CINDY JACOBS AND MARY WALTON

This week three student teachers arrived to begin their practice teaching. They will be teaching in the ninth grade. They are Miss Delores Eudy with Mrs. Peiffer, Miss Bonnie Walls with Mrs. Nanney and Miss Gail Karriker with Mr. Lowder. We are happy to have these teachers in our school.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK...

REV. FLOYD TREKLER

Would you give your wife a second-hand dress for Christmas? Of course not! Then why will you give second-hands and left-overs to God?

Your first thought when you draw your pay should be of God. I heard about a little boy who got a red wagon for Christmas. As his mother watched him pull his new toy down the sidewalk, she noticed a doll in the wagon. It was the baby from the manger scene in front of the Church. When asked why he was riding the baby he replied, "I asked Jesus for a wagon and He gave it to me—I thought He ought to get the first ride in it."

Does Christ get the first ride with your pay check? The Bible commands us to "Honor the Lord with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce." (Proverbs 3:9).

Willis Ervin Laid To Rest Monday At 4

Willis Lee Ervin, 51, former Mooresville resident, died at Fort Devins, Mass., last Friday following a three-month illness. A native of Iredell county, Mr. Ervin was born on August 29, 1912, a son of the late Henry F. and Margaret Wilhelm Ervin. He was a veteran of World War I. The survivors include: three sons, Sgt. Billy R. Ervin of Fort Devins, Mass., Kenneth C. Ervin of Burlington, and Willis Lee Ervin, Jr., of Mooresville; two daughters, Misses Patricia and Sherry Ervin, both of Mooresville; two brothers, Hoyt and Howard Ervin, both of Mooresville; and one sister, Mrs. W. O. Brown of Mooresville, RFD. Funeral services were conducted at 4 p. m. Monday at the Cavin Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. Joe and Ernest Newton in charge. Burial was in the family plot in the Vanderburg Methodist Church cemetery.

Retiring Railroad Gets Caboose For Memories

A railroad worker at Zaleski, Ohio, has retired after a 43-year career with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, but he will still be spending a lot of time in a caboose.

SANTA COMES EARLY — One occupational sacrifice of persons in the mercantile field is pre-Christmas partying. It figures that during the biggest shopping season of the year, somebody has to mind the store. It should come as no surprise, then, that the folks at Belk's held their Christmas party Monday night at Elks Restaurant. They won't have time to do much socializing between now and Christmas. A highlight of the supper meeting was the exchange of gifts. Ross Brown begins the distribution as he presents a gift to Mrs. John Brown. Waiting their turn to deliver the gifts to employees and guests are Mrs. Neel Deaton and Kenneth Reading.
