SIDELINE COMMENTS

A Hearty 'Well Done' For Youth Well Served

BY PHILIP PARKER
Saturday afternoon, the Midget Football League All-Star game ended the first season of the small fry football players. The success of the league in its first year of operation can be found in the faces of the players and fans who enjoyed every game to the fullest extent. Little do folks realize what a lot of work it took to make the league possible. In fact, thanks are in order to practically every sport fan in Mooreville. It took the co-operation of everyone to make it the success it was. The Iron Works men the league championship by a scant margin. However, every player on the four teams was a winner all the way. They were winners in the art of learning football and what it will mean to them in the future.

This first year, which officially came to an end with the presentation of trophies at the recognition banquet Tuesday night, deserves the thanks of each of us. To Clayton Dyson, president of the league, and to the many men of the town who took part as coaches, and to the firms and individuals who made it financially possible, the entire community offers a hearty 'well done' for your dedicated service to youth.

With this fine start, only better things can come in the future. The Junior High graders are really having their troubles this year. In four games they are with out a victory. Those of you who missed the contest against Troutman last Saturday night missed a lot of real good football played by our team. The 6-0 score indicates the locals were ready to win and came within a whisker of getting a victory.

This will be a tough week. However, we'll take North Rowan over East Rowan 19-6, Monroe over Albemarle 13-0, Davie County over Southwest 20-6, Children's Home to stop Griffith 27-6 and Statesville to down West Rowan 14-7. Troutman Coach Bill Mayhew will have his team fired up for the Mooreville Blue Devils and the Bobcats will play their best game of the season against Mooreville. We have friends on both sides, our decision, Mooreville 7, Troutman 6 in a close one.

Monroe Is Champion Of NPC

Monroe's Rebels, by virtue of their decision over West Rowan, now claim the title of North Piedmont Conference champion. The unbeaten Rebels will play the champion of the South Piedmont in the first round of the Western North Carolina High School Activities Association championship play-off.

Monroe has one remaining conference game on its schedule against Troutman on November 8. Regardless of how the game comes out Monroe has earned the right to represent the North Piedmont due to the fact that they defeated the regular season.

In between, the NPC champions have non-conference games against Albemarle tomorrow night and on Nov. 2 play Charlotte Catholic before winding up the season at Troutman.

The winners sport a 7-0 record in season play and are regarded as having a good chance of having an unbeaten season. Mooreville is in second place in the league standings with a 4-1 mark and an over all record of 5-2. The Blue Devils are sure of runner-up spot with a single victory in their remaining two conference games.

Children's Home is third in the league with a 3-2 mark while East Rowan claims third spot at 3-3. Davie County at 2-3 has fourth place.

Children's Home in seven games is 4-3. Davie County 2-5, North Rowan 2-5-1, East Rowan 3-3-1, West Rowan 3-3-1 and Troutman is 1-5-1.

The conference standings through last Friday nights games are:

TEAM	W	L
Monroe	6	0
Mooreville	4	1
East Rowan	3	3
Davie County	2	3
North Rowan	1	2
West Rowan	1	6
Troutman	0	5

Leaders Listed In Bowling

The bowling leagues are back in full swing at Moor Lanes.

These are the leaders in each league during the past week's action:

Carlton Whittington, Eva Dry, Paul Dingler and Harvey Isenhour headed the list of top bowlers by taking both high game and high set honors in their respective leagues.

Whittington won recognition in the Thursday night Sportsman League with a high game of 223, and a high set of 570.

Dingler won both categories in Friday night Major League action with a high game of 214 and a high set of 560.

Mrs. Dry swept honors in the ladies division of the Wednesday night mixed doubles by rolling a high game of 196 and by amassing a three-game score of 468.

Isenhour was the leader in the other sex of the mixed doubles. He scored 200 in the high game competition, and wrapped up league honors with a high set of 544.

In the Monday night Twilight League, Jerry Brown posted a high game of 232, while Ricky Moore won this loop's high set honors with 583.

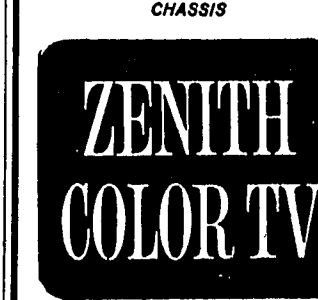

Jessie Sneyd, with 255, won high game in the Tuesday Early Morning League. Paul Dingler, who apparently keeps the lanes hot, took high set in this league with an amazing 643, top aggregate score of the week.

In the Wednesday Night Bar Mills League, Cansell Brown won high game with 211, and Haskell Sloop was high in sets with 592.

Barbara Anderson, one of the finest lady bowlers around, won high set honors in the Thursday Night Ladies Sundowners League with 492. Wanda Smith's 199 won high game recognition.
