"Although I Disagree With Everything You Say I Will Defend Unto Death Your Right To Say It"

VOL. XXX MOORESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1963 No. 34

Mrs. Doane Laid To Rest Sunday At 2

Mrs. Minnie Haynes Doane, wife of Fred Lee Doane, died at her home at 307 Carolina Boulevard in Salisbury at 6 p. m. last Thursday. Death was unexpected, being attributed to a heart attack.

A former resident of Mooresville, Mrs. Doane was the mother of Mrs. Ed Christenbury and a sister of Mrs. Joe A. Cashion, both of Mooresville.

The survivors, in addition to the husband, include: three daughters, Mrs. Billie J. Wilson of Salisbury, Mrs. Ed Christenbury of Mooresville, and Mrs. B. E. Davis of Asheville; one brother, L. L. Haynes of Kannapolis; and two sisters, Mrs. Joe A. Cashion of Mooresville and Mrs. Pearl Long of High Point. Four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Sunday at the Lyly Funeral Chapel in Salisbury, and burial was in Glenwood Memorial Park cemetery in Mooresville.

Boys' Choir Registration Is Extended

The deadline for registration for participation in the Mooresville Optimist Club-sponsored Boys' Choir this season has been extended two weeks. It was announced today by Hugh L. Sloop, choir director.

This will give members of the various midget football teams and other interested boys a further opportunity to join the group.

The registration, Sloop pointed out, is free, and Mrs. T. C. Baby, member of the choir mothers committee, is serving as secretary.

Practice sessions are held each Monday afternoon at the War Memorial Building from 3:30 until 4:30 o'clock.

Assisting Sloop with the direction of the choir is George Harbinson.

Boys, who have already registered, are: Tommy Baby, Lester Bost, Douglas Parker, Randy Hedrick, Sammy Harbinson, Jimmy Sullivan, Robert Brawley, Tommy McCraw, David McGraw, Tommy Woods.

Bowling Tourney Will Benefit White Cane Fund

During the two-week period, beginning October 6, Moor Lanes, Inc., is carrying on a no top tournament for men and women for the benefit of the White Cane Fund.

Separate trophies will be given to the man and woman who present the highest three-game totals for the no top tourney (9 pins count a strike).

The entire proceeds will go to the White Cane Fund, which is a state-wide drive for the benefit of funds for the State Association For The Blind.

Toastmasters Elect Hagley As President

During the regular meeting at the War Memorial Building Monday night, the Mooresville Toastmasters elected Sam Hagley as president for the coming six-month term.

Others who were elected included: Grier Brown, administrative vice president; Dr. George I. Wike, educational vice president; Al Hill, treasurer; and June Reese, sergeant-at-arms.

The club meets regularly on the first and third Monday nights of each month.

President Hagley, immediately upon election, challenged the club to work for higher goals in toastmastering, especially in the area of social or civic affairs.

Peach Trees Bloom At Overcash Home

Fred C. Overcash, one of the Mooresville Tribune's readers out in the Prospect community, called Tuesday morning to report that four of his peach trees were in bloom.

"We said that the four trees had quite a few blossoms on them."

"A little late for the 1963 season and a little early for the 1964 season—but in bloom just the same," Overcash allowed.

pride in their new post home.

"When we first started talking about trying to build," Stewart said, "the first thing we agreed on was that if we were going to build a post, it's going to be built right. We are determined to stick to that rule."

The commander explained that Harold Munday, a member of the post, is a bricklayer by trade and that five or six other Legionnaires of Munday are in charge of the building.

"Saturdays and nights are the only times most of us have any time to work here," Rogers said, "and we've been burning the night out the last few weeks because we can't let winter catch us without a roof."

"Come by next Saturday," he added, "and you'll really see some work."

