

Junior-Senior Class Play- Cast Selected

The cast for "Dear And Glorious Physician," this year's selection as junior-senior play at the Mooreville Senior High School, was chosen last week. Tim Roach, who will be remembered for his portrayal of George in "Our Town" last year, heads the cast in the role of Luke. The cast is made up of twenty-eight students, not including the extras.

"Dear And Glorious Physician," an adaptation of the best-selling novel by Taylor Caldwell, is a fictionalized account of the Biblical Luke. In both setting and character, the production is unusual for high school presentation.

The play is scheduled to be presented at the Roland R. Morgan auditorium on March 20 and 21.

F. K. Beck of Lexington has opened offices in the McNeely Building at an accountant and tax consultant.

Beck, after graduation from Catawba College in 1951, began work for F. K. Beck Company, certified public accountants, of Lexington. While affiliated with this company, he gained experience in all state and federal taxes as well as financial statement preparation and auditing.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck and daughter, Pamela, will move to Mooreville as soon as they find housing.

New Officers Of Triplett Men Installed

The Methodist Men's Club of the Triplett Methodist Church met on Sunday morning, January 18, at the church for its regular monthly meeting.

During the meeting, the following new officers were installed: president, James Howard; vice president, Olin Edwards; secretary, Charlie Edwards; and treasurer, Claude Davis. The installation service was conducted by John McConnell.

Desty Smith Taken In Death

Desty Smith, 83, of 721 Clement avenue, Charlotte, passed away Sunday morning, January 12, 1964, at his home after a long illness.

He was born November 20, 1880, in Coddle Creek community of Iredell county. His parents were the late George Locke and Margaret Emaline Jamison Smith. He graduated from the Coddle Creek Academy and taught there several years.

He came to Charlotte in 1904 and was associated with the Charlotte Supply Co., until his retirement in 1958. In 1905 and 1906, while in Spartanburg S. C., he and Dr. Arthur J. Ransom organized the A. R. Presbyterian Church there. Mr. Smith was elected its first elder. He returned to Charlotte in 1909 and was married to the late Lena Steele Smith of the Prospect community.

Mr. Smith was a member of First A.M.P. Church, Charlotte, and had been an elder in the church 60 years, an elder emeritus after his illness. He was also a trustee. He was a member of the Past Grand Counselor of United Commercial Travelers and secretary and treasurer of Charlotte Council 37 years.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, January 14, at Harry and Brynna's Chapel in the Oaks. Officiating were the Rev. Harry C. White, Dr. W. W. Boye of West, S. C., and Rev. R. Marshall Wilson of Statesville.

Survivors are a son, James Gibson Smith, of Columbia, S. C.; two daughters, Mrs. Paul C. Hutchins, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Steele Smith of Charlotte, two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Ned E. Smith of York and Mrs. Frank B. Smith of Charlotte, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Rambler Reports Record Sales

Rambler retail sales in the United States and abroad set all-time records in the year just completed, according to H. T. Mayhew, owner Mayhew Auto Sales.

Mr. Mayhew said world-wide sales of 500,858 Ramblers not only set an all-time record for American cars, but also marked the first year in which Rambler has passed the half-million mark.

U.S. retail sales of Rambler Ambassador, Classic and American cars totaled 441,808 in the calendar year 1963. Sales in foreign markets netted an additional 56,050 units, Mr. Mayhew said.
