Current Events Discussed At Class Meeting

Mrs. J. D. Chamberlain was hostess to the members of the Kingdom Seekers Class of the First Baptist Church on Monday evening, January 20, at her home on Glenwood Drive.

Mrs. A. C. Craven was in charge of the program which pertained to current events in the field of religion and families. This was most interesting and members present participated in the program.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. H. T. Mayhew after which the hostess served delicious cocoanut-pineapple-nut delight cake and coffee.

Members present were: Mesdams R. W. Maddrey, George Darby, Everette Whitlow, H. L. Jones, H. T. Mayhew, A. C. Craven, Ray Hollifield, Joe Gilley, Jr., Bill Greene, Irene Huffman, Ben Griffin, J. A. Perry, Jr., J. D. Chamberlain, and Miss Ethel Stewart.

Personals

Mason Linker, of Mooresville and Miss Martha Motley, of Concord, were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gibson, at their home on the Salisbury Highway.

Mrs. Ellis Kelly and Mrs. Mildred Measick, of Kelly's Beauty Shop, attended the Zotos Hair Styling Forum held at the Hotel Charlotte last Sunday. The guest stylist and educator was Robert Fiance and he demonstrated the latest in creative hairstyling, functional haircutting, and hairdress techniques.

Miss Evelyn Gregory of Academy Street Beauty Shop attended Zotos Hair Styling Forum last Sunday at the Hotel Charlotte. Robert Fiance was the guest stylist and educator.

Mrs. Max Chandler returned to her home Monday from the Lowrance Hospital where she underwent surgery. She is recuperating very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stutts and children, Lynn and Bobby, of Mooresville, route 2, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stutts and daughter, Linda.

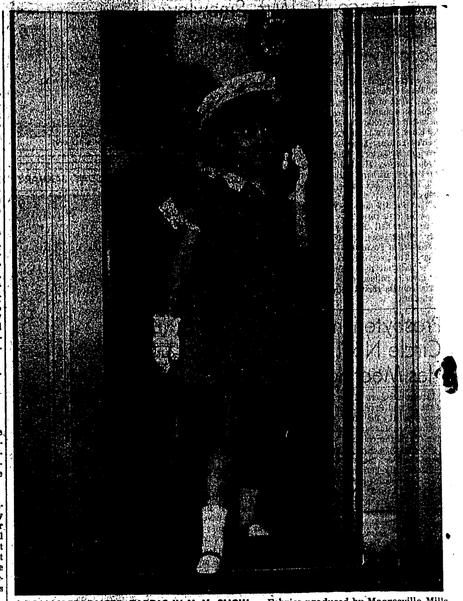
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill and children visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill last week. Ray has recently completed twenty years of service with the U. S. Air Force and was stationed at Shreveport, La.

Mrs. Pauline B. Moore underwent major surgery at the Lowrance Hospital last week. She is the Avon Representative of the Mount Mourne and Sherrilltown communities. She is improving nicely and hopes to return home the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. D. A. Brackett were in Charlotte last Sunday, January 19, to attend the christening of their granddaughter, little Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, of Charlotte. The christening ceremony was held at the W. H. Belk Presbyterian Church on the Nations Ford Road with the Rev. G. Eliot Dixon officiating. For the service, the baby wore the christening dress her grandfather Brown had worn when he was christened.

Dr. W. W. Painter has returned to his home on North Main street after being a patient at the Lowrance Hospital for the past few weeks. He is very much improved.

Mrs. Victor A. Johnston, Jr. returned to her home on the Coddle Creek Road Tuesday morning after undergoing surgery last week at the Lowrance Hospital. She is recuperating very nicely.



LOCALLY-PRODUCED FABRIC IN N. Y. SHOW — Fabrics produced by Mooresville Mills and Cascade Weaving Company, local units of Burlington Industries, were included in the all-Burlington show staged as part of the recent Press Week program of the New York Couture Group in New York City. In the picture, a young miss models an Easter dress made of a cotton rib fabric produced by Mooresville Mills.
