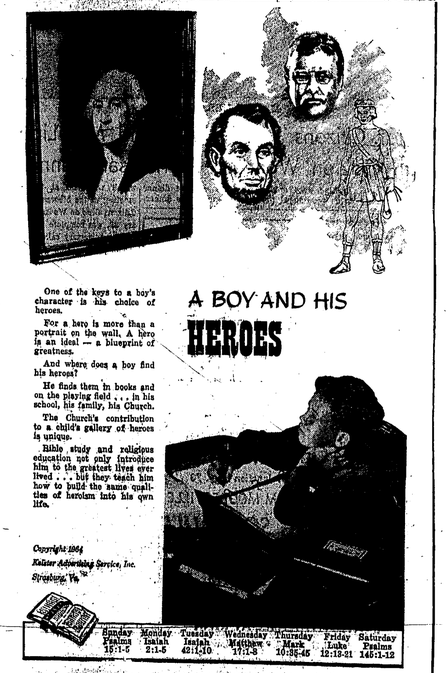
The hostesses served delicious black cherry salad, wafers, nuts and coffee to the following members not mentioned above: Mesdames Marvin Ballard, Laura Sherrill, J. D. Lowe, and Bill Trivette.



One of the keys to a boy's character is his choice of heroes.

For a hero is more than a portrait on the wall. A hero is an ideal — a blueprint of greatness.

And where does a boy find his heros?

He finds them in books and on the playing field . . . in his school, his family, his Church.

The Church's contribution to a child's gallery of heroes is unique.

Bible study and religious education not only introduce him to the greatest lives ever lived . . . but they teach him how to build the same qualities of heroism into his own life.

TRIBUNE PHOTO

Mrs. Mac Starke, left, member of the Junior Civic League, talks with Mrs. Irene Bryan of Bryan's Youth Center, about the latest trend in fashions for the coming spring season. The three piece suit is one of the popular styles for this spring and is in one of the newer fabrics, a very fine quality of rayon and silk, and will be worn in the show planned for March 7.

"Symphony Of Spring" Theme Of Fashion Show To Be Presented By Junior Civic League

According to the calendar, spring is just around the corner and with this in mind the Junior Civic League is planning a spring fashion show. The theme of the show will be "Symphony of Spring" and Saturday, March 7, has been scheduled as the date. The place will be the Roland R. Morgan Auditorium.

Mrs. Russell Woy is director of the event and Mrs. Mildred Gaffney of Mooresville and Charlotte, will be the co-ordinator.

Plans are being made for thirty-three local models to appear in the show and fashions for the entire family, including adults, young people and small children, will be shown.

Fashions to be modeled will be from six local stores including: Jonathan's Son, Lotus Miller Fashion Shop, Kelly's Clothing Company, Bryan's Youth Center, Libby's and Belk's Department Store.

The show will present the latest in styles and colors with accessories in four scenes: (1) active sport clothes; (2) casual wear (3) dress wear and (4) evening and cocktail fashions.

In session last week the members of the Junior Civic League appointed the following committees: publicity — Laura Morris, Helen Johnston and Mary Brawley; public relations — Lou Sullivan, Mary Ann Whitmore, Mary Winecoff, Nancy Parrish, Janet Woy, and Doris Overcash; tickets and programs — Pat Culberson, Mary Sue Faires, Kay Brown and Billie Stutts; models — Mary Link Bowman, Joan Gibson, Libby Lowder, and Shirley Whittington; entertainment — Christine Davidson, Lynne Starke, and Belva Barnhardt; and house — Peggy Trivette, Barbara Johnson, Charlene Overcash, Sondra Parker, and Julie Burton.
