Sweetheart's Week End Set At 2nd Presbyterian Church

Christine Templeton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Templeton of Mooresville, has been named chairman of Sweetheart's Week End at the Second Presbyterian Church, February 15-16.

Sweetheart's Week End, an annual tradition for Junior High and Senior High young people of Second Church, will include four major events on Saturday and Sunday.

The major activity will be the Sweetheart's banquet at the Moore-

Camellia Howe Member ASTC Home Ec Club

BOONE — One Irredell County student at Appalachian State Teachers College—Camellia Howe—is a member of the Home Economics Club.

The Home Economics Club is a professional organization for students in the Department of Home Economics and is affiliated with the North Carolina Home Economics Association and the national association, AHEA.

Any woman who is interested in home economics shall be eligible for membership. The goals of the club are: To erect recreation and education activities for the home economist; To encourage scholarship and achievement among students of home economics; To promote higher ideals for homemaking; To develop and create a deeper love for home life; To promote a more cooperative spirit among home economics students and their associates.

Representatives of the club attended the NCHEA meeting in the fall and a spring workshop for the college section of NCHEA in the spring.

The highlight of the banquet will be the singing of the King and Queen and Prince and Princess. These four young people will be elected this Sunday in the Church School classes. The King and Queen will be elected from the Senior High school students. The Prince and Princess will be elected from the Junior High school students. Last year's King, Queen, Prince and Princess were Tim Roach, Mary Elizabeth Cobb, Jimmy Holt and Judy Meadows.

Dining will be by candlelight and the dinner will be roast turkey with dressing. The Sweetheart's Week End Sunday activities will include a cocoa and doughnut session prior to Sunday School on February 16. The committee in charge of this activity are Pat Vanderford, chairman, Sherry Archie, Larry Dyson, and Barbara Hawkins.

The sermon on Sunday morning will be preached by the youth leader for the weekend, Heath Rada.

Christine Templeton, chairman for the week end, is vice president of the senior high class at Second Church. In her high school, she is secretary of the junior class, treasurer of the Beta Club, and a member of the Student Council.

She was appointed to serve as general chairman of Sweetheart's Week End by Larry Dyson, president of the Youth Council, in conjunction with youth activities at the local church.

All Second Presbyterian young people and their dates and invited guests are welcome at the week-end activities, Feb. 15-16, according to the Rev. R. Paul Kercher, pastor of the church.

DEVILS TALES

By DIANN SINCLAIR

As everyone could hear Friday night, our boys' team is still on top. The MSHS cheering section certainly felt everyone know that we are Number One. Our boys defeated Monroe 45 to 36. The girls were defeated 24 to 24. It really did sound good to hear "school spirit" Friday night.

On February 28 there will be a Talent Show at MSHS. Any student who is interested in being in this show, please contact Mary Sue Brawley by February 14.

Congratulations to Clara Bravley who was elected Student of the Month for January.

Officials Attend Raleigh Hearing On Public Housing

Town officials and members of the local Housing Authority were scheduled to discuss Mooresville's federal housing project before the Utilities Commission in Raleigh today (Thursday).

Mayor John Miller was to lead a delegation of local leaders who were to attend the Utilities Commission hearing. Purpose of the meeting is to receive authorization to exercise the right of eminent domain in the acquisition of land for the 76 units of low-rent housing.

Others who planned to attend the hearing were Jack Duffy, chairman of the Housing Authority; Tate Mills, housing board executive secretary; Bill Neel, housing board attorney; City Manager Cy Brooks and Commissioner Oni Houston.

All the leaders except Brooks are to return to Mooresville tonight. The city manager will go to Chapel Hill to attend a N. C. City Managers Seminar. He will return Saturday.

Gospel Sing Planned At Calvary Baptist

Calvary Baptist Church, located on White's Mill Road, Statesville, will observe the usual gospel singing on Sunday, February 9, from 2:00 p. m. until 4:00 p. m. The singing takes place on each second Sunday of the month.

The pastor, Rev. W. B. Rimmer, extends a welcome invitation to all singers and the public to attend.
