this week appearing in their longest stretch of home games beginning with this (Wednesday) afternoon's match against Lincolnton.

Other consecutive guests include a rematch with Davie County Monday, as well as visits from St. Stephens and Concord.

Impettes open at home

Mooreville Middle School's volleyball team won't have to go far to mark the end of its last-approaching season.

The Lady Imps will be doing so right at home.

An 11-match campaign taking place in just over a full month's time gets underway later this week on the road but winds up in late September with a fifth and final home appearance.

Along the way, the Impettes of first-year head coach Jennifer Markle, in charge of helping establish a program in its first year of play within the South Piedmont Middle School Conference, will face off against each of the other fellow league members twice each, tossing in a single outing against a non-conference opponent into the mix.

As a result, MMS will meet league foes Northwest Cabarrus, J.N. Fries, Kannapolis, Concord and Mt. Pleasant all on a home-and-home basis to account for the 10-game SPMS schedule. Each of those teams will pay a single visit each to the MMS gym while also playing host to the Lady Imps one time each.

The Lady Imps will tip off their season at Fries tomorrow (Thursday) and appear in their first home contest when entertaining Northwest Cabarrus early next week.

A see-saw agenda finds the Impettes engaging in no more than one home game and one road effort in a row throughout the end of the season except for one lone exception that gives them two straight road appearances near its midway mark.

All of the matches feature 4 p.m. starting times. Beginning with this week's debut, the MMS volleyball schedule, with home games in all caps, follows:

Aug. 23	.....J.N. Fries
Aug. 28	.....N.W. CABARRUS
Aug. 30	.....KANNAPOLIS
Sept. 4	.....MT. PLEASANT
Sept. 6	.....CONCORD
Sept. 10	.....NORTH DAVIE
Sept. 11	.....J.N. FRIES
Sept. 13	.....N.W. CABARRUS
Sept. 18	.....KANNAPOLIS
Sept. 20	.....MT. PLEASANT
Sept. 25	.....CONCORD

First time almost a charm for Mustangs

Playing together for the first time, the '90 IRSL Lake Norman Lady Mustangs began their season with a perfect performance, and they did just by that, beating an Atlanta team 3-0.

The Mustangs scored early on a corner kick by Caroline Moffett converted by Lauren Carter. Christina King had a great offensive charge as she just missed a scoring opportunity minutes later.

After a handball in the zone, Hayley Hammond converted a penalty kick that the Georgia goalie couldn't handle to up the score by two. The final Mustang tally was set-up on a nice play by Maria Miller, sending the ball to the offensive zone.

Lauren Vawter was waiting for the pass and she picked up her speed and converted a wonderful goal over the charging keepers' head.

With all the scoring in the first half of this game, the second half saw some more spectacular play. Sarah Tang, Megan Brantley and Lauren Carter were impressive as were Katie Brantley, Christina King and Hannah Rector for the offense. Calli Prevo had the keeper duties in the second half and she stopped everything that she faced.

The Lady Mustangs only gave up one goal all weekend and early signs indicate that they will be tough to score on. With Alicia Danenhower in goal and the speed of their defense, they will be a tough team to beat. The Lady Mustangs' regular season starts Sept. 8.

The second game of the day against the 90 Charlotte Soccer Club Ladies Blue saw a spectacular performance by Meghan Kos. She took complete charge on the defensive end, at the sweeper position, and cleared the ball out of the zone numerous times. Her rock solid effort and that of goal keeper Alicia Danenhower, who stopped everything that she faced, gave the Mustangs the momentum to muster out a 0-0 tie.

Lauren Carter had the biggest scoring threat of the game as she almost connected on a corner kick set up nicely by Caroline Moffett. Going into their final game, the Lady Mustangs had to give a perfect performance, and they did just by that, beating an Atlanta team 3-0.
