Henry Brawleys Entertain At Wedding Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Brawley of 430 W. Wilson Avenue, Mooreville, entertained in Hickory Saturday morning at a wedding breakfast in honor of their son, McRae Brawley of Salisbury, and Miss Jewel Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Brawley were host and hostess to 30 guests, at 11:30 a.m. in Hickory restaurant.

A pink and white floral arrangement of roses, snapdragons and white carnations, and a decorative placecard with a bride and groom motif marked the places of the guests.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. J. Pratt Brawley of Mooreville; his sister, Mrs. Thomas C. McAden of Charlotte; the bride's sister, Miss Jeanette Huffman of Winston-Salem; Miss Gayle Gillespie of Mooreville; and Miss Phyllis Blake of Troy.

Miss Huffman and Mr. Brawley were married Saturday at 4 p.m. in St. Stephens Lutheran Church, Hickory.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Huffman of Springs Road, Hickory and is a graduate of St. Stephens High School in Hickory and Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, where she was a member of the Vernian Society. She is now a member of the faculty of Knox Junior High School in Salisbury.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ray Brawley, of West Wilson Avenue, Mooreville, is a graduate of Mooreville High School and Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity. He is a former teacher and coach at St. Stephens High School in Hickory. At the present time he is a member of the faculty and coaching staff of Boyden High School, Salisbury.

The wedding was spoken in a lovely setting of numerous ferns and candelabra with Cathedral spires. Floor baskets of all white flowers completed the setting.

Prior to and during the ceremony a program of wedding music was rendered by H. J. Sperkhard, organist, and Mrs. T. W. Nelson, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza in the new arch silhouette with delicately applied Swiss motifs strewn throughout. The gown was styled with a low Sabrina neckline, elbow length sleeves and a full court train. Her three-tiered bouffant veil of illusion was attached to a pearl de soie wedding band centered by a double bow. She carried a cascade of bridal roses centered by a white yellow-throated orchid.

Miss Jeanette Huffman, of Winston-Salem, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Blake of Troy, college roommate of the bride and Mrs. Roy Sigmon of Hickory.

All of the attendants wore sleeveless gold and silver sequined dresses with a bateau front neckline and lapped V back. A gathering of the guests.

The bride's gift to the bride-elect was china in her chosen pattern.

Devoted Mailman Given Honors By His Friends

A mailman in Ruleville, Miss., who refused to disappoint children was the guest of honor at a surprise party when he retired from his job after 39 years of service.

During his career, O. E. Ward often left candy or chewing gum in mail boxes for little ones when there were no letters. When a Santa Claus package did not arrive of time, Ward would check the post office Christmas morning and deliver such a package on his holiday time.