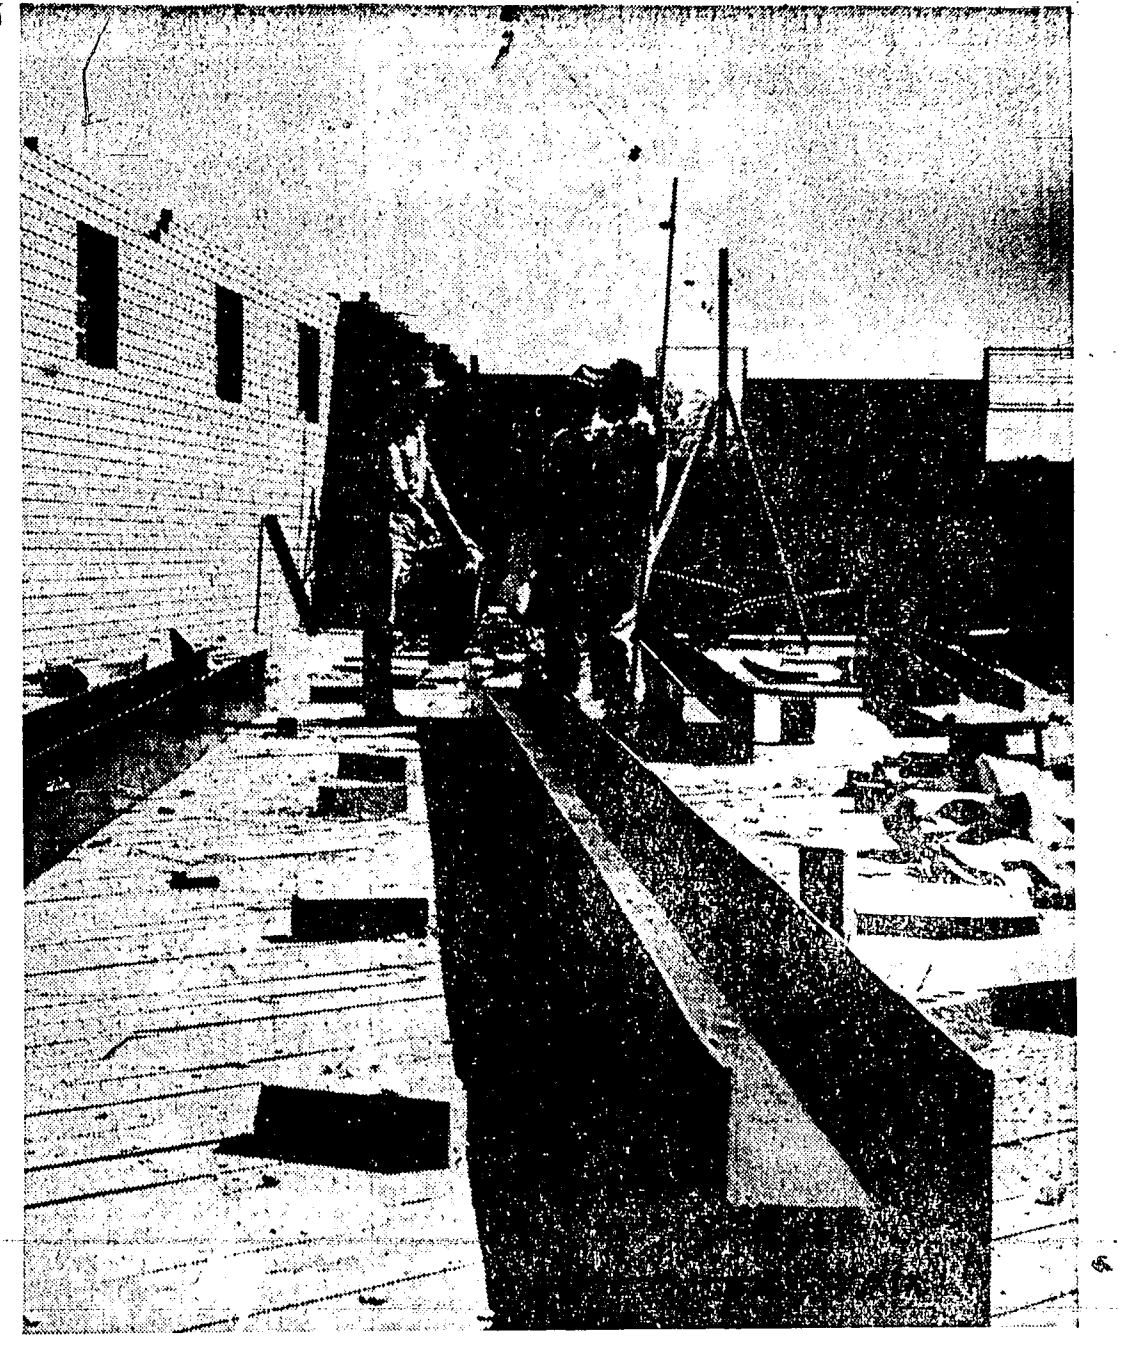

The new home for the post is the fruit of a great deal of labor by a great many people. But more than labor has gone into the building.

"People around here have been mighty fine in their support," Stewart explained, "we've got some contributions and we've raised a roof."

Everybody's A Carpenter

The jackleg carpenters come in mighty handy—the commander has tried to add, because they're all good workers and they know how to follow instructions.

There was not the usual hubbub of activity about the building during this past week end. The reason: Only the men who know their business are allowed to actually lay the brick, and right now the

Stretching Every Dollar

In gifts and pledges from Legionnaires and other friends of the post, the Troutman veterans organization now is assured of $7,000 toward the cost of the building. That $7,000 is being stretched out as far as $7,000 can be stretched outwards, but it won't be enough. Once the men get the building closed in, they can do some of the finish work as funds become available. One has only to talk to
