

District LCW Has Mission Workshop

The Mission Study Workshop of the Central District of the Lutheran Church Women of North Carolina was held on Saturday, September 21, at Christiana Lutheran Church, Granite Quarry. There were 80 Lutheran church women attending the meeting with 27 churches of the Central District being represented.

Mrs. C. E. Housman of Gloria Del Lutheran Church, Salisbury, led the opening devotion. Mrs. J. D. Thomas, of Christiana, extended the welcome to the group. Mrs. J. E. Fisher, district chairman, introduced the leaders for the workshop.

Mrs. L. C. Cowles of St. James Lutheran Church, Rockwell, led the home mission workshop. The theme "The Changing City Challenges the Church," tells us why the mission of the church in the city is of great concern to all. We are deeply affected by what is happening there.

Mrs. Jerry Ball, of St. James Lutheran Church, Rockwell, led the world mission workshop, the theme being "Christian Mission in South-east Asia."

Following the workshops, lunch was served by the women of Christiana.

During a brief business session, Mrs. Ganser C. Sherrill made a motion that the club give a donation of $5.00 to the Ruth Current Educational Fund, with Mrs. Max Mills seconding the motion. Also it was decided that the present slate of officers would remain in office for another year, these being: Mrs. J. E. Smith, president; Mrs. John P. Sherrill, vice president; Mrs. C. Max Mills, treasurer; and Mrs. L. T. Queen, secretary.

Mrs. Nancy Myers, home demonstration executives leader's topic for her demonstration was "How to frame and hang pictures." Mrs. Myers pointed out that in selecting a picture one should select one that is not quite as dark as the darkest colors in the picture. That, if a picture has simple lines, then the frame should also be simple. She also stated that one can purchase ready-made frame moulding either as a finished product, or in an unfinished state, also in a number of sizes and shapes. One can either cut and assemble their own frames, finish them with the picture, and then to blend or match the furnishings of the room in which they are to hang. Otherwise, the firms carrying picture frame moulding in the area.

WHAT IS A TEENAGER?

Teenagers come in many sizes and shapes. Anything described as wearing madras, "wee-wees," and jeans clothes is a teenager. Teenagers are bumping, twisting, and dipping the clock around. They are filled with energy unknown even to themselves.

A teenager is a menace to the town, his parents, and himself. When needed, a teenager may be found sitting around twiddling his fingers. But, when one needs to be alone, there is always at least one teenager to help you.

A teenager is like a fad. He has the mind of a child that has mature ideas. His ideas are constantly changing. Parents hate teenagers. They are constantly heckled for the car or money. But, when busy or Tommy have gone for the evening, Mom and Dad hate the thought of their teenager becoming an adult.

The meeting opened with the singing of "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind." Mrs. Olin Edwards gave the devotion using "Taking Time To Live" as her theme.

Eighteen members were present. Two new members, Mrs. Clyde Millage and Mrs. McKas Howard were added to the roll. Mrs. Ernest Owens was a visitor.

Book reports were made by Mrs. George Benfield, Mrs. Roy Beaver and Mrs. Charles Pierce. Miss Shirley Henson, assistant Home Economics agent, was in charge of the demonstration on "Framing, Matting and Hanging Pictures." She stressed the fact that we do not want the frame to overstep the picture. Small pictures need a mat.

During the social hour, the hostesses, Mrs. Ed Owens and Mrs. Carl Morrow served coconut cream cake, mints and punch.

Following the evening's business, the hostesses assisted by her granddaughter, Jan Hager, served delicious refreshments.

Those present were: Mesdames Jim Blackwell, W. T. Curtis, Bill Caldwell, Pauline Plyler, Elizabeth Edwards, Nell Winecoff, Allie Williams, Dale Melchor, Lottie Malcolm, and Roy Denny and little Miss Majell Caldwell.
