

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD ALLEN WHITLEY

Whitley-Dyson Vows Spoken In Double-Ring Ceremony

In a beautiful ceremony at the Church of God in Mooreville, Miss Martha Raye Dyson and Harold Allen Whitley were united in marriage at eight o'clock in the evening on Friday, October 18. The Rev. R. W. Tedder officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dyson of 182 North Church street, Mooreville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Whitley, of Raleigh.

Prior to and during the ceremony, wedding music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little, of Mooreville. Mr. Little sang "Always" and Mr. and Mrs. Little sang as a duet "Whither Thou Goest." Mr. Little, organist, rendered the traditional wedding marches for the processional and the recessional.

The wedding was spoken before a lovely background of palms and ferns with candelabra holding Cathedral tapers. Floor baskets of white gladioli and a wrought iron arch with wedding bells completed the scene.

Given in marriage by her uncle, M. L. Edson, of Kannapolis, the bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace, embellished with sequins, over satin designed with a portrait neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt ended in a chapel train. A crown of pearls and sequins held her veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums, and lily-of-the-valley centered with a white-purple throat orchid.

Miss Betty Proctor, of Sherrill's Ford, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a street-length dress of green taffeta styled with a round neckline and brief sleeves. She wore a matching headpiece with a circular veil and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Michael Sims, of Charlotte, served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were: Terry Hoke and Billy Radford, both of Mooreville. Little Miss Jeanette Ammons, of Mooreville, was flower girl and Master Mark Ammons, also of Mooreville, served as ring bearer.

Mrs. Dyson chose for her daughter's wedding a black wool dress with black accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums and lily-of-the-valley.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride couple, their parents, and attendants received in the vestibule of the church.

After a honeymoon trip to an unannounced destination, the couple will make their home at 1028 Long street, Albemarle. For traveling, the bride chose a brown fall suit with matching accessories and she lifted the orchid from her bride bouquet for a corsage.

Mrs. Whitley attended China Grove High School and prior to her marriage she was employed at Draymore Mfg. in Mooreville. Her husband attended Albemarle High School and is employed at Wisconsin Mills in Albemarle.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and appointed with two bride and groom wedding cakes, each topped with a miniature bride and groom. Crystal compotes held nuts and mints and a punch service completed the table appointments.

After the bride couple had cut the traditional first slice of wedding cake, Mrs. David Brown and Mrs. R. V. Wiggins completed the serving of the cakes. Mrs. Paul Baker assisted with the serving. For the occasion, Miss Dyson wore a three piece brown ensemble and Miss Tedder wore a white and blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, the bride couple, their parents and attendants paused in the vestibule of the church to greet their guests.

The bride, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ralph W. Tedder, is a graduate of Lenoir High School and is employed at Magla Products in Huntersville.

The couple are making their home at 612 Smith street, Mooreville.

Ostwalt Home Club Plans Fashion Show

Mrs. B. C. Howard and Mrs. R. T. Nesbit were hostesses to the Ostwalt Home Demonstration Club Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Howard in Troutman. Fourteen members were present.

Mrs. J. E. Smith presided, and during a brief business session Mrs. S. O. Whitener, clothing lender, announced that the club would have a fashion show at its November meeting. The members were asked to bring any article of clothing or handkerchiefs which they made, for display at this time. It was also announced that the achievement meeting of the Iredell Clubs would be held Nov. 7th at 8 a. m. at Rose Chapel Methodist Church, and all members were urged to attend.

Mrs. Smith presented Mrs. Willis Teeter, president of the Iredell County council, who was speaker for the club, due to the absence of the Home Economics Agent, being in Raleigh. Mrs. Teeter's topic was "A Better You." She emphasized the importance in planning our days so that we could have one third of the time each day sleeping, recreation, work, thus arranging our work to get recreation, or to do the things we would like to do.

She brought out that time in itself has little value, it is what you do with time that makes it valuable or worthless. That we, as club women, should strive to interest the younger adult women, imparting to them the wisdom of our experience. She also stated that we should try to get along with people, should be choosy about food, being careful of diet, have orderliness in our homes, to have neatness of appearance, but good taste in color, style and fitting of clothing. After Mrs. Teeter's talk, a question and answer period was held, which was most informative and interesting.

MR. AND MRS. CLYDE NOBLES

Bride's Father Officiates At Saturday Evening Wedding

The Rev. Ralph W. Tedder, of Rocky Mount and a former pastor of the Church of God in Mooreville, officiated at the wedding of his daughter, Miss LaWanda Jewel Tedder and Clyde Nobles on Friday, October 18. The 8 p. m. ceremony was performed in the Church of God in Mooreville.

Prior to and during the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little, of Mooreville. Mr. Little sang "Always" and Mrs. Little sang "Whither Thou Goest." Mr. Little, organist, rendered the traditional wedding marches for the processional and the recessional.

The wedding was spoken before a lovely background of palms and ferns interspersed with candelabra holding Cathedral tapers. Baskets of white gladioli and a wrought iron arch, centered with wedding bells, completed the scene.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Paul Tedder of Hickory. She wore a gown of white tulle with a lace bodice, round neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The skirt, accented on either side with lace, ended in a short chapel train. A jeweled crown held her shoulder-length veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with a purple-throated orchid.

Miss Jerri Tedder, of Rocky Mount and sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a street length dress of green taffeta styled with a round neckline and brief sleeves. She wore a matching headpiece with a circular veil and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Clyde Nobles of Marion, S. C., served as his brother's best man. Ushers were: Terry Hoke and Billy Radford, both of Mooreville. Flower girl was little Miss Jeanette Ammons and ring bearer was Master Dean Ammons, both of Mooreville.

Mrs. Tedder chose for her daughter's wedding a gray suit with a feathered hat and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, the bride couple, their parents and attendants paused in the vestibule of the church to greet their guests.

The bride, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ralph W. Tedder, is a graduate of Lenoir High School and is employed at Magla Products in Huntersville.

The couple are making their home at 612 Smith street, Mooreville.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Bud Stowe of Gastonia.

Out-of-town guests were: Misses Judy and Mary Jane Tedder of Rocky Mount, sisters of the bride and Dodge Nobles of Marion, S. C., brother of the bridegroom.

Local Band To Perform In WF Band Day Sat.

The Mooreville High School Band will be among 22 bands participating in Wake Forest College's 26th annual Band Day on Saturday.

The bands will be guests of the college at the Wake Forest-Maryland football game in Bowman Gray Stadium Saturday afternoon and will present pre-game and halftime shows with the Wake Forest Band.

Approximately 1700 bandmen will participate, according to Calvin Huber, director of the Wake Forest Band.

During the halftime show, the bands will assemble to form N. C. 300, in commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the North Carolina charter. Afterwards they will form the letters "DEAC" and will play "Dixie" and the alma mater of Wake Forest and Maryland.

Huber said the bands will initiate a new form of spreading letters across the football field. They will also introduce a new march, "The North Carolina Tercentenary March," which Huber wrote for the occasion.

The show will be directed by Huber and Robert Hays, supervisor of music in Forsyth County.

"The Mooreville band" has 32 members and is directed by R. O. Klepper.
